HHH Gains On Nixon As Voting Nears

Tuesday Tells The Tale

WASHINGTON (AP) — The final days of the 1968 presidential campaign are being played out, shadowed at its end as at the beginning by the war in Vietnam and the meaning of the latest polls and surveys about the outcome.

With the election only a day away, an Associated Press survey and the latest major public opinion polls show Republican Richard M. Nixon leading, but Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey slicing into his margin.

The AP survey showed Nixon ahead in 24 states with 216 electoral votes, Humphrey had the lead for 21 electoral votes and third party candidate George C. Wallace for 39.

But 20 states with 262 electoral votes were rated tossups, and Humphrey has been gaining ground in most of them.

The AP survey was based on data gathered prior to President Johnson's decision last Thursday to halt U.S. attacks against North Vietnam. It therefore does not reflect any hifts which might have been produced by that administration order.

Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien Sunday pointed to the results of the latest major public opinion polls, which show Nixon's lead at two pionts over Humphrey. Earlier, Humphrey trailed in some polls by as much as 15 per cent.

O'Brien said Nixon's slippage indicated a Democract victory, a prediction challenged by Republican spokesman Herbert G. Klein, who said:

"Nixon is leading substantially in the states we need for the vote" and will capture at least 330 electoral votes, well over the 270 it will take to select a president.

Klein's view was boltered by a New York Times survey of political opinion in all 50 states showing:

Nixon leading in 30 states with 299 elcetoral votes, Humphrey ahead in eight states and the District of Columbia with 77 electoral votes and George C. Wallace in front in five states with 45 electoral votes. Seven states with 117 electoral vote were said by the Times to be too close to call.

Compared to the Times survey of a month ago, Nixon has lost 81 electoral votes and Wallace 21. Humphrey has gained 49, while those considered too close to call have increased by 53 electoral vote.

The Vietnam war as always was a prime subject of campaign talk Sunday.

Nixon, in a television interview, offered to go to Paris, or to Saigon, should the President deem that helpful.

Nixon appeared on the NBC-TV program "Meet the Press."

"If he would, for example, consider it helpful for me to go to Paris or go to Saigon in order to get negotiations off dead center, I would be glad to go," Nixon said.

"... President Johnson and president-elect Nixon could knock out the idea that Hanoi is going to gain from the negotiating table what they cannot gain from the battlefield," he said.

"Let me make one thing clear, I don't suggest this as a grandstand tunt," said Nixon. "I don't know that it will be helpful."

Nixon said the Paris talks should go on, depite the reluctance of the South Vietnamese govrenment to send a delegation to the bargaining table.

But he also expressed duobt tha tthe President would have halted the bombing of North Vietnam Friday "if he had expected the backlash from Saigon.

"I think President Johnson thoroughly expected the Saigon government would attend," the Republican said.

Humphrey, also interviewed on a Sunday TV program, said he believes Saigon will ultimately take part in the peace negotiations.

"I think we must depend on the good sense of the government of South Vietnam to attend and participate," he said.

"After all, the American people have paid a very heavy price in men and material and many other ways for the defense of South Vietnam and I think it's fair to expect that government will respond to the sacrifices we've made ..."

Humphrey appeared on ABC's, "Issues and Answers."

Both Humphrey and Nixon planned two-hour, election-eve telecasts from Los Angeles tonight.

Then they planned to head home to await the decision; Humphrey to Waverly, Minn., Nixon to his adopted base in New York City.

Wallace, finishing his campaign in the South, which has provided the base of his strength, repeated Sunday his belief that he will win.

The former Alabama governor's running mate, retired Air Force Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, voiced doubts about the effects of the bombing halt.

"It looks like another stalling" by the North Vietnamese "to allow them to recover from their losses in the South," he said.

Both Wallace and LeMay ap-

Two Boys 'Satisfactory' After Burns In Explosion

Two Midland youths whose shots at a rabbit touched off a flaming gasoline blaze near a leaking pipeline close to the Shippingport Bridge Sunday afternoon were in "satisfactory" condition today at Rochester General Hospital.

Richard Doyle, 15, and Daniel Como, 14, suffered burns of the hands, face and feet in the resultant explosion which partially blew off and burned some of their clothing.

THIRTEEN volunteer fire departments were summoned to battle the flames, which spread up a drainage ditch close to the Buckeye Pipeline Co. pumping station adjacent to the storage tanks of the Standard Oil Co. along Route 168 east of Midland.

The two boys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle of 1043 Beaver Ave. and Mike Como of 66 7th St. and Mrs. Wanda Como of Beaver, were target shooting along the Ohio River with a .22-caliber rifle.

They noticed a reddish color to the water in the drainage ditch fed from culverts under the double section of Route 68 near the bridge, but did not suspect it was gasoline.

Firemen said the fuel apparently leaked from the pumping operations some time Saturday night.

The boys said when they saw a rabbit, fired at it at the same time — "then everything exploded."

THE FUMES ignited and traveled along the drainage ditch, through the culvert under the road and up the ditch to the area near the pumping station, sending up clouds of black smoke and setting afire nearby brush and grass.

The two boys raced along the Penn Central Railroad tracks and up a road to Route 68, where they attempted to flag down passing motorists. After four or five cars passed, a couple halted and gave them aid, covering them with blankets.

The stubborn blaze was brought under control in about an hour. It was sprayed with foam from Industry fire department trucks and a foam machine from the Crucible Steel Corp.

Firemen reported the fiery path of fuel was halted at a "God-made" barrier — created inside a culvert which was filled with the gasoline so that

Board Meeting Tonight Canceled

First Picketing Occurs In Hancock School Fight

Picketing was started today at Hancock County schools in the current dispute with service personnel, and the board of education announced that a meeting scheduled tonight had been canceled "because no agenda had been prepared."

School authorities said classes resumed today despite lack of service personnel who have been boycotting the schools over the wage and working conditions dispute.

It was announced at New Cumberland legal counsel for the schools and for the Hancock County School Services Association are attempting to work out an agreement.

The exact number of pupils attending school today was not fully determined by school administrators who said at 10:30 a.m. today the count was not complete but it did show some of the schools were "down in attendance."

For the first time since the boycott started a week ago, pickets appeared at all the schools. The number of pickets at each site varied, but the average was four at each school.

The Rev. George Stewart, president of the School Service Personnel Association, said the picketing would continue, and added "It will be peaceable and no violence is being threatened."

In other developments, the Board of Education reported today that a planned conference meeting set for tonight was cancelled due to lack of a prepared agenda. One member stated, "In light of the recent difficulties, no agenda was prepared."

A majority of the service personnel is boycotting work assignments in a dispute with the school administration over salaries and fringe benefits. According to Rev. Stewart, approximately 133 members of the 140-member group are not at their assignments today. The school system employes 180 school service personnel.

Negotiations between the school administration and the non-teaching personnel were broken off Thursday.

The service personnel rejected an offer by Dr. Vernon Wyland, school superintendent, dealing with an additional 13-cent an hour increase for all custodians. Dr. Wyland said at that time he was not prepared to offer any increases to the other service personnel, but would agree to further talk on the

Weatherman 'Casts' Favorable Forecast

The weatherman has cast a favorable forecast for Tuesday's voting locally and in the area.

The outlook is for sunny and a little warmer.

Partly cloudy and little change in temperature is due today, with the high ranging between 53 and 60. Tonight's low will be in the 30s.

Sunny Day Expected To Boost Vote

City, County Polls Will Open At 6:30 And Close At 6:30

The Ohio forecaster promised today that Columbiana County voters will have sunny, warmer weather as they go to the polls Tuesday to help name a new president and other national, state, district and county officials and decide the fate of 35 special questions and issues.

The ideal election weather should help bear out the County Election Board's forecast of a turnout of 46,000 to 48,000, putting the vote close to the all time record of 48,830 in 1960.

But East Liverpool's vote cannot break any records tomorrow. Only 8,187 are registered for the presidential election, in contrast to the more than 11,000 qualified for the 1960 balloting. The city cast over 9,000 votes in the presidential election eight years ago.

The county will fill 10 Courthouse offices. It also will have a voice in other posts, including those of U.S. congressman and state senator and represenative.

The 170 polling places in Columbiana County will open at 6:30 a.m. and close at 6:30 p.m.

Three polling places in East Liverpool and one in Liverpool Township have been shifted to new locations since the school district's special election in September. One St. Clair Township polling place also will be in a new location.

Precincts F, H and I of the Fourth Ward, formerly located in the United Brethren Church on Pleasant Heights, will be back in the former Pleasant Heights School for the election Tuesday.

The Maplewood Precinct of Liverpool Township will vote at the former Lincoln School building on Orchard Grove Ave. It previously was in the Taft School at Maplewood.

The East Precinct of St. Clair Township will be located at the Anderson Methodist Church on the Calcutta - Smiths Ferry Rd.

Ground War At Low Level In Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — Ground fighting in Vietnam tapered off to its lowest level since last summer, but allied communiques today reported at least 164 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers killed by planes, artillery, infantrymen and patrol boats in a number of small scattered actions.

U.S. and allied forces reported only light contacts with North Vietnamese army and Viet Cong units throughout South Vietnam Sunday, the U.S. Command said.

Two communiques from the command today did not report a single major ground action. Military sources said all the enemy casualties reported occurred in small actions and none of them were initiated by the enemy.

County Will Have Voice In Two Assembly Fights

Columbiana County will have a voice in naming two members of the Ohio General Assembly in the general election Tuesday.

Voting as part of the five-county 30th State Senatorial District, Columbiana County will join in choosing between John Longsworth, 28, of Salem, the Republican incumbent seeking a second term, and State Rep. Douglas Applegate, 40, of Steubenville, the Democratic nominee.

Comprising the 34th District of the Ohio House of Representatives, Columbiana County will decide whether to return Clarence L. (Dutch) Wetzel of near Lisbon, a Republican bidding for his 10th term, or pick Roy Allen, 27, of Columbiana village, Democrat, a printer at The Review and a former news writer.

The state senatorial district is comprised of Columbiana, Jefferson, Harrison and Carroll Counties and about two-thirds of Tuscarawas County.

Arch Moore Injured In Copter Crash

Craft Goes Down After Hitting Pole At Field In Hamlin

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., Republican candidate for governor in West Virginia, nursed broken ribs, cuts and abrasions today, the result of a helicopter crash en route to a political rallly Sunday.

Moore was restricted to his hospital bed Sunday night with three rib fractures, a bruise on his right leg, cuts on both hands and his right leg and a possible ruptured left calf muscle.

Republican State Headquarters said it was "highly doubtful" he would be able to greet GOP vice presidential nominee Spiro Agnew when the Maryland governor flies into West Virginia about noon today.

The helicopter carrying Moore and three others crashed on the Hamlin High School football field about 2 p.m. Sunday. An estimated crowd of 300 persons saw the accident.

The chartered helicopter fell abou 3t0 feet after hitting a flag pole while apparently trying to avoid high tension wires. Spectators said it hit a car as it landed.

Moore, West Virginia's 1st District congressman, spoke briefly to the crowd following the crash, saying he was "glad to be standing here," before he was taken by ambulance to Charleston General Hospital.

Hamlin is about 30 miles southwest of Charleston.

Dr. Carl Roncaglione, the attending physician, said it was not known when Moore would be able to leave the hospital, but

NLF Pledges To Continue War In Viet

Statement Given By Cong Leader For Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — A woman revolutionary led a Viet Cong delegation into Paris today to join the peace talks. She pledged that the war in South Vietnam will continue as long as the United States "props up the puppet administration of Saigon."

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, a member of National Liberation Front's central committee, said on her arrival from Moscow: "The population of South Vietnam ardently wishes for peace, but this peace cannot be disassociated from independence and liberty.

"As long as the American government has not renounced its aggressive aims and ... props up the puppet administration of Saigon ... the Vietnamese people will continue their struggle until final victory."

Mrs. Binh, the charman of the Women's Liberation Association, heads a team of six members.

The delegation was greeted by flag-waving Vietnamese and Soviet Ambassador Valerian Zorin and Ambassador Xuan Thuy, who leads Hanoi's delegation to the peace talks with the United States which began on May 13.

A spokesman said the NLF "will be present" at the first meeting of the expanded talks Wednesday. They are attending as a result of the agreement between Hanoi and Washington under which President Johnson halted the bombing of North Vietnam last week.

South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu has announced that his government will not send a delegation to the talks because it will not negotiate with the NLF as a separate entity. He said the boycott

Floods Claim 100 In Italy; Damage High

ROME (AP) — Rescue teams battled mud and floods today to search for survivors of weekend floods and landslides that cut a path of death and destruction along the southern edge of the Italian Alps.

More than 100 dead were counted and officials feared the final toll may go much higher, exceeding the 113 who died in the floods in Florence and Venice two years ago today. That was the worst flood in modern Italian history.

The prefecture at Vercelli, at the apex of a tragic triangle formed by three overflowing rivers northeast of Turin, announced that 91 bodies had been found in that province, the worst hit area in the disaster zone.

At least 13 others were missing, and 10 other dead were reported in other sections of northern Italy.

Craft Goes Down After Hitting Pole At Field In Hamlin

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., Republican candidate for governor in West Virginia, nursed broken ribs, cuts and abrasions today, the result of a helicopter crash en route to a political rallly Sunday.

Moore was restricted to his hospital bed Sunday night with three rib fractures, a bruise on his right leg, cuts on both hands and his right leg and a possible ruptured left calf muscle.

Republican State Headquarters said it was "highly doubtful" he would be able to greet GOP vice presidential nominee Spiro Agnew when the Maryland governor flies into West Virginia about noon today.

The helicopter carrying Moore and three others crashed on the Hamlin High School football field about 2 p.m. Sunday. An estimated crowd of 300 persons saw the accident.

The chartered helicopter fell abou 3t0 feet after hitting a flag pole while apparently trying to avoid high tension wires. Spectators said it hit a car as it landed.

Moore, West Virginia's 1st District congressman, spoke briefly to the crowd following the crash, saying he was "glad to be standing here," before he was taken by ambulance to Charleston General Hospital.

Hamlin is about 30 miles southwest of Charleston.

Dr. Carl Roncaglione, the attending physician, said it was not known when Moore would be able to leave the hospital, but

NLF Pledges To Continue War In Viet

Statement Given By Cong Leader For Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — A woman revolutionary led a Viet Cong delegation into Paris today to join the peace talks. She pledged that the war in South Vietnam will continue as long as the United States "props up the puppet administration of Saigon."

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, a member of National Liberation Front's central committee, said on her arrival from Moscow: "The population of South Vietnam ardently wishes for peace, but this peace cannot be disassociated from independence and liberty.

"As long as the American government has not renounced its aggressive aims and ... props up the puppet administration of Saigon ... the Vietnamese people will continue their struggle until final victory."

Mrs. Binh, the charman of the Women's Liberation Association, heads a team of six members.

The delegation was greeted by flag-waving Vietnamese and Soviet Ambassador Valerian Zorin and Ambassador Xuan Thuy, who leads Hanoi's delegation to the peace talks with the United States which began on May 13.

A spokesman said the NLF "will be present" at the first meeting of the expanded talks Wednesday. They are attending as a result of the agreement between Hanoi and Washington under which President Johnson halted the bombing of North Vietnam last week.

South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu has announced that his government will not send a delegation to the talks because it will not negotiate with the NLF as a separate entity. He said the boycott

Floods Claim 100 In Italy; Damage High

ROME (AP) — Rescue teams battled mud and floods today to search for survivors of weekend floods and landslides that cut a path of death and destruction along the southern edge of the Italian Alps.

More than 100 dead were counted and officials feared the final toll may go much higher, exceeding the 113 who died in the floods in Florence and Venice two years ago today. That was the worst flood in modern Italian history.

The prefecture at Vercelli, at the apex of a tragic triangle formed by three overflowing rivers northeast of Turin, announced that 91 bodies had been found in that province, the worst hit area in the disaster zone.

At least 13 others were missing, and 10 other dead were reported in other sections of northern Italy.

Hundreds of army and civilian rescue workers struggled

Old Vehicles Prove Costly In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland's worst litter bugs aren't the guys who dump their car ash trays on city streets —they're the guys who throw the whole car away.

Cleveland police say the problem of abandoned cars has created a costly and awkward problem for the city and has resulted in an increasing number of complaints from citizens.

Last year, the police tow-truck unit hauled away 3,541 abandoned cars. In 1957, only 200 motorists walked away from their cars, leaving them to the police or vandals.

"The owner has abandoned the car because of the repairs exceed the value of the car," said Traffic Commissioner Chester H. Klusik. "It costs more to tow it to a junk yard than he could get from the junk dealer."

The junk-price drop is the result of changes in steel making and the abundant supply of scrap. The scrap price has dropped from $42 a ton to $10 a ton in a little more than 10 years.

Police must tow the cars, along with their other chores of removing wrecked autos and towing violators.

If the abandoned auto is in any kind of running condition, a warning ticket must be placed on it. After three days, it can be towed and is then inventoried at a police pound. An effort is made to notify the owner.

Steel Output Shows Boost

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Raw steel production is recovering rapidly from the slump that followed the July labor contract settlement and has increased 13 per cent in the last five weeks, Steel magazine said today.

The weekly journal of metalworking said last week's output of 2,130,000 net tons was an increase of nine-tenths of one per cent over the preceding week.

Weekly production is now back to the early August level and continued slow recovery through November and December is predicted, it added.

"The rise in steelmaking can be traced to steady increases in order entries on mill books," Steel said. "Estimates of mill shipments for the rest of this year vary from no increase over the present level to five per cent higher."

The magazine said that continued inventory liquidation probably will hold shipments at a level only slightly above the August-September low point for the next two months.

"November tonnage probably will be down slightly from October's because the latter was a big month for tin plate as buyers took heavy shipments to beat a scheduled price hike," Steel explained.

"In general, steelmakers anticipate they'll ship 11 to 15 per cent more tonnage in the first quarter next year. . . . They do not, however, look for complete cleanup of excess invenories held by their customers until March or later."

Brisk demand for automobiles indicates good steel buying for the remainder of the year, the magazine continued. It added that producers report automotive steel ordering for December is up four to five per cent over November.

Steel's price composite on the No. 1 grade of steelmaking scrap remained at $23.67 a gross ton last week. It was the fifth straight week without a change.

no significant actions along the Demilitarized Zone for the third consecutive day since President Johnson's order halting the bombing of North Vietnam Friday.

No shelling of major cities was reported since My Tho, in the Mekong Delta, was hit with 38 mortar rounds shortly before 1 a.m. Sunday, 28 hours after Johnson's order went into effect.

South Vietnamese headquarters, however, reported two light shellings of military installations where soldiers live with their families. A spokesman said two soldiers and four civilians were wounded and three houses were destroyed.

The U.S. Command's morning communique did not report a single ground action. South Vietnamese headquarters reported two skirmishes in which 16 enemy were killed and 12 taken prisoner. Government casualties were put at six wounded.

Air and naval offensives all across the South are now being pushed by the U.S. Command.

The U.S. Navy said an allied river campaign aimed at strangling enemy supply lines from Cambodia has been under way since Oct. 16.

The Navy did not say how many ships were being used in Operation Sea Lords, but there are about 400 patrol and attack boats in its three delta forces.

In the first phase of the campaign, the U.S. Command said, 359 Viet Cong sampans were smashed and 411 enemy fortifications were wrecked. Then South Vietnamese marines and infantrymen landed Saturday along a 35-mile canal. No enemy troops were killed, but the Vietnamese seized mortar and artillery shells, a rocket launcher and 2,000 rounds of small arms ammunition. South Vietnamese casualties were reported light.

U.S. Air Force and Navy bombers continued their attacks today in Laos, hitting North Vietnamese supply lines and suspected enemy troop concentrations. Air Force B52 bombers dropped 1,500 tons of bombs on bases along the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon, in the central highlands near the area where Laos and Cambodia border Vietnam, and in the north 30 miles below the "DM."

The U.S. Command said six Marines were killed Sunday and eight wounded when a Marine F4 Phantom jet mistakenly bombed American troops southwest of Da Nang.

he said his stay probably "will be shorter than three days."

Dennis Knapp, Kanawha County Common Pleas Court judge and the GOP candidate for the West Virginia Supreme Court, also was hospitalized with a broken collarbone.

The other two persons aboard —Lou Wells of Gaithersburg, Md., the pilot, and Jack Stafford of Princeton, a GOP campaign worker — were injured slightly.

Hospital authorities listed both Moore and Knapp in "satisfactory" condition Sunday night, and nurses said Moore was "resting comfortably."

Moore flashed a "V" for victory sign to newsmen as he was carried into the hospital on a stretcher and said his right rib cage "is giving me trouble but other than that I'm in great shape."

He said Wells' capability as a pilot "saved our lives entirely."

Louie Steel, Midland fireman, used a Midland borough high-lift to build an earthen fire well to help contain the blaze.

FIREMEN were apprehensive that the flames might spread to the storage tanks of the oil firm.

Departments assisting Industry and Midland were Brighton Township, Ohioville, Center Township, Raccoon Township, Shippingport, Vanport, Beaver, Rochester, New Sewickley Township, Big Knob and Bridgewater.

Midland Fire Chief Bill Monac pointed out all are volunteer departments and have no written agreement on a joint operation of such scope, and expressed appreciation. Midland Heights firemen stood by at Midland.

Industry Fire Chief Don Doyle said an investigation will be made to determine the need for a waterline to the area, since there is no hydrant near the site.

The East Liverpool Civil Defense rescue team helped direct traffic. Industry firemen remained at the scene last night.

The leak was apparently caused by a stuck relief valve at the pumping station,, Chief Doyle said today. Charts and timing devices indicate it apparently happened at 12:15 p.m.

Harold Long of Beaver, manager of the station, reported approximately 500 gallons of gasoline were lost.

Batteries Taken From 2 Vehicles

Two motorists told police batteries were stolen from their autos Sunday. Police also investigated two vandalism cases involving autos.

Kathryn A. Roberts of 943 Denver St. told officers a 12-volt battery was stolen from her 1964 model car while it was parked on a lot owned by the First Church of Christ Sunday between 7 and 8:45 p.m. Howard Snyder of 713 Dewey Ave. reported to police a 12-volt battery was stolen from his 1964 model auto while it was parked at the rear of 1054 St. George St. Sunday night.

John A. Teresh of Weirton told officers early Sunday the distributor cap and an eight-track stereo cartridge were stolen from his auto while it was parked on St. George St.

Steven Kasunich of 1424 Pennsylvania Ave. told officers a teen-ager hurled an object which broke the rear window in his 1962 model car as he drove north on Mulberry St. Sunday at 1:41 a.m. Burl Quinn reported to police a window was broken out of a 1951 model pickup truck owned by his brother, Laverne Quinn of 1032 Pennsylvania Ave., while it was parked on Mulberry St. about 1:30 a.m. Sunday.

A car was driven off Jennings Ave. and tore up grass in Highland Colony Saturday night or early Sunday, leaving two paths about nine feet long, officers said.

Batteries Taken From 2 Vehicles

Two motorists told police batteries were stolen from their autos Sunday. Police also investigated two vandalism cases involving autos.

Kathryn A. Roberts of 943 Denver St. told officers a 12-volt battery was stolen from her 1964 model car while it was parked on a lot owned by the First Church of Christ Sunday between 7 and 8:45 p.m. Howard Snyder of 713 Dewey Ave. reported to police a 12-volt battery was stolen from his 1964 model auto while it was parked at the rear of 1054 St. George St. Sunday night.

John A. Teresh of Weirton told officers early Sunday the distributor cap and an eight-track stereo cartridge were stolen from his auto while it was parked on St. George St.

Steven Kasunich of 1424 Pennsylvania Ave. told officers a teen-ager hurled an object which broke the rear window in his 1962 model car as he drove north on Mulberry St. Sunday at 1:41 a.m. Burl Quinn reported to police a window was broken out of a 1951 model pickup truck owned by his brother, Laverne Quinn of 1032 Pennsylvania Ave., while it was parked on Mulberry St. about 1:30 a.m. Sunday.

A car was driven off Jennings Ave. and tore up grass in Highland Colony Saturday night or early Sunday, leaving two paths about nine feet long, officers said.

Ohio's Next Senator

Ohio will send a new Senator to Washington in January — either John J. Gilligan, 47, Democrat, or William B. Saxbe, 52, Republican—to replace Frank J. Lausche who has served 12 years.

The two candidates are capable, experienced, well-informed and personable. Gilligan served six terms in Cincinnati's Council and a term in the U.S. House of Representatives. Saxbe served eight years in the Ohio House — two as majority leader — and eight years as Attorney General.

Gilligan, a "dove" on the Vietnam issue who lost some Labor backing with his support of Sen. Eugene McCarthy earlier this year, seemingly lacks the degree of preparation, the leadership qualities and the sensitivity to constituent attitudes required for "the most exclusive club in the world."

Saxbe has earned respect as a legislative expert, as an administrator, as a knowledgeable authority on crime and its control and as a statesman with convincing ideas on foreign and domestic policy. He should be the next man to represent one of the nation's richest and most populous states on Capital Hill.

Vote For, Vote Against

There are large numbers of tri-state area residents who are not sure of Nixon, are unhappy with Humphrey, worried about Wallace, concerned about the county candidates, saddened by the state legislative nominees.

They say they are not going to vote Tuesday, because they "don't have a choice."

We say they have been watching too many movies where one can easily spot "the good guys" and "the bad guys" by the hats they wear, or the way they shift their eyes or beat their mothers.

Heroes are hard to come by, especially if you've been living in their neighborhood for a couple of decades, have seen them make a few errors, lose a few games, get somewhat bald.

But Nixon and Humphrey are the products of the two-party nominating system, and there are decisions Americans must make. In America, the best decision is the one most representative of the people, so everyone's vote should be counted if we are going to get the government we want, from the White House and Capitol Hill through Columbus, Harrisburg and Charleston, through Lisbon, Beaver, New Cumberland and Steubenville.

This year in particular each ballot is important, because the stay-at-home citizen might just help elect his own worst enemy. Vote for or against, but vote!

In Spite Of Ourselves

A symbolic shovelful of earth was turned Friday afternoon at the site of the new Columbiana County Airport to begin the construction of the facility which hopefully will be operational next summer.

This new airport and completion of four-lane Route 11 should have a sizeable impact on the rate of development of southern and central Columbiana County — depending upon planning, preparation, promotion and a willingness to participate.

Lack of an adequate bridge across the Ohio River will be one major obstacle to full local utilization of the air facility and the highway.

Lack of water extended to the Calcutta and Glenmoor areas will be another major handicap to establishment of new residential areas, commercial operations and light industries—the very things new roads and airports are intended to attract.

Opponents of the St. Clair Water Project continue to criticize the proposal and unjustly represent the decision to proceed with construction as improper — despite public hearings and despite correct procedures throughout. The matter, of course, remains in the courts where their claims have consistently been denied.

The East Liverpool district, with new schools, a new Post Office, improvements and growth on many levels, holds promise of great future growth, and will no doubt continue to progress—at times in spite of itself.

Why Harry Won't Play

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — "Hello, Mrs. Jones. Can Harry come out and vote?"

"Harry doesn't want to come out and vote. He's in his room sulking. He said he isn't going to come out of the house until the election's over, and he said he might not even come out then."

Art Buchwald

"Gee, that's a shame. I knew Harry wasn't happy with the choices this year but I didn't think he'd stay in his room all day."

"Harry's funny that way. He said nobody cares what he thinks and, since he can't have his way, he's not going to give them the satisfaction of seeing him vote this year."

"Who's 'them'?"

"I ASKED HARRY and he said that 'them' are those who are perpetuating the system."

"But if Harry doesn't vote, he not only is hurting them, he's also making it possible for the others to get in."

"Harry says it doesn't make any difference who gets in, because if they're not going to listen to him, then there's no difference between them."

"But what about the worst ones? Doesn't he want to stop them?"

"No, Harry says the only way to destroy the system is to make it worse than it is, and if the 'worst' ones win, it will prove once and for all that the system's no good."

"You mean Harry's rooting for the worst choice of the three because that will prove he was right in the first place?"

"SOMETHING LIKE THAT. Harry has given it a lot of thought. As a matter of fact, he's been sulking in his room since Chicago. Harry says the only true Americans are those who don't vote this year."

"But if Harry doesn't come out and vote, how does anyone know he's not voting?"

"I didn't ask him. But Harry has been looking forward to Election Day. He has it worked out in his mind that if he doesn't show up and vote, everyone will ask, 'Where's Harry?' Then he can say: 'You should have thought about that before you nominated Hubert Humphrey.' Harry's a great one for fantasies."

"I should think so. Couldn't I talk to Harry and try to persuade him to come out and vote?"

"Harry doesn't want to talk to anybody. He said it's too late to talk. Now it's time for action."

"But if Harry won't come out of the house, what kind of action is he thinking of?"

"For one thing, he plans to boo the results as they come in on television."

"You mean even though he isn't going to vote and he doesn't care who gets it, Harry still is going to watch the results on televisions?"

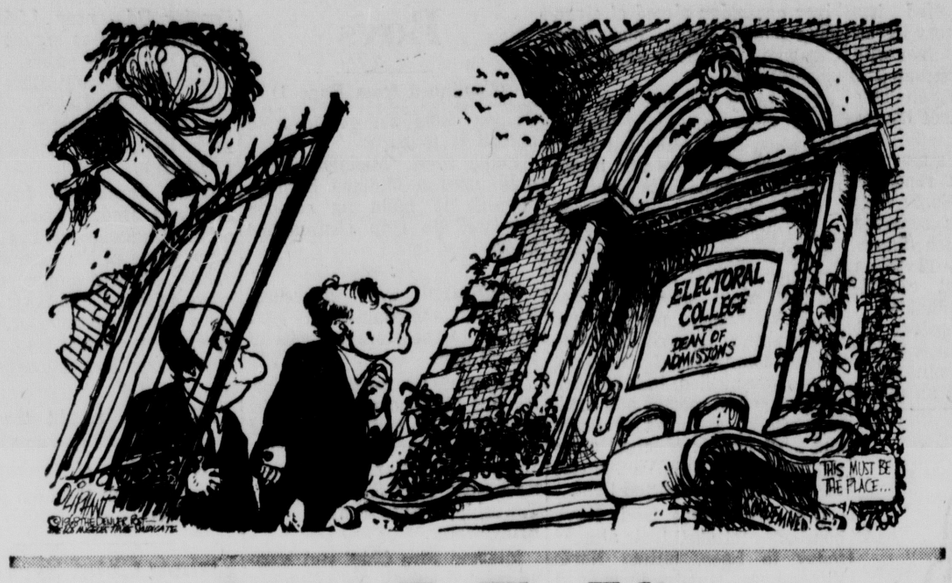
"Of course. How else will Harry know he was right in the first place when he decided not to vote?"

"THAT MAKES SENSE. Do you think Harry will come out of his room after Election Day?"

"It's hard to say. The last time I spoke to him he said he might not come out of his room for four years."

"Gosh, Mrs. Jones, it must be tough on you."

"You can say that again, especially at mealtimes. Harry keeps saying the reason he's staying in his room is because I once told him that if he couldn't stand the heat, he should get out of the kitchen."



Letters To The Editor

Home Budget Defended

Last week I had the displeasure of reading Mr. Boyd's statement regarding the County Home and his so-called extravagance.

First of all in regards to the increase in expenditures from 1965 and on — the new hospital unit was opened in September 1965. When I came to the Home in October 1965 the people occupying the new hospital unit were of the nature that could have been quartered in the dormitory or old hospital unit, floors had not been properly sealed and waxed and tiles were curling up.

We moved the entire group with the exception of two people, and then proceeded to set up the unit as it should be. When I came to the home all that was here was one oxygen bottle and the hose was so rotten that we ended up with the bottle in bed with the patient and about 10 inches of usable hose.

Today we have IPPB oxygen equipment, complete oxygen tent, emergency tanks, whirlpool therapy units; we can do Sub Q or intravaneous work; we have a Uni-Meter on which we can do a lot of our own blood work—the blood work we can do for $8 to $10—if we sent a patient to the Hospital this would cost us approximately $175.

This saves us a lot of money. We have hydraulic lifts to prevent our girls from hurting their backs from lifting these heavy patients. We now have shower chairs, toilet chairs and Aqua K Paks for phlebitus.

Our people eat very well, and Mr. Boyd must agree, for he eats two to four meals here a week.

True, the cost is up, but we have replaced, repaired, fixed and painted, trying to make this a place everyone in the county should be proud of. In medication line, we spend on an average of $1,200 to $1,400 dollars a month—but this includes everything — underpads, prescription and sundry type drugs.

We medicate approximately 105 patients, most of which are three to four times a day. In comparison with surrounding counties, this area of expense is definitely down, for we have a Dangerous Drug License, permitting us to buy wholesale instead of retail drugs.

Anyone reading this article knows full well how the increase in the cost of living has affected their private households. This has also applied to our expenses. As far as help is concerned, if our patients were all consolidated under one roof, then definitely we could reduce our help by about 35 per cent. But this we can't have, we maintain four separate buildings with round-the-clock duty in two of the four—the New & Old Hospital units.

There is one thing left to say — those people who swallow Mr. Boyd's story would get quite a different slant if they took time to come to the home and see what their tax money is doing. Then if they feel we are spending their money foolishly or if they feel our patients aren't properly cared for, then I stand corrected.

As I told Mr. Boyd, I still haven't gone above my budget, and I still feel that we will remain within it, except the payroll area, but we have paid approximately $3,500 for sick leave this year, and hired temporary help to replace them so this in turn could account for approximately the amount we will be short on our payroll. So there is still $16,000 in unencumbered funds from which I will have to request additional money, but in which I feel will still be within our budget.

As far as my embarrassing the commissioners, I feel I do not have to do this since Mr. Boyd does a very adequate job in this field by himself.

Opposes Water Project

It has been reported that only a small minority are against the St. Clair Water Project, but this is not true. It has been proven that a majority are opposed to the County Commissioners' present proposal.

A petition was signed by 542 people and, in a poll of assessed property owners, the vote was 9 to 1 against the proposal (336 against; 32 for). The petition and ballots comprising the poll have been in the hands of the Commissioners for over a year. The Commissioners refuse to surrender these ballots, yet they ignore the will of the people expressed in this poll.

We submitted an alternate proposal which we felt could be tolerated by both the people and the Commissioners. The Commissioners rejected this proposal with no hint of compromise. We compromised the proposal further and, since last March, the Commissioners have refused to meet with us to hear this proposal.

After studying this proposal, two very responsible and reputable organizations (National Water Well Assn. and Ground Water Resources Institute) wrote the Commissioners urging it's adoption. This was also ignored.

In addition to the prosecuting attorney, the Commisioners have utilized the services of one of the nation's leading law firms to repeatedly delay the case rather than permit it to be heard on it's true merits. We submit that the peoples' money should not be thus used to oppose the will of the majority.

Fear of losing the federal grant has been cited. However, the assessment was to be $3 per foot without any grant, and it is still $3 per foot with the grant, so we fail to see where the grant is properly benefitting the people. We therefore see no reason why we should be clubbed into submission by any threat of losing the grant.

We feel that, in a democracy, the will of the majority should prevail and we have proven that the majority are against the St. Clair Water project as now proposed. Until we go broke, or until this case is decided on it's true merits, we will continue to fight for the principles of democracy which we feel should be upheld — not opposed — by our elected officials.

We will be pleased to discuss any aspect of this case with anyone interested in the true facts.

Sex Problems Listed

FACT: The nature of beliefs, values, and expectations held by different groups of people influence the beliefs, values and expectations of indivduals. In this case we are thinking of the influence the current dispute concerning sex education in our schools is having upon the children who have attended these classes and their teachers. This should be taken into prime consideration.

FACT: Compromise is often the price of progress. It would appear more voices are being raised against sex being taught in mixed classes than against sex being taught in the classroom. I agree with separate classes, since these pupils are in their age of puberty which is a difficult time, and for menstruation to be discussed in front of male classmates most likely causes our young ladies extreme embarrassment, thus losing the value and defeating the purpose of the course. If this same subject is taken up by a female teacher of a female class, free and open discussion can be held and the values realized.

SUGGESTION: Be constructive, visit neighboring schools or phone them to see if sex education is being taught, how long it has been taught and whether the classes are mixed or not. Pick a progressive school system to ask. Write to Ohio Board of Education and ask where sex is being taught and follow through on inquiries to these schools by letter.

FACT: The physicians, the ministers, the juvenile authorities, the welfare departments have the problems to deal with stemming from lack of sex education. I'll give you a social projection to think about.

For some girls pregnancy out of wedlock may be only a matter of time. Among those threatened are:

Girls who are mentally retarded or of very low mentality, who live in areas where sexual exploration is common, and who are not constantly supervised.

Girls who have indulged in sexual delinquency, who may have been confined for a time, and who are returning to the same environment from whence they came.

Girls who have been the victim of sexual exploration and who have not been removed from the environment.

Girls growing up in families in which the mother has born a succession of children to various fathers — particularly if drinking is a problem.

Girls of early teen-age who have dropped out of school and who have a bad relationship with the mother.

Girls of 14 or 15 who have been having intercourse with a "boyfriend" regularly for one or two years.

FACT: Your tax dollars will continue to pay for the dependent children of unwed mothers, for the dependent children of married teenagers who have no work skills and no future. It is your bound duty to provide sex knowledge long overdue our youngsters to alleviate these problems.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — A two-story eight-room house on the old George McCoy farm near Calcutta was destroyed by fire.

Joe Persohn, president of the Walker 4-H Boys Club, won a soapbox derby, covering a 1,100-foot course in 35 seconds.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Charles Lee Pugh and Gayle Kennedy were selected king and queen at the annual freshman initiation party and dance at Chester High School.

TEN YEARS AGO — Council approved legislation providing funds to clear the way for construction of a $38,530 water department booster station on Laura Ave. and replacement and repair of doors at the Central Fire Station.

Paul Johnston of Chester was elected president of the Chester - Newell Farmers and Sportsman Club.

Kenneth Dallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dallis of Hammondsville RD 1, was promoted to corporal with the Marines at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

VICTOR RIESEL

Nixon's Pitch

NEW YORK — Dick Nixon hasn't lost his cool. Instead, he has turned the heat on behind the political battlelines of the nation's labor chiefs. He has swung around to the belief that the union's rank and file vote will make or break him. Since he is his own joint chiefs of staff, he has switched strategy and directed his inner circle to get as many of the labor ballots as possible in the next few days.

Victor Riesel

The strangest series of secret conferences have resulted from this order from the candidate. The other day, John Mitchell, the man closest to Mr. Nixon, met with the leader of one of the oldest, most militant, former CIO unions. They were brought together by Bob Price, the brilliant young strategist who almost singlehandedly captured this polyglot city for Mayor John Lindsay back in 1965.

Their conversation was amiable and ambling. It's probably too late for this union's endorsement of Mr. Nixon — but not for a promise that the prestigious organization and its chief will sit on their hands and treasuries.

The theme during these conferences in some of the big industrial states is that Dick Nixon, if elected, will keep the White House front door open to labor. The front runner himself sat in on some of these conferences — and apparently there's no lack of local union leaders now willing to confer officially, jovially, fraternally and socially with the Republican nominee.

MR. NIXON'S STRATEGY, every bit of it devised by himself alone, is to neutralize as many pro-Humphrey unions as possible in these final hours.

Putting together a labor brain trust has been no problem. Most active on the high road has been Pat Juliano, Deputy Secretary of Pennsylvania's Department of Labor and Industry. Mr. Juliano is an old labor hand who put in 22 years as Transport Workers Union official under the late Mike Quill. He knows his way through the labyrinths of the Keystone State's internal labor politics. And when Mr. Nixon's national command post here asked him to get up a powerful labor group to confer with Mr. Nixon in Pittsburgh last Monday, he did just that.

Mr. Juliano actually got more than 200 top union officials — mostly from the building trades — to rush in from across the state. Some put the number at 400.

But suddenly, the candidate's schedule tightened.

Juliano was asked to bring a smaller delegation to talk privately with Mr. Nixon in Hazleton a few days earlier. This was done. The mix went well. The candidate was in his best off-camera mood and the boys loved it, especially when he promised that "the White House front door would be open to labor if I'm elected."

THE CANDIDATE and his labor counselors now believe that George Meany and the AFL-CIO's national high command are just not reaching their rank and file. Mr. Nixon has been told that despite labor's high-gear, computerized campaign, tens of thousands of locals are not budging, not distributing buttons, bumper stickers or campaign literature.

Juliano, who is a labor troubleshooter and hedgehopping activist for GOP National Chairman Ray Bliss, has told John Mitchell and Dick Nixon that very few of Pennsylvania's 5,200 local unions are doing anything for Hubert Humphrey. If so, this could cost the Democrats their vital big city majorities, needed to balance off the Republicans' traditional heavy rural and suburban majorities.

The big city play's the thing. For three and a half years, Ray Bliss has been polishing and oiling his famed big city machine. He has always said that the Republicans need only take from five to ten per cent more of the metropolitan vote to win. And the labor vote is part of that strategy.

SO IN THE PAST few weeks, he has blitzed 10 big pivotal cities. With his professionally anonymous aides, the GOP chairman has just been through Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Dallas, and Los Angeles — but not New York. Mr. Bliss has two objectives — making certain that his people are ready to get out the vote, and ensuring that the ballots will be fully counted, not lost, strayed or stolen.

He's satisfied that the three and a half years of training will pay off on Election Day. It is reported that "Washington" feels that "New York" has been overly cautious in wooing the Negro and labor vote.

But Dick Nixon's personal "open door" policy and tactics, his courting of right and left-wing labor officials, his concentration on steel belt unionists as well as construction workers, his readiness to mix, his acceptance by the union men who've met him, their malaise over government pressure for ever swifter integration of black workers, the growing disaffection of some liberal union blocs such as New York's teachers —all are welcomed by Republican strategists.

As they shake hands, Mr. Nixon and his labor advisers may be reading plans wrongly. But Mr. Nixon certainly is finding many union officials with outstretched arms.

"Harry says it doesn't make any difference who gets in, because if they're not going to listen to him, then there's no difference between them."

"But what about the worst ones? Doesn't he want to stop them?"

"No, Harry says the only way to destroy the system is to make it worse than it is, and if the 'worst' ones win, it will prove once and for all that the system's no good."

"You mean Harry's rooting for the worst choice of the three because that will prove he was right in the first place?"

"SOMETHING LIKE THAT. Harry has given it a lot of thought. As a matter of fact, he's been sulking in his room since Chicago. Harry says the only true Americans are those who don't vote this year."

"But if Harry doesn't come out and vote, how does anyone know he's not voting?"

"I didn't ask him. But Harry has been looking forward to Election Day. He has it worked out in his mind that if he doesn't show up and vote, everyone will ask, 'Where's Harry?' Then he can say: 'You should have thought about that before you nominated Hubert Humphrey.' Harry's a great one for fantasies."

"I should think so. Couldn't I talk to Harry and try to persuade him to come out and vote?"

"Harry doesn't want to talk to anybody. He said it's too late to talk. Now it's time for action."

"But if Harry won't come out of the house, what kind of action is he thinking of?"

"For one thing, he plans to boo the results as they come in on television."

"You mean even though he isn't going to vote and he doesn't care who gets it, Harry still is going to watch the results on televisions?"

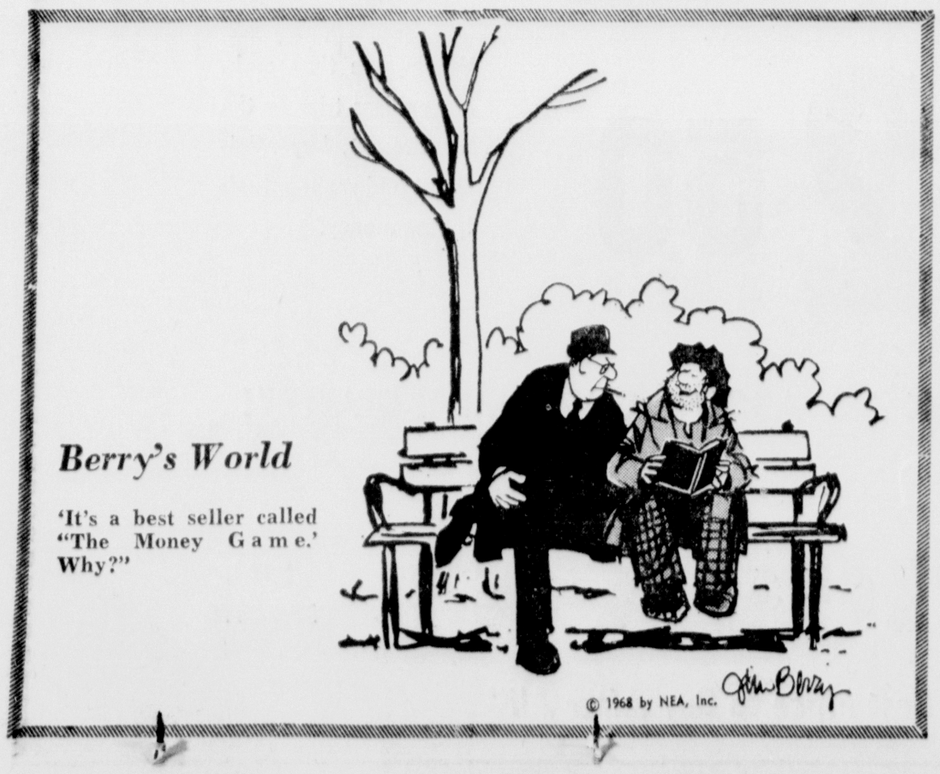
"Of course. How else will Harry know he was right in the first place when he decided not to vote?"

"THAT MAKES SENSE. Do you think Harry will come out of his room after Election Day?"

"It's hard to say. The last time I spoke to him he said he might not come out of his room for four years."

"Gosh, Mrs. Jones, it must be tough on you."

"You can say that again especially at mealtimes. Harry keeps saying the reason he's staying in his room is because I once told him that if he couldn't stand the heat, he should get out of the kitchen."



Letters To The Editor

Home Budget Defended

Last week I had the displeasure of reading Mr. Boyd's statement regarding the County Home and his so-called extravagance.

First of all in regards to the increase in expenditures from 1965 and on — the new hospital unit was opened in September 1965. When I came to the Home in October 1965 the people occupying the new hospital unit were of the nature that could have been quartered in the dormitory or old hospital unit, floors had not been properly sealed and waxed and tiles were curling up.

We moved the entire group with the exception of two people, and then proceeded to set up the unit as it should be. When I came to the home all that was here was one oxygen bottle and the hose was so rotten that we ended up with the bottle in bed with the patient and about 10 inches of usable hose.

Today we have IPPB oxygen equipment, complete oxygen tent, emergency tanks, whirlpool therapy units; we can do Sub Q or intravaneous work; we have a Uni-Meter on which we can do a lot of our own blood work—the blood work we can do for $8 to $10—if we sent a patient to the Hospital this would cost us approximately $175.

This saves us a lot of money. We have hydraulic lifts to prevent our girls from hurting their backs from lifting these heavy patients. We now have shower chairs, toilet chairs and Aqua K Paks for phlebitus.

Our people eat very well, and Mr. Boyd must agree, for he eats two to four meals here a week.

True, the cost is up, but we have replaced, repaired, fixed and painted, trying to make this a place everyone in the county should be proud of. In medication line, we spend on an average of $1,200 to $1,400 dollars a month—but this includes everything — underpads, prescription and sundry type drugs.

We medicate approximately 105 patients, most of which are three to four times a day. In comparison with surrounding counties, this area of expense is definitely down, for we have a Dangerous Drug License, permitting us to buy wholesale instead of retail drugs.

Anyone reading this article knows full well how the increase in the cost of living has affected their private households. This has also applied to our expenses. As far as help is concerned, if our patients were all consolidated under one roof, then definitely we could reduce our help by about 35 per cent. But this we can't have, we maintain four separate buildings with round-the-clock duty in two of the four—the New & Old Hospital units.

There is one thing left to say — those people who swallow Mr. Boyd's story would get quite a different slant if they took time to come to the home and see what their tax money is doing. Then if they feel we are spending their money foolishly or if they feel our patients aren't properly cared for, then I stand corrected.

As I told Mr. Boyd, I still haven't gone above my budget, and I still feel that we will remain within it, except the payroll area, but we have paid approximately $3,500 for sick leave this year, and hired temporary help to replace them so this in turn could account for approximately the amount we will be short on our payroll. So there is still $16,000 in unencumbered funds from which I will have to request additional money, but in which I feel will still be within our budget.

As far as my embarrassing the commissioners, I feel I do not have to do this since Mr. Boyd does a very adequate job in this field by himself.

Opposes Water Project

It has been reported that only a small minority are against the St. Clair Water Project, but this is not true. It has been proven that a majority are opposed to the County Commissioners' present proposal.

A petition was signed by 542 people and, in a poll of assessed property owners, the vote was 9 to 1 against the proposal (336 against; 32 for). The petition and ballots comprising the poll have been in the hands of the Commissioners for over a year. The Commissioners refuse to surrender these ballots, yet they ignore the will of the people expressed in this poll.

We submitted an alternate proposal which we felt could be tolerated by both the people and the Commissioners. The Commissioners rejected this proposal with no hint of compromise. We compromised the proposal further and, since last March, the Commissioners have refused to meet with us to hear this proposal.

After studying this proposal, two very responsible and reputable organizations (National Water Well Assn. and Ground Water Resources Institute) wrote the Commissioners urging it's adoption. This was also ignored.

In addition to the prosecuting attorney, the Commisioners have utilized the services of one of the nation's leading law firms to repeatedly delay the case rather than permit it to be heard on it's true merits. We submit that the peoples' money should not be thus used to oppose the will of the majority.

Fear of losing the federal grant has been cited. However, the assessment was to be $3 per foot without any grant, and it is still $3 per foot with the grant, so we fail to see where the grant is properly benefitting the people. We therefore see no reason why we should be clubbed into submission by any threat of losing the grant.

We feel that, in a democracy, the will of the majority should prevail and we have proven that the majority are against the St. Clair Water project as now proposed. Until we go broke, or until this case is decided on it's true merits, we will continue to fight for the principles of democracy which we feel should be upheld — not opposed — by our elected officials.

We will be pleased to discuss any aspect of this case with anyone interested in the true facts.

Sex Problems Listed

FACT: The nature of beliefs, values, and expectations held by different groups of people influence the beliefs, values and expectations of indivduals. In this case we are thinking of the influence the current dispute concerning sex education in our schools is having upon the children who have attended these classes and their teachers. This should be taken into prime consideration.

FACT: Compromise is often the price of progress. It would appear more voices are being raised against sex being taught in mixed classes than against sex being taught in the classroom. I agree with separate classes, since these pupils are in their age of puberty which is a difficult time, and for menstruation to be discussed in front of male classmates most likely causes our young ladies extreme embarrassment, thus losing the value and defeating the purpose of the course. If this same subject is taken up by a female teacher of a female class, free and open discussion can be held and the values realized.

SUGGESTION: Be constructive, visit neighboring schools or phone them to see if sex education is being taught, how long it has been taught and whether the classes are mixed or not. Pick a progressive school system to ask. Write to Ohio Board of Education and ask where sex is being taught and follow through on inquiries to these schools by letter.

FACT: The physicians, the ministers, the juvenile authorities, the welfare departments have the problems to deal with stemming from lack of sex education. I'll give you a social projection to think about.

For some girls pregnancy out of wedlock may be only a matter of time. Among those threatened are:

Girls who are mentally retarded or of very low mentality, who live in areas where sexual exploration is common, and who are not constantly supervised.

Girls who have indulged in sexual delinquency, who may have been confined for a time, and who are returning to the same environment from whence they came.

Girls who have been the victim of sexual exploration and who have not been removed from the environment.

Girls growing up in families in which the mother has born a succession of children to various fathers — particularly if drinking is a problem.

Girls of early teen-age who have dropped out of school and who have a bad relationship with the mother.

Girls of 14 or 15 who have been having intercourse with a "boyfriend" regularly for one or two years.

FACT: Your tax dollars will continue to pay for the dependent children of unwed mothers, for the dependent children of married teenagers who have no work skills and no future. It is your bound duty to provide sex knowledge long overdue our youngsters to alleviate these problems.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — A two-story eight-room house on the old George McCoy farm near Calcutta was destroyed by fire.

Joe Persohn, president of the Walker 4-H Boys Club, won a soapbox derby, covering a 1,100-foot course in 35 seconds.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Charles Lee Pugh and Gayle Kennedy were selected king and queen at the annual freshman initiation party and dance at Chester High School.

TEN YEARS AGO — Council approved legislation providing funds to clear the way for construction of a $38,530 water department booster station on Laura Ave. and replacement and repair of doors at the Central Fire Station.

Paul Johnston of Chester was elected president of the Chester - Newell Farmers and Sportsman Club.

Kenneth Dallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dallis of Hammondsville RD 1, was promoted to corporal with the Marines at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

VICTOR RIESEL

Nixon's Pitch

NEW YORK — Dick Nixon hasn't lost his cool. Instead, he has turned the heat on behind the political battlelines of the nation's labor chiefs. He has swung around to the belief that the union's rank and file vote will make or break him. Since he is his own joint chiefs of staff, he has switched strategy and directed his inner circle to get as many of the labor ballots as possible in the next few days.

Victor Riesel

The strangest series of secret conferences have resulted from this order from the candidate. The other day, John Mitchell, the man closest to Mr. Nixon, met with the leader of one of the oldest, most militant, former CIO unions. They were brought together by Bob Price, the brilliant young strategist who almost singlehandedly captured this polyglot city for Mayor John Lindsay back in 1965.

Their conversation was amiable and ambling. It's probably too late for this union's endorsement of Mr. Nixon — but not for a promise that the prestigious organization and its chief will sit on their hands and treasuries.

The theme during these conferences in some of the big industrial states is that Dick Nixon, if elected, will keep the White House front door open to labor. The front runner himself sat in on some of these conferences — and apparently there's no lack of local union leaders now willing to confer officially, jovially, fraternally and socially with the Republican nominee.

MR. NIXON'S STRATEGY, every bit of it devised by himself alone, is to neutralize as many pro-Humphrey unions as possible in these final hours.

Putting together a labor brain trust has been no problem. Most active on the high road has been Pat Juliano, Deputy Secretary of Pennsylvania's Department of Labor and Industry. Mr. Juliano is an old labor hand who put in 22 years as Transport Workers Union official under the late Mike Quill. He knows his way through the labyrinths of the Keystone State's internal labor politics. And when Mr. Nixon's national command post here asked him to get up a powerful labor group to confer with Mr. Nixon in Pittsburgh last Monday, he did just that.

Mr. Juliano actually got more than 200 top union officials — mostly from the building trades — to rush in from across the state. Some put the number at 400.

But suddenly, the candidate's schedule tightened.

Juliano was asked to bring a smaller delegation to talk privately with Mr. Nixon in Hazleton a few days earlier. This was done. The mix went well. The candidate was in his best off-camera mood and the boys loved it, especially when he promised that "the White House front door would be open to labor if I'm elected."

THE CANDIDATE and his labor counselors now believe that George Meany and the AFL-CIO's national high command are just not reaching their rank and file. Mr. Nixon has been told that despite labor's high-gear, computerized campaign, tens of thousands of locals are not budging, not distributing buttons, bumper stickers or campaign literature.

Juliano, who is a labor troubleshooter and hedgehopping activist for GOP National Chairman Ray Bliss, has told John Mitchell and Dick Nixon that very few of Pennsylvania's 5,200 local unions are doing anything for Hubert Humphrey. If so, this could cost the Democrats their vital big city majorities, needed to balance off the Republicans' traditional heavy rural and suburban majorities.

The big city play's the thing. For three and a half years, Ray Bliss has been polishing and oiling his famed big city machine. He has always said that the Republicans need only take from five to ten per cent more of the metropolitan vote to win. And the labor vote is part of that strategy.

SO IN THE PAST few weeks, he has blitzed 10 big pivotal cities. With his professionally anonymous aides, the GOP chairman has just been through Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Dallas, and Los Angeles — but not New York. Mr. Bliss has two objectives — making certain that his people are ready to get out the vote, and ensuring that the ballots will be fully counted, not lost, strayed or stolen.

He's satisfied that the three and a half years of training will pay off on Election Day. It is reported that "Washington" feels that "New York" has been overly cautious in wooing the Negro and labor vote.

But Dick Nixon's personal "open door" policy and tactics, his courting of right and left-wing labor officials, his concentration on steel belt unionists as well as construction workers, his readiness to mix, his acceptance by the union men who've met him, their malaise over government pressure for ever swifter integration of black workers, the growing disaffection of some liberal union blocs such as New York's teachers —all are welcomed by Republican strategists.

As they shake hands, Mr. Nixon and his labor advisers may be reading plans wrongly. But Mr. Nixon certainly is finding many union officials with outstretched arms.

Lithium, the lightest metal known, is only about one - half as heavy as water.

Mahogany is generally cut for its lumber by the light of the moon, because at that time the tree has less sap, is sounder and has a richer color.

Vision Screening To Be Conducted

A free vision screening for children between the ages of 3 and 5 will be conducted by members of the Fairview PTA and the Fairview Grange in cooperation with the Beaver County Branch of the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Fairview Grange Hall on Tuscarawas Rd.

Parents in the communities of Industry, Midland, Ohioville, Brighton Township and surrounding areas are urged to bring their children for this screening for the purpose of detecting possible instances of amblyopia.

Amblyopia is better known as the lazy eye which often occurs in small children unknown to the child or the parents until he begins to use his eyes for school work. The screening project is being carried out by trained volunteers under the supervision of Mrs. Justine L. Ruby, Prevention of Blindness Worker for the Association for the Blind. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Ronald Gailey or Mrs. Ruby.

Parishioners Protest Over Political Letter

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The reading of an official diocesan letter urging Catholics to vote against candidates espousing racism was disrupted by a walkout of about a dozen persons from the Visitation Catholic Church Sunday.

The letter by Bishop Charles H. Helmsing of the Kansas City-St. Joseph Diocese was read before a morning Mass. After the Mass, several persons distributed literature for third-party presidential candidate George C. Wallace in front of the church.

'Sludge' Due Here Tonight Or Tuesday

The "sludge," moving downstream from the Pittsburgh area, is expected to reach East Liverpool tonight or Tuesday.

That is the word from Francis Wise, chemist at the local waterworks, who said the Monaca waterworks was asked to halt operations this morning as the sludge reached to Beaver River.

Wise reported the Ohio Health Department said it would take about 60 hours for the sludge to pass East Liverpool, but it will not be visible "unless something stirs it into action."

The Midland Health Department has a sample of the sludge, he added.

Meanwhile, the massive fish kill in the Allegheny River has triggered a call for an early warning system to detect pollution of area rivers.

The proposal was made Sunday by Arthur V. Harris, president of the Three Rivers Improvement Corp., a nonprofit group concerned with the improvement of the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio rivers.

Harris suggested that industries and citizens groups join to combat the pollution problem.

"If some private agency could be notified immediately upon the discovery of a dangerous spillage, it could rally the resources of private industry and citizens to develop a quick solution, and then put it to use in cooperation with the appropriate authorities," Harris said.

He said the toys will be presented to the Salvation Army for distribution.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. — How can I clean out paint-hardened brushes?

A. — By boiling them for about ten minutes or so in a container filled with vinegar, then washing out in warm soapy water. Many other such timely tips are included in my household manual.

Q.—What is the best way to iron pleats?

A.—First iron the hem, then iron the pleats from the bottom up. For a particularly fussy job, pin each plate to the ironing pad, taking care to place the pins so that the marks won't show. On wool, use a pressing cloth and a warm iron, and set it down gently on the cloth instead of using a gliding motion.

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids

And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a medication with the ability, in most cases — to promptly stop itching, relieve pain and actually shrink hemorrhoids.

Tests by doctors proved that in case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction of the inflamed hemorrhoids took place.

The secret is Preparation H®. There's no other formula like it! Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

over muddy washed-out roadbeds to reach the disaster area in Vereelli province still being swept by heavy rains this morning.

"It looked like some giant steamroller had smashed through the valley," said one pilot who flew over the Mosso valley in the foothills of the Alps, where 64 persons were smothered in the rubble of their houses. The section is a wool-producing region.

Dozens of factories, farm buildings, houses and cars were lost in the landslides which rainstorm sent rumbling down north of Turin.

Venice had its fourth highest water in 40 years. The lagoon waters surged over the banks of the canals and sent inhabitants into their boots and boats.

The seas pounded both Italian coasts, doing damage all along the shores and tearing boats from their moorings, even inside the port of Genoa.

The weather bureau forecast clouds and more rain for today and Tuesday. Officials said the major rivers of the north—the Po, the Adige and the Ticino—were still on the rise.

More than 15 bridges were swept away by mountain torrents. Railroad were cut, and snowstorms closed several mountain passes to France and Switzerland.

Most highways were clogged with cars rerouted from secondary roads which were buried under landslides.

Talks

would continue until Saigon is assured of direct, serious talks with Hanoi.

U.S. officials privately feel Thieu's boycott will not wreck the peace discussion. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said he expects South Vietnam to join the talks sooner or later.

Saigon newspapers on Sunday lauded Thieu's boycott and charged that Johnson, when he decided to quit bombing the North, broke promises made at his Honolulu meeting wth the South Vietnamese president.

"His action tarnished his country's image," said the Vietnam Guardian. "The brutal decision taken by Johnson, no doubt pressed by the deadline of the U.S. presidential election, will not help in any way to bring the Vietnam conflict to an honorable end."

Publicly, North Vietnam and the NLF say President Johnon was forced to order "the unconditional cessation of bombing" and othre acts of war against the North as a result of "serious defeats." Radio Hanoi also broadcast a statement indicating the Viet Cong will cling to their old five-point stand for a political settlement in the expanded Paris peace talks.

These include:

—Complete withdrawal of U.S. troops and military bases from South Vietnam.

—"Independence, democracy, neutrality and ultimate peaceful reunfication" of North and South Vietnam.

—"Such reunification will be decided by the people in the two zones of Vietnam, without foreign interference."

—"The internal affairs of the South Vietnamese people must be settled by the South Vietnamese themselves in accordance with the political program of the National Liberation Front."

—"South Vietnam will pursue a foreign policy of peace and neutrality, with no military alliance in any form with foreign countries."

Mrs. Binh, leader of the NLF group, has been militantly active since her student years and has traveled widely on behalf of the guerrilla organization which Saigon authorities claim is a tool of Hanoi.

A 41-year-old native of Saigon and daughter of Vietnamese nationalist Phan Chu Trinh, she was imprisoned by the French from 1951 to 1954 along with the present leader of the NLF, Nguyen Huu Tho. She is believed to have moved to Hanoi in 1954.

She drew a standing ovation at the 23rd Congress of the Soviet Communist party in Moscow in 1966 with a declaration that the Viet Cong ruled "a liberated area occupying four-fifths of the territory of South Vietnam" and would fight on to final victory.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The pledge of allegiance to the flag first appeared in the Sept. 8, 1892, issue of Youth's Companion, The World Almanac says. Its authorship has been contested for many years, being first attributed to James Baily Upham, an executive of the magazine. However, investigations by the U.S. Flag Assn. in 1939 and the Library of Congress in 1957 have supported the claim of Francis Bellamy, also of Youth's Companion, as the author.

The drug codeine occurs naturally in opium and is a derivitive of morphine.

Firemen Explain Wellsville Truck On Standby Duty

Wellsville Fire Chief Robert Lewis said today the fire department's pumper truck has been on "standby" duty while contractors burn abandoned houses being removed for the Route 7 bypass through Wellsville.

The contractors are paying for the use of the fire apparatus and also are paying the wages of the firemen, he explained. There is no cost to the city.

The truck at the scene provides protection to area residents against fire spreading to other homes, he added.

The community still has regular protection because there is another pumper with regular men on duty at the station. With a radio hookup, the truck at the sites of the burning can be called immediately, Chief Lewis said, explaining, "there is just as much protection to Wellsville as ever."

Knights Of Columbus Will Buy Textbooks

SUMMITVILLE — The Sallineville Council of the Knights of Columbus, meeting Sunday at St. John's Church Hall here, voted to buy the textbooks for the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine classes at St. John's Church and St. Patrick's Church in Salineville.

John Gruszecki of Hanoverton RD 1, grand knight, said the money for the books will come from the state youth campaign fund.

The council is planning a Christmas party Dec. 13 for members and their families.

Jurors Selected In Traffic Case

LISBON — A jury is being selected today in Common Pleas Court for the trial of Gilbert R. Ashbridge, 20, of East Palestine, charged with traffic manslaughter.

Cars driven by Ashbridge and Gary A. Norton, 23, of Astoria, N. Y., collided July 31, 1967, on Route 170 south of East Palestine. Norton, on vacation at his parents' home in Negley, was killed.

The indictment alleges Ashbridge was driving left of center. Prosecution was deferred because Ashbridge was critically injured.

The jury was to view the scene of the accident. Judge Raymond S. Buzzard is presiding. John B. McDonald of East Liverpool, assistant prosecuting attorney, is representing the state. James B. Primm Jr. of Lisbon, former assistant in the prosecutor's office, is defense counsel.

Floods

over muddy washed-out roadbeds to reach the disaster area in Vereelli province still being swept by heavy rains this morning.

"It looked like some giant steamroller had smashed through the valley," said one pilot who flew over the Mosso valley in the foothills of the Alps, where 64 persons were smothered in the rubble of their houses. The section is a wool-producing region.

Dozens of factories, farm buildings, houses and cars were lost in the landslides which rainstorm sent rumbling down north of Turin.

Venice had its fourth highest water in 40 years. The lagoon waters surged over the banks of the canals and sent inhabitants into their boots and boats.

The seas pounded both Italian coasts, doing damage all along the shores and tearing boats from their moorings, even inside the port of Genoa.

The weather bureau forecast clouds and more rain for today and Tuesday. Officials said the major rivers of the north—the Po, the Adige and the Ticino—were still on the rise.

More than 15 bridges were swept away by mountain torrents. Railroad were cut, and snowstorms closed several mountain passes to France and Switzerland.

Most highways were clogged with cars rerouted from secondary roads which were buried under landslides.

would continue until Saigon is assured of direct, serious talks with Hanoi.

U.S. officials privately feel Thieu's boycott will not wreck the peace discussion. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said he expects South Vietnam to join the talks sooner or later.

Saigon newspapers on Sunday lauded Thieu's boycott and charged that Johnson, when he decided to quit bombing the North, broke promises made at his Honolulu meeting wth the South Vietnamese president.

"His action tarnished his country's image," said the Vietnam Guardian. "The brutal decision taken by Johnson, no doubt pressed by the deadline of the U.S. presidential election, will not help in any way to bring the Vietnam conflict to an honorable end."

Publicly, North Vietnam and the NLF say President Johnon was forced to order "the unconditional cessation of bombing" and othre acts of war against the North as a result of "serious defeats." Radio Hanoi also broadcast a statement indicating the Viet Cong will cling to their old five-point stand for a political settlement in the expanded Paris peace talks.

These include:

—Complete withdrawal of U.S. troops and military bases from South Vietnam.

—"Independence, democracy, neutrality and ultimate peaceful reunfication" of North and South Vietnam.

—"Such reunification will be decided by the people in the two zones of Vietnam, without foreign interference."

—"The internal affairs of the South Vietnamese people must be settled by the South Vietnamese themselves in accordance with the political program of the National Liberation Front."

—"South Vietnam will pursue a foreign policy of peace and neutrality, with no military alliance in any form with foreign countries."

Mrs. Binh, leader of the NLF group, has been militantly active since her student years and has traveled widely on behalf of the guerrilla organization which Saigon authorities claim is a tool of Hanoi.

A 41-year-old native of Saigon and daughter of Vietnamese nationalist Phan Chu Trinh, she was imprisoned by the French from 1951 to 1954 along with the present leader of the NLF, Nguyen Huu Tho. She is believed to have moved to Hanoi in 1954.

She drew a standing ovation at the 23rd Congress of the Soviet Communist party in Moscow in 1966 with a declaration that the Viet Cong ruled "a liberated area occupying four-fifths of the territory of South Vietnam" and would fight on to final victory.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The pledge of allegiance to the flag first appeared in the Sept. 8, 1892, issue of Youth's Companion, The World Almanac says. Its authorship has been contested for many years, being first attributed to James Baily Upham, an executive of the magazine. However, investigations by the U.S. Flag Assn. in 1939 and the Library of Congress in 1957 have supported the claim of Francis Bellamy, also of Youth's Companion, as the author.

Election

peared on ABC's "Issues and Answers," in a separate segment following Humphrey.

President Johnson campaigned at Humphrey's side for the first time Sunday, appealing for votes for his vice president before some 58,000 people in Houston's Astrodome.

It was perhaps the largest crowd assembled for a session of political oratory during the campaign, and Johnson gave it to them:

"For the sake of our American union, this man . . . should become the 37th President of the United States."

It was a live replay of a televised speech Sunday in which Johnson had urged that Humphrey be chosen to succeed him for "in a lifetime of noble and earnest service, I think he has really earned it."

The apparent closeness of the race and the possible result that the election will finally be decided in the House of Representatives also continued Sunday as a major campaign topic.

Nixon renewed a repeated challenge to Humphrey to join him in pledging presidential support to the candidate who receives the largest share of Tuesday's popular vote.

Should the Electoral College deadlock with no 270 vote majority for any candidate, the race would go into the House.

The Republican said that under no circumstances would he seek to negotiate for support with presidential electors backing Wallace. "The most important thing is not to make a deal with Wallace," he said.

Both Humphrey and Wallace spurned the Nixon challenge.

Humphrey said he believes the popular vote should decide elections.

But he also said he believes that reform of the Electoral College system should come through constitutional amendment, not through the kind of pledge Nixon proposed.

". . . I believe in supporting the Constitution," Humphrey said. And he said the Constitution designates the House as the body to break any presidential deadlock.

Furthermore, Humphrey said, "I think we're going to get the plurality."

"I'll make no agreement to support any of them," said Wallace.

Fans Pay Respects To Ramon Novarro

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The open bier of Ramon Novarro drew an estimated 1,000 persons Sunday, many of them woman fans of the silent screen star.

The 69-year-old Latin lover of movies died of suffocation after being beaten Thursday by an assailant in Novarro's expensive home. Police say they have few clues.

After funeral Mass today at St. Ann's Catholic Church in North Hollywood, burial will be in the Novarro family plot in East Los Angeles.

Humphrey said he believes the popular vote should decide elections.

But he also said he believes that reform of the Electoral College system should come through constitutional amendment, not through the kind of pledge Nixon proposed.

". . . I believe in supporting the Constitution," Humphrey said. And he said the Constitution designates the House as the body to break any presidential deadlock.

Furthermore, Humphrey said, "I think we're going to get the plurality."

"I'll make no agreement to support any of them," said Wallace.

Fans Pay Respects To Ramon Novarro

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The open bier of Ramon Novarro drew an estimated 1,000 persons Sunday, many of them woman fans of the silent screen star.

The 69-year-old Latin lover of movies died of suffocation after being beaten Thursday by an assailant in Novarro's expensive home. Police say they have few clues.

After funeral Mass today at St. Ann's Catholic Church in North Hollywood, burial will be in the Novarro family plot in East Los Angeles.

and a loss of young people. Twenty years ago there was only one institution of higher education in my district, and it had just opened. The College of Steubenville today has 1,200 to 1,500 students."

"Also, now at St. Clairsville there is a branch of Ohio University with 1,100 students; in New Philadelphia a branch of Kent State University with about 1,000 students, and Columbiana County has two Kent branches with some 1,000 students. Some day we will have one new building in this county, one branch of Kent State."

RAHTER pointed out the building here will become one of the 33,000 new facilities now serving the people of this nation."

"A post office is necessary to the economic life and growth of every community in America," he said. "We have 720,000 postal employes to serve these people and we are dedicated to giving the best service we can."

Rahter said, "I realize mistakes and delays are made, but I believe they are at a minimum considering the size of the operation. One letter is handled by eight workers from the time it is mailed until it is delivered.

"Costs of post office operations run $17 million a day. Of this figure, 80 per cent goes for salaries, 12 per cent for transportation, 4 per cent for maintenance and 5 per cent for other items of expense.

"Most post offices are privately owned and leased to the department. These private owners pay taxes.

"The department has a plan for Calcutta, but it is being held up by septic tank and sewer problems."

"This dedication of the new building today is an accomplishment of all people working together — symbolic of what America really is — officials in the federal government working together with civic leaders."

Shaw, president of the Community Improvement Corp. when that group began its effort to obtain a new post office, reviewed developments both with the city and within the area. He cited the new airport, the new multi - million - dollar school plan, new Route 11 — "the link to many places" — the new high-rise apartments, the arterial highway connecting the Chester Bridge with the east, and the new Post Office dedicated Sunday.

SHAW introduced members of the committee who worked with him on the post office. He told of first going to Washington and contacting Rep. Hays, who in turn obtained an audience with postal authorities for the committee.

Hays, in commenting about the work of the committee, also pointed out that there had been much "trial, tribulation and difficulty in accomplishing the project. First in finding a sight, next in getting the Pennsylvania Railroad to release the land and then in having another building 'visit' — referring to the collapse of a wall of the former Faulk Feed Mill."

The Rev. Allen R. Conway, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, offered the invocation. Ernest Lowe, accompanied by Mrs. Lowe, sang "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Donna Wilson played organ selections preceding the service.

Hays presented an American flag to Brown, in turn presented it to the American Legion Post 374 color guard, which raised it at the new building. Members of the guard taking part in the ceremony were Comdr. John Long, Leroy Patterson, Densel McKinney and Tommy Davidson.

The East Liverpool High School Band played the national anthem and other selections.

Postmasters from some 15 post offices in the county and area were present, including Henry Howell of Wooster, president of the National League of Postmasters, and Joseph Banaski of Tiltonsville, president of the 18th district Postmasters Association.

Various county and city officials also attended.

Lunch was served at the post office by wives of supervisors of the post office employes.

3 Injured By Glass And Falls Among Those Treated Here

A Chester girl injured Sunday on storm door glass and a Lawrenceville (Ohio) woman and a Wellsville resident hurt in separate falls Saturday were admitted to City Hospital, where 11 others were treated over the weekend.

Cherie Hood, daughter of Donald Hood of 401 Indiana Ave., Chester, is "good" today with a laceration of the left wrist suffered when the glass in a storm door broke.

Hilda Laufenberger of 209 Brentwood, Loudenville, is "fairly good" with a rib injury received in a fall.

Vera Mackall of 303 Peterson Rd., Wellsville, is "fair" with contusions of the right hip and left foot sustained in a fall in a local store.

Treated Sunday were Ronald Orr Jr., son of Ronald Orr of 835 W. 9th St., a laceration of the chin in a fall at home; Alfred Copestick of 5th Ave., LaCroft, a laceration of the right third finger when a truck starter fell.

Allen Carosiello, son of Victor Carosiello of 1637 Main St., Wellsville, a fractured right arm while playing football; Mrs. Broda McCoy of 222 California Ave., Chester, a puncture wound of the right foot on a nail.

Leonard Brewer of the Westfield Rd., a contusion of the chest when a car jack slipped.

Treated Saturday were William Humphreys, step-son of John Smith of 425 Elm St., a contusion of the right wrist while playing footbial; Korena Eckert, daughter of Miriam Eckert of 954 St. George St., a fractured left wrist in a fall.

Mae McHenry of 804 Lisbon St., a fractured right ring finger when a window fell; James McCoy of 2147 Ohio Ave., a fractured lef third finger on a fan belt in an auto.

pied Egypt (AP) — The Israeli Army has opened a post office in its half of this city which straddles the Suez Canal. The postmark reads: "Israel Defense Forces — El Qantara" in Hebrew, English and Arabic.

Athough Micronesia possesses only two-thirds the land area of Rhode Island, it lies scattered over an expanse of ocean comparable to the contiguous United States. It embraces the Carolines, Marianas and Marshalls, consisting of some 2,100 islands (only 96 of which are populated) with 93,000 inhabitants.

Engineer Denies Road Fund Claim

LISBON — John Ursu, Columbiana County Engineer, this morning labeled as "false" a statement published Saturday in newspaper advertising for Bert Dawson Jr., Republican candidate for engineer indicating the county road and bridge fund "shrank" $490,000 from Jan. 1, 1967 to Jan. 1, 1968.

Ursu said he called William Brokaw, chairman of the Dawson For Engineer Committee which ran the ad, and asked where he obtained the figure. Ursu said Brokaw replied, "Dawson gave it to me."

Ursu said the road and bridge fund balance was $537,524 when he took office Jan. 1, 1965. The fund balance increased to $599,289 at the end of 1965 and to $901,063 at the end of 1966, and was $642,609 last Dec. 31. These balances were carried in the county auditor's annual financial statements published every April, he said. Of the $258,454 expended in 1967, $206,000 was for the improvement of Knox School Rd. in Knox Township, Ursu said.

2 Men Hurt Near Chester

Two Aliquippa men were treated early today at City Hospital as a result of a one-car accident in front of the Paddock Club on Route 30 near Chester.

Treated were the driver James Fetkovich, 18, who suffered a laceration of the forehead and contusion of the right leg, and Frank Casciato Jr., 35, who received a laceration of the left hand and a contusion of the right arm.

Fetkovich told Hancock County Sheriff's Deputies he was headed east on Route 30 when another vehicle approached in his lane at a high rate of speed.

He said he swerved off the road and he lost control, and his auto went over a hill, receiving $200 damage.

Deputies also investigated another one - car accident Sunday about 1:55 a.m. on Route 2 two miles north of the Holliday Inn.

Earl McGee, 45, of Industry RD 1 was operating a 1965 four-door which crossed the roadway, hit an embankment and turned over, deputies said. About $500 damage resulted.

A 1966 car operated by a Pittsburgh man was termed a total loss when it went out of control and struck a tree along the Waterford Park Rd., one mile south of Route 8 Saturday at 7 p.m.

Frank Burksaze, 36, told deputies that he was headed south when a northbuond auto crosed the road into his lane. The Burksaze car went out of control, strikng a tree and two mail boexs, deputies said.

2 Midland Men Are Hurt As Car Plunges To Track

Two Midland men had a close call with death early Sunday morning on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. when the car in which they were riding veered out of control, plunged over an embankment and landed on the railroad tracks below.

Confined to City Hospital are:

John F. Irvine, 20, of 21 5th St., Midland, driver of the auto, with a puncture wound of the scalp and abrasions of the face. Hospital authorities said this morning he was in "fair" condition.

John L. Slappy, 30, of 107 Midland Ave., Midland, lacerations of the left arm, right elbow and right eyebrow. He was "fairly good."

ACCORDING to the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon, Irvine was driving his 1963 sedan about a mile north of Wellsville at 3:15 Sunday morning when it went off the right side of the road and struck the guardrail, spinning for some 84 feet before going down the embankment. The auto traveled a distance of 109 feet from the time it left the guardrail until it came to rest on the tracks. It was demolished.

A Lisbon area boy is in "fair" condition at Salem Central Clinic with injuries received in a truck-car accident on the Church Hill Rd. at 9:50 a.m. Sunday morning. His mother and the driver of the truck were treated and released.

Larry Clark, 5, son of Mrs. Barbara Clark, 30, of Lisbon RD 5, received lacerations of the forehead. Mrs. Clark was treated for contusions of the right eye and released. They were passengers in the 1965 sedan operated by Marjory M. Mullen, 39, of Lisbon RD 5.

David Chidester, 33, of Lisbon RD 5, was treated for neck and back injuries and released.

The patrol said Chidester was driving a 1954 pickup truck east on Churchill Rd., just west of the lower Elkton Rd., and as he was turning into the church drive his truck hit the auto driven by Mrs. Mullen. The truck then struck a tree.

Mrs. Mullen was examined, but received no apparent injuries. The accident is still under investigation.

FOLLOWING a two-car accident on Route 39 Saturday at 6:20 p.m., a Wellsville area woman was treated at East Liverpool Osteopathic Hospital.

Mrs. Donna Grafton, 21, of Wellsville RD 1, a passenger in the auto driven by her husband, Rex Grafton, 32, was treated for possible back injuries and released.

Grafton was driving east on Route 39, approximately four miles east of Route 164, when Richard W. Hart, 19, of 12 McKinley Ave., Salineville, driving a 1962 sports car, started to pass, just as Grafton attempted to turn left into a private drive.

Hart was cited for failing to stop in an assured clear distance. Both vehicles were moderately damaged.

David T. Elsass of 769 W. Martin St., East Palestine, was treated at Salem City Hospital as the result of injuries received in a one - car accident on Route 14 Saturday morning.

Elsass was driving a 1959 sedan eastbound approximately 360 feet west of Route 165, at 2:45 a.m., when the auto went off the right side of the road, swerved back on, went across the road, off the left side and struck a tree.

Elsass was cited for driving on the wrong side of the road. The auto was severely damaged on the left front.

MEANWHILE, Sunday at 11:40 p.m. on Route 30, about three miles southeast of Route 45, Joyce Ellen Gurin, 22, of Cuyahoga Falls was driving a 1965 sedan when the vehicle went left of center and struck the northwest - bound car operated by Gerald L. Plunkett of West Point. Plunkett's 1966 sedan received damage to the left side and rear. The Gurin auto was moderately damaged on the left side.

On Route 30, about two miles north of East Liverpool at 9:20 Sunday morning, Mildred M. Lane, 64, of East Liverpool RD 3, lost control of the 1958 sedan she was driving around a slight curve. The auto slid off the west side of the roadway int a drainage ditch and struck an embankment. She was not injured.

After taking a walk in the countryside north of New York City in 1844, William Cullen Bryant, the noted poet, urged that a large tract of the land be bought for public use while it was still inexpensive. The land was purchased 12 years later and is now known as Central Park.

matter. He also asked that the service persnnel return to work while these discussions were proceeding.

Over the weekend, a brochure setting forth their side of the dispute was circulated by the School Service Personnel Association.

In that 8-page report it was pointed out the association and its legal counsel would desire a meeting with the board and cited a section of the state code which would allow this. The brochure noted they were willing to meet with either the board or the school superintendent. This was reiterated today by Frank Pietranton, legal advisor to the association. He said "the board could and should negotiate "with the service personnel, "but we will meet with anyone on the matter."

Floyd Tarr, legal counsel for the school board, said "there are a number of errors in the brochure insofar as some salaries were concerned." He said the pay for custodians under the $2.64 an hour proposed by the administration last Thursday would give custodians a gross pay of $5,491 a year. He said the pay for the bus drivers at the $4.09 an hour figure would give them a gross pay of $6,799. It was noted this was based on a 52-week work schedule. He said this work is available for these two categories.

Rev. Stewart said today the custodians will provide heat in schools to be used for polling places for Tuesday's election.

He added in his announcement that this service will be provided as employes of the county commissioners and not for the school board or administration.

2 Men Hurt Near Chester

Two Aliquippa men were treated early today at City Hospital as a result of a one-car accident in front of the Paddock Club on Route 30 near Chester.

Treated were the driver James Fetkovich, 18, who suffered a laceration of the forehead and contusion of the right leg, and Frank Casciato Jr., 35, who received a laceration of the left hand and a contusion of the right arm.

Fetkovich told Hancock County Sheriff's Deputies he was headed east on Route 30 when another vehicle approached in his lane at a high rate of speed.

He said he swerved off the road and he lost control, and his auto went over a hill, receiving $200 damage.

At Funeral Home In Rochester

Services Set On Tuesday For 3 Killed In Accident

Services will be held Tuesday at the W. Dale Coleman Funeral Home in Rochester, Pa., for three members of the same family who were killed early Saturday in a truck-auto collision on interstate Route 70, near Buckeye Lake in Licking County, Ohio.

Former residents of Monaca, they were Lawrence Bonham, 48, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; his wife, Mrs. Freda Bonham, 49, of 323 W. 3rd St., East Liverpool, and their son, Army Pvt. Stanley R. Bonham, 19, who was on leave from Ft. Knox, Ky., where he had completed his boot training.

The services, which will begin at 2 p.m., will include military rites for the soldier. The Rev. James Woodard of the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Monaca will officiate. Burial will be in Sylvania Hills Cemetery, Rochester Township.

Miss Ann White, 18, of 1019 Ephriam St., who was injured in the crash, is in "fair" condition at City Hospital, where she was transferred over the weekend. She suffered a fractured leg.

Mrs. Bonham was employed at Goldies Nursing Home in East Liverpool as a nurses' aide. She was a member of the Emmanuel Baptist Church.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John (Mary) Farrow of Rochester Township; two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Bohon of Monaca and Mrs. Worthy Fox of Waynesburg, Pa., and her mother Mrs. Mary Keck, also of Waynesburg.

Mr. Bonham also leaves his daughter; a sister, Mrs. George Doerr, and his father, Stanley Bonham, both of Wheeling. Their son, a 1967 graduate of East Liverpool High School, leaves his sister, Mrs. Farrow, and the grandparents, Mrs. Keck and Stanley Bonham.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon from 2 to 4 and tonight from 7 to 10.

Deaths and Funerals

James W. Kaiser

James W. Kaiser, 72, of Niles, formerly of East Liverpool, died Sunday about 7:30 p.m. at Trumbull Memorial Hospital in Warren. He was admitted Saturday for observation.

Mr. Kaiser was born in Fredonia, N.Y., Oct. 15, 1896, a son of Mrs. Eliza Skinner Kaiser, who resides in East Liverpool, and the late William Kaiser. He came to East Liverpool in 1921, where he operated a wholesale bakery until 1944, when he moved to Niles and operated the Kaiser Bakery and Pastry Shop. He retired in 1966.

A World War I Marine, he was wounded in Belleau Woods, France, receiving the Purple Heart. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church, the William McKinley American Legion Post, Mahoning Masonic Lodge 394 and Royal Arch Masons, Chapter 223, all of Niles, Ancient & Accepted Scottish Rite of Youngstown, the Trumbull Shrine Club and the Al Koran Shrine of Cleveland.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his widow, the former Hazel Leonard, whom he married Dec. 2, 1920; two daughters, Mrs. Sam DeMartino of Niles and Mrs. John L. Medick of Wheeling; two sisters, Mrs. Oscar Harbaugh of Columbus and Mrs. O. H. Reed of East Liverpool; two brothers, William Kaiser and Robert Kaiser, both of East Liverpool, and five grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the Holloway and Son Funeral Home in Niles. Burial will be in Union Cemetery, Niles.

Friends may call at the funeral Home Tuesday.

Gail A. Hutchison

Gail Albert Hutchison, 67, of 715 Liberty St., Salem, a retired coremaker at the Quaker City Casting Co. in Salem and a former resident of East Liverpool, died Sunday at 10:45 p.m. at Salem Central Clinic after an illness of two weeks.

A native of St. Mary's, W. Va., Mr. Hutchison was born Aug. 27, 1901, a son of Albert and Mary Smith Hutchison. He moved to Salem from East Liverpool about 25 years ago. He retired from the Salem firm two months ago. He was a deacon in the First Baptist Church of Salem. He was married June 2, 1945, to the former Alice Jones, who survives at home.

He also leave three daughters, Miss Jeannette Hutchison, at home, Mrs. Roy Duffield of Wellsville and Mrs. Alfred Walker of Toronto; a son, Clifford Hutchison of Wellsville; seven sisters, Mrs. Arthur Bailey of St. Mary's, Mrs. Mary Eaton of Sewickley, Mrs. Browder Lane, Mrs. Roy Hess, Mrs. Harold Hall, Mrs. Hazel Shields and Mrs. Olive Garwood, all of East Liverpool; a brother, Clifford Hutchison, also of East Liverpool, six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at the Arbaugh - Pearce Funeral Home in Salem by the Rev. Daniel MacDonald. Burial will be in Hope Cemetery, Salem.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Jacob Martin

Services for Jacob E. Martin, 82, of Martins Ferry, brother of Mrs. Floyd Rager of East Liverpool, were held this afternoon at 1 at the Heslop Funeral Home in Martins Ferry. Burial was in Riverview Cemetery.

Mr. Martin died Friday night at Martins Ferry Hospital, where he had been a patient three weeks.

He also is survived by his widow, Mrs. Clara Martin, at home; three daughters, including Mrs. Clarence Oaks of Weirton, two other sisters, three sons and 11 grandchildren.

Tractor Injuries Fatal To Irondale Area Man

A 59-year-old man from Irondale RD 1, died this morning at City Hospital from multiple injuries received in a tractor accident on his farm Saturday about 4 p.m.

Henry Iddings, who was born on the farm Feb. 16, 1909, died about 12:13. He was a son of the late Henry Coit and Nettie Jarvis Iddings. The farm was settled by his great - great grandfather in 1807.

He was a retired supervisor of the plant protection force at the Titanium Metal Corp. in Toronto. He was active in the Heart Fund program and belonged to the Catholic Church of the Nativity in Hammondsville.

He is survived by his widow, Eunice Collins Iddings, at home; two sons, William Henry Iddings, a personnel specialist with the Army, who was to have left Thursday for assignment in Vietnam, and James Edward Iddings, at home.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at the church Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. by Fr. Mitchell Wilamowski. Burial will be in St. Elizabeth Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call Tuesday afternoon and night at the Haugh Funeral Home, Wellsville, where the Rosary will be recited Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

The family requests that material tributes take the form of donations to the Heart Fund in Columbiana and Jefferson counties.

The term "Papal States" embraced the land in Italy over which the Roman Catholic Church formerly had temporal power. Today it is only the 105-acre Vatican City.

Trio Fined $750 On Auto Charges

Three men accused of traffic offenses linked to autos and alcohol paid fines totaling $750 and costs today in Municipal Court. Two of them also drew jail sentences.

A man identified as Charles Fishback, 32, of 312 2nd St. drew the stiffest penalty from Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a second offense of driving while under the influence of alcohol—a $300 fine, a 30-day term in the County Jail and a two-year suspension of his operator's permit.

"I want this man's driver's license, the certificate of title to his car and the license plates," the judge instructed police. "If you didn't learn your lesson the last time, I am not going to allow you to drive around and possibly kill someone," the judge told Fishback.

Fishback was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Saturday at 12:50 a.m. on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. The patrol reported he was halted initially for driving 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. Fishback was fined and jailed last July 8 in Eastern Area County Court on a charge of driving while intoxicated filed after his arrest at Lisbon, the patrol reported.

QUERIED BY the court, Fishback said he spent four days in jail for the earlier offense. He also said his license had been suspended, but he obtained possession of it again in September.

Norman D. Wolfe, 37, of 797 Ohio Ave., also charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, was fined $250 and costs, sentenced to five days in jail and given a 90-day suspension of his operator's permit.

Police cited Wolfe after his car allegedly struck a parked auto on St. George St. Saturday night. An employe of the Homer Laughlin China Co., Wolfe told the court he has no insurance on his car. The judge said if Wolfe makes restitution for damage to the other car, that fact will be taken into consideration in possible mitigation of sentence.

Robert Williams of Carrollton was fined $200 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated. Williams was cited Saturday at 3:20 p.m. at Dry Alley and Apple Alley, off Walnut St.

Patrolman Orin C. Smith testified the police department received a complaint that a man was slumped over the steering wheel of his auto and could not be awakened. Officers found Williams in the auto with the motor running and a half bottle of whisky in the car, the officer said.

EIGHT OTHERS were fined or forfeited bonds on traffic offenses today.

William Fordyce Jr. of Georgetown RD 1 was fined $5 and costs on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at E. 6th and Walnut Sts. He was cited after a traffic mishap Friday morning. Kenneth L. Baughman, 18, of 829 Louise St., paid a fine of $5 and costs on a charge of driving the wrong way on a one - way section of Union St. He was cited Saturday at 11:33 a.m. by Smith.

Joseph A. Cochran, 22, of Oakmont forfeited a $22 bond on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." He was cited Sunday at 1:20 a.m. by Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon.

The court set a hearing Thursday morning for John R. McLaren, 23, of Dairy Ln., charged with speeding 70 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on St. Clair Ave. and driving without an operator's permit. The continuance was granted to allow McLaren to obtain a replacement for a permit he said expired Oct. 21. He was cited Sunday at 1:37 a.m. by Patrolman Bruce Conkle.

Robert W. Moore, 18, of 1717 Holliday St. was fined $10 and costs on a charge of accelerating his auto and "peeling" tires and ordered to pay the costs on a charge of operating an auto with a defective muffler. Moore was cited on E. 3rd St. Saturday at 12:28 a.m. by Patrolman Charles Coen. The judge commented that he could not suspend Moore's operator's permit on the tire "peeling" charge, but told the defendant's mother he hopes the boy will be "grounded" and not permitted to drive for a time.

Janet L. Poole of 7th Ave., LaCroft, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of failure to yield the right - of - way when making a left turn and ordered to pay court costs on a charge of driving without an operator's permit. She produced a new license in court today. She was cited Friday at 6:04 p.m. on E. 4th St. by Lt. Paul Blevins.

Hayward Stutler Jr. of Cuyahoga Falls forfeited a $27.50 bond on a charge of speeding 80 miles an hour in a 70-mile zone on the Freeway.

What the U.S. Senate candidates are saying and doing about law and order.

WILLIAM B. SAXBE

William B. Saxbe requested the establishment of The Ohio Crime Commission. (August 1967)

As Chairman of the Crime Commission William B. Saxbe led a comprehensive study of crime and criminal elements in Ohio.

William B. Saxbe issued the first report of the Crime Commission with findings and recommendations in fourteen major areas. (June 1968)

William B. Saxbe has been at the forefront in re-organization and upgrading of state crime control agencies.

Under William B. Saxbe, the Ohio Bureau of Identification and Investigation has been improved and expanded in its role in helping local law enforcement agencies with the latest scientific methods for criminal investigation.

William B. Saxbe has said, "I am deeply concerned that there be no infringement of individual rights . . . but there also must be no failure of responsibility."

"Muscle will never be a substitute for law in a Constitutional government."

"Freedom and responsibility go hand in hand."

JOHN J. GILLIGAN

Gilligan termed, "Idiotic", legislation forbidding riots and an amendment to make it a felony to cross a state line intending to start a riot. (April 1968)

Gilligan opposed the Cincinnati Anti-riot Ordinance. (April 1968)

Gilligan said, "The university crowd should start riots and political revolution in the area of what this country so obviously needs." (February 1964)

Gilligan said, "Taking to the streets is good as a means to attracting attention to conditions." (September 1968)

If you want to stop riots in the streets, if you want law and order with equal justice, if you believe in local law enforcement, then you need William B. Saxbe for U.S. Senate.

William B. Saxbe issued the first report of the Crime Commission with findings and recommendations in fourteen major areas. (June 1968)

William B. Saxbe has been at the forefront in re-organization and upgrading of state crime control agencies.

Under William B. Saxbe, the Ohio Bureau of Identification and Investigation has been improved and expanded in its role in helping local law enforcement agencies with the latest scientific methods for criminal investigation.

William B. Saxbe has said, "I am deeply concerned that there be no infringement of individual rights . . . but there also must be no failure of responsibility."

"Muscle will never be a substitute for law in a Constitutional government."

"Freedom and responsibility go hand in hand."

JOHN J. GILLIGAN

Gilligan termed, "Idiotic", legislation forbidding riots and an amendment to make it a felony to cross a state line intending to start a riot. (April 1968)

Gilligan opposed the Cincinnati Anti-riot Ordinance. (April 1968)

Gilligan said, "The university crowd should start riots and political revolution in the area of what this country so obviously needs." (February 1964)

Gilligan said, "Taking to the streets is good as a means to attracting attention to conditions." (September 1968)

If you want to stop riots in the streets, if you want law and order with equal justice, if you believe in local law enforcement, then you need William B. Saxbe for U.S. Senate.

Time Again For Borge

Victor Borge, the comic and musical Dane, will be doing some TV guest appearances this season, his fans will be happy to hear. Except for Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show, Victor has done virtually no TV the ready taped a He's al- past couple of years.

Hal Humphrey

Rowan & Martin "Laugh-In" and a Phyllis Diller show coming up and will be back in Hollywood later to do a Dean Martin guesting.

"I don't need TV for a living," he says. "I have plenty to do as it is. But TV is wonderful when you need exposure. It sells tickets for my concerts, to be remembered by being seen on TV."

VICTOR likes these spot guestings on other TV shows, rather than doing his own on TV, because he doesn't have to use his own material and can save it for his concert tours. Some 10 years ago he did six TV specials for Pontiac, and it put a strain on his comedy talents to come up with the amount of material required.

"Doing one special a year on TV isn't so good either," says Victor. "It's better to do four a year. Then you can form your own company and plan better. Otherwise, doing just one, you are at the mercy of having to work with whomever you can get from the network at the time."

A weekly TV series Borge never would do although he's had offers. It would consume too much of his time, which he reserves for his family and the many other things he enjoys doing, including sailing and biudling things for his two homes —one in Connecticut, the other in St. Croix, V.I.

BESIDES other business affairs, Victor is involved in many charities.

Later this year, Victor does benefits in Monaco at the invitation of Princess Grace and in Paris for UNICEF.

"I couldn't do these things and a weekly TV series. Besides, I enjoy playing the piano and conducting, which I do at these benefits and on my concert tours. Next summer, for example, I may do two weeks with the Boston Pops Symphony."

VICTOR came to America, a refugee from Hitler's occupation of his native Denmark, in 1941, penniless and unable to speak English.

Since he'd starred in a dozen or so Danish movies, he came to Hollywood first, learned English, but found no work until a chance acquaintanceship at a party resulted in his performing as an audience "warm-up" act for Bing Crosby's radio show.

The reaction of the studio audience to Victor's comedy resulted in his going on the show, where he remained for 56 weeks.

The Borge career thrived from then on, except in one category — the movies. He played in only one American movie (a bit part as an English nobleman), "Higher and Higher," which also was Frank Sinatra's first picture. That was 1943.

THE ONLY OTHER brush with the movies for Victor was two years ago when producer Sam Goldwyn and ABC hired him to host the premiere TV showing of Goldwyn's "Hans Christian Andersen" starring Danny Kaye.

"Where was Goldwyn 20 years ago, when I needed him?" asked Victor at the time.

Since 1953, when Victor opened his own one-man show, "Comedy in Music," on Broadway for a three-year run, he hasn't needed anyone as far as a career is concerned.

As for TV, he can go on any time he's available. The Rowan & Martin "Laugh-In" producers jumped at him the minute they heard he would be on the West Coast for a few days, as did Phyllis Diller.

IN ONE "Laugh-In" sequence, Victor is asked if he heard that 22,000 people came to see Liberace when he appeared in South America.

"Is that right?" exclaims Victor. "Ah, well, with that ermine cape and the candelabra, they probably thought he was the Pope."

He could have added that his audiences are just as big and he does it with no ermine cape or candelabra — just his piano and wit.

Sons Of Candidates Speak In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The eldest son of Vice President Hubert Humphrey and a 20-year-old daughter of Democratic Senate candidate John J. Gilligan campaigned for their fathers in Cleveland Sunday.

Hubert Humphrey III and Kathleen Gilligan spoke during the fifth annual John F. Kennedy Memorial Breakfast sponsored by the Cuyahoga County Young Democrats Club.

Young Humphrey predicted his father's election largely through the support of young people.

ANN LANDERS

Promises, Performance

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you told "Bellyful" that not all politicians are phonies and power-hungry egomaniacs. You said there were some very decent people holding public office — sincere, honest, dedicated individuals who could have a much easier life if they chose another career.

I'm sure you're correct when you say not all politicians are third rates, but it's those 95 per cent that make the other 5 per cent look bad. Do you have the courage to print this? We'll see. —BELLYFUL No. 2.

Dear No. 2: People get the kind of government they deserve. If you've had a bellyful of "third raters," why don't you do something about it?

By now I hope you have informed yourself on the issues, learned what the candidates stand for — or what they WON'T stand for. You also should compare the candidates' campaign promises with their past performances.

Tomorrow you get an opportunity to express yourself. Please get off your back porch and vote for the men you believe will lead our country — and your community — in the direction they should go.

Chain Reaction

Dear Ann: I'm a 20-year-old woman who is contemplating marriage to a fine man. The problem — although I've gone over his wonderful qualities in my mind at least 1,000 times, I feel there is some element of excitement missing in our relationship.

We're planning a winter wedding and still there are nagging doubts — even as I purchase linen and household furnishings.

Last week I confided my uncertainty to my mother and she said, "Don't worry, things will work out. I experienced the same doubts when I married your father 36 years ago."

My father heard her say this and now he's so depressed I barely can stand to look at him. He is convinced my mother did not love him when they married and that she has been pretending ever since.

My mother interprets Dad's behavior as a sign that he does not love her and is sure he never did. Now she says HER heart is broken after 30 years and five children and she feels she has wasted her life.

Yesterday she said, "Don't marry until a man comes along who really and truly thrills you." What should I do? — FEELING MIGHTY LOW.

Dear Low: Sounds as if your mother and dad could use a little counseling. They weren't much help to you — like none at all.

I suggest you postpone your wedding plans for a year. You're only 20 — where's the fire? Date others and make comparisons. And when you decide what you want to do, don't poll your parents for opinions.

Block-Head

Dear Ann: Several years ago I read that Japanese people do not snore because of the traditional pillow they use. It is a block of wood 4 to 6 inches high, and the person rests his head on it in such a way that the head is tilted back and snoring cannot occur. At least this is the way I heard it.

I have not asked my husband to try it because he does not snore. Will you try it, Ann, and let us know if it works? — G.A.

Dear G.A.: I don't snore, either. However, I hope someone out there (perhaps one of my readers of the Asahi Evening News in Tokyo) will let us know if it works.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Training Offered Unemployed In 3 Beaver Projects

Three training projects for unemployed workers in Beaver County under the Manpower Development and Training Act have been announced by Rep. Frank Clark, 25th District Congressman.

The projects, approved by the Health, Education and Welfare Department, will provide training for 125 men and women.

One will train 25 as production machine operators in a 29-week course at Ambridge High School at a cost of $54,614, of which the federal share will be $52,244.

Another course will be for 25 in auto body repair for 25 weeks at Aliquippa High School at a cost of $47,464, of which the federal share will be $45,546.

The third will be for 75 workers to be trained as nurses aides for six weeks at the Beaver County Hospital. Cost will be $24,595, of which the federal share will be $23,674.

The funds provide training costs and allowances paid to trainees. Placement of trainees after completion of the courses will be made through the Pennsylvania Employment Service.

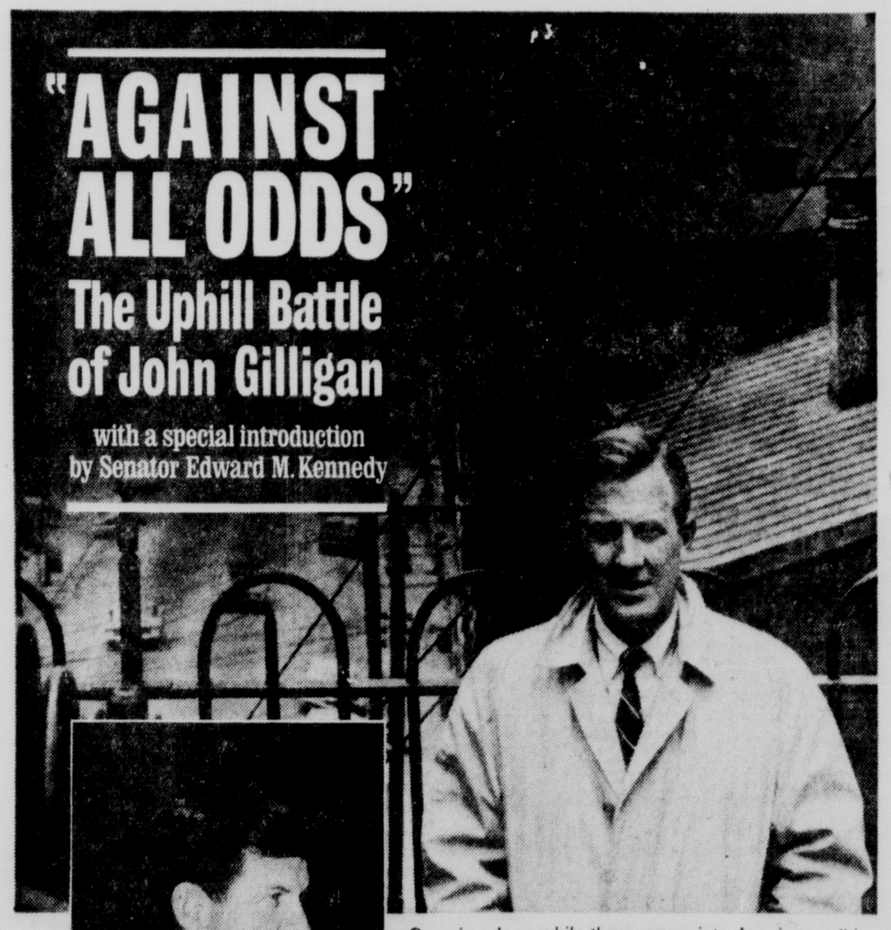
TV SPECIAL-TONIGHT 8:30 CH. 9



Once in a long while there comes into American politics a man who baffles and sometimes enrages the professional politicians ... a man of independence who refuses to be harnessed.

Tonight Senator Edward M. Kennedy introduces the story about such a man ... John Gilligan of Ohio ... and his uphill struggle against all odds.

Sons Of Candidates Speak In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The eldest son of Vice President Hubert Humphrey and a 20-year-old daughter of Democratic Senate candidate John J. Gilligan campaigned for their fathers in Cleveland Sunday.

Hubert Humphrey III and Kathleen Gilligan spoke during the fifth annual John F. Kennedy Memorial Breakfast sponsored by the Cuyahoga County Young Democrats Club.

Young Humphrey predicted his father's election largely through the support of young people.

ANN LANDERS

Promises, Performance

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you told "Bellyful" that not all politicians are phonies and power-hungry egomaniacs. You said there were some very decent people holding public office — sincere, honest, dedicated individuals who could have a much easier life if they chose another career.

I'm sure you're correct when you say not all politicians are third rates, but it's those 95 per cent that make the other 5 per cent look bad. Do you have the courage to print this? We'll see. —BELLYFUL No. 2.

Dear No. 2: People get the kind of government they deserve. If you've had a bellyful of "third raters," why don't you do something about it?

By now I hope you have informed yourself on the issues, learned what the candidates stand for — or what they WON'T stand for. You also should compare the candidates' campaign promises with their past performances.

Tomorrow you get an opportunity to express yourself. Please get off your back porch and vote for the men you believe will lead our country — and your community — in the direction they should go.

Chain Reaction

Dear Ann: I'm a 20-year-old woman who is contemplating marriage to a fine man. The problem — although I've gone over his wonderful qualities in my mind at least 1,000 times, I feel there is some element of excitement missing in our relationship.

We're planning a winter wedding and still there are nagging doubts — even as I purchase linen and household furnishings.

Last week I confided my uncertainty to my mother and she said, "Don't worry, things will work out. I experienced the same doubts when I married your father 36 years ago."

By Ann Landers

My father heard her say this and now he's so depressed I barely can stand to look at him. He is convinced my mother did not love him when they married and that she has been pretending ever since.

My mother interprets Dad's behavior as a sign that he does not love her and is sure he never did. Now she says HER heart is broken after 30 years and five children and she feels she has wasted her life.

Yesterday she said, "Don't marry until a man comes along who really and truly thrills you." What should I do? — FEELING MIGHTY LOW.

Dear Low: Sounds as if your mother and dad could use a little counseling. They weren't much help to you — like none at all.

I suggest you postpone your wedding plans for a year. You're only 20 — where's the fire? Date others and make comparisons. And when you decide what you want to do, don't poll your parents for opinions.

Block-Head

Dear Ann: Several years ago I read that Japanese people do not snore because of the traditional pillow they use. It is a block of wood 4 to 6 inches high, and the person rests his head on it in such a way that the head is tilted back and snoring cannot occur. At least this is the way I heard it.

I have not asked my husband to try it because he does not snore. Will you try it, Ann, and let us know if it works? — G.A.

Dear G.A.: I don't snore, either. However, I hope someone out there (perhaps one of my readers of the Asahi Evening News in Tokyo) will let us know if it works.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Training Offered Unemployed In 3 Beaver Projects

Three training projects for unemployed workers in Beaver County under the Manpower Development and Training Act have been announced by Rep. Frank Clark, 25th District Congressman.

The projects, approved by the Health, Education and Welfare Department, will provide training for 125 men and women.

One will train 25 as production machine operators in a 29-week course at Ambridge High School at a cost of $54,614, of which the federal share will be $52,244.

Another course will be for 25 in auto body repair for 25 weeks at Aliquippa High School at a cost of $47,464, of which the federal share will be $45,546.

The third will be for 75 workers to be trained as nurses aides for six weeks at the Beaver County Hospital. Cost will be $24,595, of which the federal share will be $23,674.

The funds provide training costs and allowances paid to trainees. Placement of trainees after completion of the courses will be made through the Pennsylvania Employment Service.

Jordanians Quell Fight By Palestinian Troops

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — The Jordanian government announced it had put down an attempt today by a group of Palestinian commandos to foment civil strife in the kingdom.

In a broadcast King Hussein told his people guerrilla action against Israel would continue "purified from these stealthy treacherous elements."

The king's emotional speech over Amman Radio was the first official explanation of widespread shooting and demonstrations that swept Amman this morning.

A later communique from the interior ministry indicates the trouble was over—at least for the moment—but gave no word on casualties.

Diplomatic sources said the firing started when the army tried to arrest selected leaders of the Arab guerrilla organizations which have been raiding Israel from bases in Jordan. This set off demonstrations in Palestinian refugee camps at Ashrafiya and Jabal Hussein.

The army surrounded the two camps and moved quickly to quell other demonstrations which developed in scattered sections of Amman. Sources said the demonstrators were dispersed after more than four hours of shooting.

The gunfire died down at 10:30 a.m., and Morris Draper, political officer at the U.S. Embassy, said the army "appears to be completely in control at this time."

None of the sources immediately available had any word of casualties or damage.

Draper said no Americans were hurt or involved in the violence. He said the Embassy had contacted all American residents and tourists hotels in Amman.

Unofficials report said several commando leaders were arrested to forestall an expected attack by commando forces against the government, which has been trying to curb their activities to forestall retaliatory raids by the Israelis. A source said there had been reports for the last two weeks that the guerrillas were planning a showdown.

Schools closed and shop owners put up their shutters.

Hussein's Bedouin army and commandos shot it out in front of the U.S. Embassy two days ago after a mob stormed the building and tore down the American flag.

That outburst, involving some 10,000 persons, began as a protest against the 51st anniversary of the Balfour Declaration, which promised the Jews a national home in Palestine.

Hussein has been under increasing pressure from several Palestine guerrilla organizations operating from Jordan. These groups reject any political settlement with Israel and have vowedd tdo "liberate" all Palestine, not just the Arab territories captured by Israel during the six-day war last year.

Hussein put himself in open opposition to these commando organizations last Thursday when he expressed hope for a political settlement with Israel "within a short time."

Israel and Egypt meanwhile each denied the other's claims after the planes duelled over the Suez Canal Sunday for the second time in two weeks. An army spokesman in Tel Aviv said Israeli fighters chased two Egyptian MIG21 jets that flew into Sinai. He said one Egyptian plane gave off smoke as it fled across the canal, while no Israeli planes were hit.

Loss Of $1,150 Set In Crash By Lisbon Officers

LISBON — Police estimated $1,150 damage to two vehicles involved in an accident at 8:12 p.m. Saturday on N. Market St. (Route 45) at High St. Both vehicles were headed north.

Sylvanus Lipscomb, 71, of Lisbon RD 4 was charged with making an improper turn. Police said he was in the curb lane of the two northbound lanes and turned left into the right side of a 1968 station wagon operated by Robert E. Steele, 48, of Highland Dr., Calcutta Acres.

No one was hurt. Officers said there was about $900 damage to Steele's car and $250 damage to Lipscomb's 1964 sedan.

Daniel R. Rota, 26, Pittsburgh, and Marx F. Stone, 45, of Lisbon RD 4 posted $15 appearance bonds Sunday morning after police cited them as the result of a minor collision at 11:45 on E. Lincoln Way at Cedar Alley.

Rota was charged with failure to stop in an assured clear distance after he struck the right rear corner of Stone's Auto. Stone was charged with passing over the yellow line on Lincoln Way before he turned into the alley.

George Faloba of Lisbon RD 3 was charged Saturday night with driving while under the influence of alcohol and his wife, Eileen, with intoxication. They posted bonds of $300 and $50 respectively for appearances Tuesday night in mayor's court.

ONE OF THE LAST of its kind, possibly, this Puerto Rican emerald green parrot perches contentedly on its perch. Some experts say the colorful, foot-high bird could survive less than a decade if left to its own devices. Currently, the U.S. Departments of Agriculture and the Interior are conducting a joint program to determine what the endangered parrot needs to recover its numbers.

2 Stabbings Investigated

Two separate stabbings occurred Sunday in Hancock County following quarrels between workers at a farm and two East Liverpool residents.

The separate incidents were investigated by the Hancock County sheriff's department after a call by officials at City Hospital after 4 a. m. Sunday.

Treated were Charles Diamond of Jackson, Miss., a migrant worker at the Hillcrest Farms on Route 8, for lacerations of the abdomen and back, and Charles Watkins of 722 Sophia St., for a laceration of the right thumb.

Diamond, 29, told deputies that he and another worker, Ray Ginter, had an argument at the Hillcrest Farms and Ginter stabbed him in the left side and back. Deputies reported that the knife could not be found. Charges of felonious assault will be filed, they said.

Watkins, 20, was being treated for a right thumb laceration.

Watkins told deputies that he had had an argument with a friend named "Buck" of 3rd St., East Liverpool, in the parking lot of the Hilltop Inn on Route 30 about 3:30 a. m. As they were going to "Buck's" car, Watkins said he was stabbed in the thumb. A charge of felonious assault will be filed against Watkins' assailant, deputies said.

So far, neither Ginter nor "Buck" have been arrested.

From PRESSWELL
by Paul Seckman

SMART SHOPPING CAN PREVENT SAG AND FLOP IN YOUR TURTLE NECK SHIRTS

Here's some help for men whose elegance has been wounded by turtleneck knit shirts that have flopped, especially around the neck.

The National Institute of Drycleaning advises that this condition may happen in turtleneck shirts made with a loosely knitted acetate knit fabric. Stretching can occur in neck and sleeve areas during wear as well as during cleaning.

These shirts are also susceptible to yarn slippage, dulling or shine spots. They have to be very carefully handled by the profesional drycleaners. Home care also can be disastrous. The Institute further advises that once this knit stretches, it cannot be blocked back into shape.

When shopping, look for a well-constructed, tightly knitted shirt that has a label advising of fiber content. Fiber content information is important to the drycleaning. He then knows how your shirt must be handled.

Democrats To Hold Control

Minor GOP Gain Seen In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats are expected to maintain control of the Senate in Tuesday's elections but some Republican gains are likely.

The Democrats, who have controlled the Senate the past 12 years, now have a 63 to 37 majority and even the Senate Republican Campaign Committee admits the GOP is unlikely to obtain the 14-seat turnover necessary for control.

But with Republicans hoping to pick up as many as 15 new Senate seats—and Democrats expecting five at most—a GOP takeover is not out of the question and gains more than likely.

Democratic strategists say the Vietnam bombing halt has increased their chances of holding the Republicans to a net gain of two. They figure the Republicans might win Arizona, Florida, Maryland and Ohio but lose California and Iowa.

Republican strategists say in addition to those four states they could win in Alaska, Connecticut, Idaho, Indiana, Nevada, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

The Democrats figure besides California and Iowa they could pick up new Senate seats in Utah and New Hampshire, and possibly Kentucky.

In all, 23 Senate seats now held by Democrats are at stake Tuesday while only 11 held by Republicans are on the line.

A Democratic gain in Kentucky would also give the Senate its second lady member.

Democrat Katherine Peden, the only woman member of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders, is competing against Republican Marlow W. Cook and independent Duane Olson for the seat of retiring GOP Sen. Thruston B. Morton. Cook is favored but some observers believe his Catholicism could be a handicap.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, is the only woman senator now.

In the other Senate races:

Alabama—Democratic former Lt. Gov. James B. Allen is favored to defeat probate judge Perry H. Hooper, a Republican, for retiring Democratic Sen. Lister Hill's seat.

Alaska—Republicans hope incumbent Sen. Ernest Gruening's write-in candidacy will split the Democratic vote between him and Democrat Mike Gravel, and give Republican Elmer E. Rasmussen the election.

Arizona—Republican Barry Goldwater is heavily favored to defeat Democrat Roy Elson for the seat of retiring Democratic Sen. Carl Hayden.

Arkansas—Democratic Sen. J. W. Fulbright is favored to win re-election over Republican challenger Charles J. Bernard.

California—Former Democratic state Controller Alan Cranston is favored to defeat Republican Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty who beat incumbent Thomas H. Kuchel in the primary.

Colorado—Republican Sen. Peter H. Dominick is favored over Democratic former Gov. Stephen L.R. McNichols.

Connecticut—Democratic Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff is favored to defeat Republican Edwin H. May Jr.

Florida—Republican Rep. Edward J. Gurney is considered a strong favorite to defeat former Democratic Gov. LeRoy Collins for the seat being vacated by retiring Democratic Sen. George A. Smathers.

Georgia—Democratic Sen. Herman E. Talmadge is expected to be re-elected over Republican challenger E. Earl Patton Jr.

Hawaii—Democratic Sen. Daniel K. Inouye is expected to beat Republican Wayne C. Thiessen.

Idaho—Democratic Sen. Frank Church is still the favorite but Republicans think their Rep. George Hansen could win the traditionally Republican state.

Illinois—Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen is expected to be re-elected over Democratic Atty. Gen. William G. Clark.

Indiana—Democratic Sen. Birch Bayh is credited with a narrow lead but Republicans think a strong vote for Richard M. Nixon could give Republican William D. Ruckelshaus the Senate win.

Iowa—Democrats expect Gov. Harold E. Hughes to win retiring Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper's seat despite a strong challenge from Republican state Sen. David M. Stanley.

Kansas—Republican Rep. Robert Dole is considered almost certain to win retiring GOP Sen. Frank Carlson's seat over Democrat William I. Robinson.

Louisiana—Democratic Sen. Russell B. Long is unopposed.

Maryland—Republicans expect independent George P. Mahoney to draw votes from incumbent Democratic Sen. Daniel B. Brewster and give the election to Republican Rep. charles Mathias.

Missouri—Democratic Lt. Gov. Thomas F. Eagleton, who defeated Sen. Edward V. Long in the primary, is favored over Republican Rep. Thomas B. Curtis.

Nevada—Democratic Sen. Alan Bible is expected to turn back a strong challenge by Republican Lt. Gov. Ed Fike.

New Hampshire—Republican Sen. Norris Cotton is favored to win re-election but Democrats say that with Gov. John W. King as their candidate this is a Senate seat they could gain.

New York—Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits has the Liberal party endorsement and is expected to defeat Democratic challenger Paul O'Dwyer and Conservative James L. Buckley.

North Carolina—Democratic Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. is expected to win re-election over Republican Robert V. Somers.

North Dakota—Republican Sen. Milton R. Young, a 22-year veteran, is expected to defeat Democratic Fargo Mayor Herschel Lashkowitz.

Ohio—Republican Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe is favored to defeat former Democratic Rep. John J. Gilligan, who beat Sen. Frank J. Lausche in the primary. But some observers say the race close.

Oklahoma—Democratic Sen. A.S. "Mike" Monroney could be beaten by Republican former Gov. Henry Bellmon.

Oregon—Republicans and some independent observers say veteran Democratic Sen. Wayne L. Morse could be upset by Rep. Robert W. Packwood.

Pennsylvania — Democratic Sen. Joseph S. Clark once had a clear lead but Republicans say Rep. Richard S. Schweiker has strong support in the western and rural areas.

South Carolina — Democratic Sen. Ernest F. Hollings is favored for re-election. But Republicans say their candidate, former state Sen. Marshall Parker, will be helped by Sen. Strom Thurmond's drive for Nixon.

South Dakota—The polls show Sen. George S. McGovern leading but this is a traditional Republican state and former Gov. Archie Gubbrud could win on a strong Nixon tide.

Utah—Democrats think Republican Sen. Wallace F. Bennett can be upset by Milton L. Weilenmann, state development director.

Vermont—Veteran Republican Sen. George D. Aiken virtually won re-election in the primary. He won both the Republican and Democratic nominations.

Washington—Democratic Sen. Warren G. Magnuson is expected to win re-election over Republican state Sen. Jack Metcalf.

Wisconsin—Democratic Sen. Gaylord Nelson could be hurt by a strong Republican vote but polls indicate his challenger, state Sen. Jerris Leonard, is still relatively unknown to voters.

Turning Auto Strikes Wall, Hurts Woman

An East End woman was injured Sunday afternoon when her husband's auto struck a wall as he turned from Pennsylvania Ave. into Bay Alley, police reported.

Mrs. Jeanne Redmond, 30, of 1352 Etruria St. was taken to City Hospital after the mishap at 1:40 that damaged the left front of a 1965 model auto operated by her husband, Thomas Redmond, of the same address, police reported.

Remond told police the car skidded and hit the wall as he began a right turn off the thoroughfare into the alley.

Mrs. Redmond was treated for skull injuries and a whiplash of the neck.

A 36-year-old man was cited on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol after a collision Saturday at 8:50 p.m. that damaged a parked auto on St. George St. at Beleek St., officers said.

Patrolman Charles Coen cited Norman D. Wolfe, 36, of 797 Ohio Ave. in the mishap that damaged Wolfe's 1960 sedan and a parked 1966 sedan owned by John G. Reardon of 856 St. George St. The mishap damaged the left front of Wolfe's car and the entire front end of Reardon's vehicle.

Police said Wolfe was turning from Beleek St. onto St. George St. when his car went left of center, hit the Reardon auto and drove it onto the sidewalk.

A parked car was damaged in a minor mishap on Jackman St. Saturday at 11:20 p.m.

A backing 1959 sedan driven by Harry M. Watkins, 39, of 316½ Jackson St. bumped the left front quarter panel of a parked 1957 sedan owned by Alice Lyons of 329 Jackman St., officers said. Watkins told police he did not see the parked car.

Another minor mishap was timed Saturday at 2:05 p.m. on Dresden Ave. about 44 feet south of E. 8th St. It involved a halted 1968 two-door sedan driven by Robert L. Curtis, 30, of Campground Rd. and a 1961 model station wagon operated by Robert E. Stacey Jr., 33, of 341 Briar Ln. Curtis told police his car was hit from behind while he was halted for a traffic signal. Stacey reported he halted behind Curtis, then looked aside for a moment and his car drifted and hit the Curtis vehicle. Damage was minor.

A Florida man was taken to City Hospital Saturday after his 1963 model convertible struck a utility pole and two retaining walls on lower St. Clair Ave. police said.

Darrell R. Eccleson, 27, of Jacksonville told police he fell asleep while driving north on St. Clair. The car veered off the left side of the street and hit an Ohio Power Co. pole and walls on the property of George Crossen of 805 St. Clair Ave. and Mrs. Douglas McConnachie of 809 St. Clair Ave., officers said. There was heavy damage to the entire front of Eccleston's car.

The hospital, which listed his address as 1031 Riverview St., said Eccleston suffered contusions of the right arm and abrasions of the nose. He was treated and released.

Shallow, tropical waters yield sponges that are blue, green, orange, magenta, violet, yellow and tan as well as brown, white and black.

Youth Unhurt As Auto Runs Into Bridge

SALINEVILLE — An area youth escaped injury, but the 1968 model sports car he was driving was demolished when it struck an iron bridge on W. Main St. Saturday night.

Police Chief Gordon Sweeney said Albert Leroy Ketchum, 19, of RD 2 was traveling west on W. Main St. at an excessive rate of speed when he lost control of the auto and it went left of center, skidded 67 feet and crashed into the end of the bridge.

The guardrail along the sidewalk was knocked off. Ketchum was cited for reckless operation.

Mrs. Villian G. Lohamn, 69, of Salineville RD 2 was cited for improper backing as the result of another mishap Saturday night. She was backing her 1966 sedan from a parking lot at a food market at 6:35 p.m. and hit a 1966 parked sedan belonging to Mildren Lewis of Commerce St.

Ketchum and Mrs. Lohman are scheduled to appear in Mayor Dwayne Felton's court Nov. 13.

Community Studying Plan To Leave City

CINCINNATI (AP)—Community leaders of Avondale, a predominantly Negro section of the city, are studying plans which call for withdrawal from the city. Annexed in 1896, the community has been the scene of three racial disturbances since 1967.

Community leaders said earlier Avondale residents are suffering from police brutaltiy and injustice in the courts. They said, "We couldn't do any worse by managing our own affairs.

Committee Chairmen Named At Meeting Of Newell Group

Mrs. Janet Keller, who will assume her duties as president of the Newell Homemakers Club in January, announced her committee chairmen for 1969 during a meeting Friday night at the home of Mrs. Vada Anderson of Harrison St., retiring president. The group observed its fifth anniversary.

Committee chairmen include, Mrs. Lois Graham, better living project; Mrs. Barbara Jones, citizenship; Mrs. Jane Reese, arts and crafts; Mrs. Judy Cook, family life; Mrs. Sara Mercer, health; Mrs. Anderson, international relation; Mrs. Shirley Ogden, safety, and Mrs. Dorothy Hamilton, tour.

Mrs. Jones gave a summary of activities of club meetings during the last five years.

Mrs. Rosemary Hitt, Mrs. Shirley Ogden, Mrs. Dorothy Hamilton and Mrs. Jones, charter members, were presented corsages from the club. Mrs. Jones also conducted devotions.

Prizes for games went to Mrs. Rose Bell, Mrs. Delores Riddle, Mrs. Karen Ogden and Mrs. Shirley Ogden. Guests were Mrs. Karen Ogden and Mrs. Mary Lewis.

Lunch was served 13 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Judy Cook. An arrangement of fall flowers and an anniversary cake decorated the table.

Named For Man

FRANNFORT, Ky. (AP) — This city, Kentucky's capital, was not named after the German city of Frankfurt, as some visitors believe. It originally was called Frank's "Ford" after Stephen Frank, killed in 1780 by Indians at a fording spot on the Kentucky River.

LISBON — Plans were discussed for the combined clubs' Christmas party Dec. 3 at the Methodist Church when the Lisbon Music Study Club met Friday night at the home of Mrs. Gerald Evans of Sunset Dr.

Mrs. Donald Lewis, president, reported on the recent District 1 fall conference at Cuyahoga Falls. Mrs. Dallas Hepburn and Mrs. William Pannier, a district board member, also attended.

The program included: Group singing, with Mrs. Raymond Crosser at the autoharp; duet, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Crosser; reports, "Arnold Schoenberg," Mrs. Clayton Hunter, with one of his records played; "Alban Berg," Mrs. Hepburn, and "Paul Hindemith," Mrs. C. R. McNally.

Mrs. Vernon Duke introduced the program.

Club members also heard a recording of a concert given at the Baldwin - Wallace summer music clinic attended by four local students.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Pannier.

The next meeting will be Dec. 6 at the home of Mrs. Edward Nold of N. Market St.

Ohio Traffic Toll Hits 35

By The Associated Press

Ohio recorded one of its grisliest weekends of the year on the highways, with at least 35 persons dying in traffic accidents.

It was the highest weekend traffic death toll of the year, except for the four-day Fourth of July weekend, when 42 died.

Three double-death accidents and one triple-death crash contributed to the high toll.

About half of the deaths occurred Sunday. The Associated Press count extends from Friday at 6 p.m. until midnight Sunday.

Among the victims was James F. Heaton Jr., 19, of Columbus, a promising Ohio State University freshman football player who had won praise for his play Friday in the frosh game against Indiana. Katie Long, 55, Quaker City, also was killed in that accident Sunday on Interstate 70 in Columbus.

Negro Bandits Rob 'Whiteys' Of Wallets

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Five Negro bandits armed with sawed-off shotguns made off with about $1,000 in a supermarket robbery Sunday in which they also took the wallets of white customers only.

Witnesses said one of the bandits climbed onto a checkout counter and ordered: "All the coloreds—don't get nervous. Keep your cool. All you whiteys —take out your wallets."

Straw Balloting Set Over Massachusetts

BOSTON (AP) — If voters don't like the choices on the presidential ballot Tuesday, they can cast a straw vote for the man or woman of their choice.

"Freedom Polls" will be set up outside regular polling places in 25 Massachusetts communities. The ballots will be secret.

Persons 18 to 20 years of age will be allowed to vote.

The plan is sponsored by the Conference for New Political Action.

The three eyes on a coconut mean the original flower of the coconut palm contained three ovarial cavaties but only one remained at maturity.

Committee Chairmen Named At Meeting Of Newell Group

Mrs. Janet Keller, who will assume her duties as president of the Newell Homemakers Club in January, announced her committee chairmen for 1969 during a meeting Friday night at the home of Mrs. Vada Anderson of Harrison St., retiring president. The group observed its fifth anniversary.

Committee chairmen include, Mrs. Lois Graham, better living project; Mrs. Barbara Jones, citizenship; Mrs. Jane Reese, arts and crafts; Mrs. Judy Cook, family life; Mrs. Sara Mercer, health; Mrs. Anderson, international relation; Mrs. Shirley Ogden, safety, and Mrs. Dorothy Hamilton, tour.

Mrs. Jones gave a summary of activities of club meetings during the last five years.

Mrs. Rosemary Hitt, Mrs. Shirley Ogden, Mrs. Dorothy Hamilton and Mrs. Jones, charter members, were presented corsages from the club. Mrs. Jones also conducted devotions.

Prizes for games went to Mrs. Rose Bell, Mrs. Delores Riddle, Mrs. Karen Ogden and Mrs. Shirley Ogden. Guests were Mrs. Karen Ogden and Mrs. Mary Lewis.

Lunch was served 13 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Judy Cook. An arrangement of fall flowers and an anniversary cake decorated the table.

Named For Man

FRANNFORT, Ky. (AP) — This city, Kentucky's capital, was not named after the German city of Frankfurt, as some visitors believe. It originally was called Frank's "Ford" after Stephen Frank, killed in 1780 by Indians at a fording spot on the Kentucky River.

County Will Name Two To Serve In Assembly

Columbiana County will have a voice in naming two members of the Ohio General Assembly in the general election Tuesday.

Voting as part of the five-county 30th State Senatorial District, Columbiana County will join in choosing between John Longsworth, 28, of Salem, the Republican incumbent seeking a second term, and State Rep. Douglas Applegate, 40, of Steubenville, the Democratic nominee.

Comprising the 34th District of the Ohio House of Representatives, Columbiana County will decide whether to return Clarence L. Dutch) Wetzel of near Lisbon, a Republican bidding for his 10th term, or pick Roy Allen, 27, of Columbiana village, a printer at The Review and a former news writer.

The state senatorial district is comprised of Columbiana, Jefferson, Harrison and Carroll Counties and about two - thirds of Tuscarawas County.

Sen. Longsworth, a graduate of Columbiana High School, also attended East Liverpool grade schools when his father, a minister, served here.

Longsworth holds a bachelor's degree from Baldwin - Wallace College and a master's degree in biochemistry from Rutgers University. A former teacher at Steubenville High School, he now is employed as a life insurance salesman in his spare time. In the Senate, he served on committees on education, health and welfare and agriculture and state agencies.

Applegate now is serving his fourth term as state representative from Jefferson County. A realtor in Steubenville for the last 15 years, he was graduated from Steubenville High School in 1947.

Wetzel resides on the Roller Coaster Rd., near Lisbon. A salesman, he has served in the Ohio House 18 years. He attended elementary school and high school at Lisbon, Mt. Union College at Alliance and Carnegie Institute of Technology at Pittsburgh.

Allen, graduated from Columbiana High School, studied political science and history for three years at Youngstown University. He was employed eight years at the Columbiana Ledger, a weekly newspaper, as an apprentice, sports columnist, news editor and managing editor.

Allen also sought the state representative's seat in 1966. He is a member of International Typographical Union 318 in East Liverpool.

Shaker Heights Man Found Shot In Head

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Suburban Shaker Heights police were investigating the death of 48-year-old David C. Ruse who was found early Sunday shot in the head.

Police said a 37-year-old Shaker Heights woman was being held as a material witness.

Damage Runs High As Vandals Hit Town

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Vandals hit over the weekend, slashing tires on about 60 cars and breaking windows including those of a church. Police attributed several burglaries at stores to juveniles.

Most of the vandalism occurred late Saturday and early Sunday. Damage was expected to run into the thousands of dollars.

Food Workers Near Contract Agreement

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Negotiators for Retail Store Employes Union Local 880 and the Cleveland Food Industry Committee say they are close to an agreement on a new contract.

The union represents about 10,000 workers in 95 per cent of the major grocery stores in northeastern Ohio.

Robert P. Duvin, chief negotiator for the industry, and David McDonald, president of the union, said Sunday that they expect to complete a new agreement by Wednesday following a break in negotiations for the election.

Court Cases Dip During October

LISBON — The number of cases pending in Columbiana County Common Pleas Court dropped from 900 to 886 during October.

One hundred new cases, including 53 divorce actions, were filed last month, but the two judges disposed of 114 cases.

A summary of the dispositions shows 40 divorce cases, 60 civil cases and 14 criminal cases.

There were six jury trials and 43 cases were tried to court. Sixty-three cases were settled or dismissed and two were cognovit and default judgments.

Eleven Columbiana County cases are pending in Seventh District Court of Appeals. Three were filed last month.

Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey prepares the monthly activity report for the Ohio Supreme Court.

Humphrey Will Vote In Township Building

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will cast his paper ballot Tuesday in a small rural building heated by an old-fashioned wood-burning stove.

The Marysville Township Hall, about a mile from Humphrey's home on Lake Waverly, was built more than 60 years ago.

One hundred new cases, including 53 divorce actions, were filed last month, but the two judges disposed of 114 cases.

A summary of the dispositions shows 40 divorce cases, 60 civil cases and 14 criminal cases.

There were six jury trials and 43 cases were tried to court. Sixty-three cases were settled or dismissed and two were cognovit and default judgments.

Eleven Columbiana County cases are pending in Seventh District Court of Appeals. Three were filed last month.

Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey prepares the monthly activity report for the Ohio Supreme Court.

Humphrey Will Vote In Township Building

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will cast his paper ballot Tuesday in a small rural building heated by an old-fashioned wood-burning stove.

The Marysville Township Hall, about a mile from Humphrey's home on Lake Waverly, was built more than 60 years ago.

The DOCTOR Says

Smoking Causes Various Side Effects

Q — What is Buerger's disease? Is there any cure?

A — Buerger's disease, or thromboangitis obliterans, is an inflammation of the arteries in the legs. It is more common in men than in women. Heavy cigarette smoking is an important causative factor. It is serious in that, unless its progress is checked, one or both legs may be lost.

Dr. Brandstadt

ONE OF THE chief symptoms is a severe pain in the legs brought on by walking a short distance. The victim has to rest a few minutes before he can proceed another lap (intermittent claudication).

SEVERAL DRUGS have been tried but none can be recommended. The most important preventive measure is to quit smoking and the best way to improve the circulation is to walk for an hour or more daily, stopping to rest each time the pain occurs.

SPECIAL CARE must be taken to prevent thermal or traumatic injury to the feet. In severe cases, hospitalization is required. Inhalation of oxygen by mask in a chamber under a pressure of 30 pounds per square inch or two atmospheres helps to prevent gangrene. If ulcers or gangrene do occur, various operations can be performe to improve the circulation.

Q—My doctor says I should see a specialist about a lump he can feel in my prostate. I have no symptoms of anything wrong so I feel this would be foolish. What do you think?

A—The graveyard is full of persons who decided for themselves that there was nothing wrong with them. If you have a lump anywhere in your body and your doctor thinks you should have a further examination, you owe it to yourself to follow his advice. If the lump is an innocent one, the specialist will not think you foolish for consulting him. If it cancerous, the sooner it is removed the better your chance for a cure.

Q—I am 16. All my friends have taken to sniffing airplane glue. What bad effects are they in danger of?

A—It is always a temptation to run with the crowd but this is a sign of weakness rather than strength. In the case of glue, your sniff-happy friends should know that these fumes slowly poison their liver, heart, kidneys, blood-forming organs and nervous system — a high price to pay for their "kicks."

Sister Talks To 500

Record Of HHH Praised In Salem

SALEM — Mrs. Frances Humphrey Howard, in a talk before members of the Columbiana County Democratic party at a Jefferson - Jackson Day dinner here Saturday, appealed to voters to look at her brother's record before voting Tuesday.

The sister of the Democratic presidential candidate told 500 attending the event at St. Paul School Auditorium that although Hubert Humphrey's record is a distinguished one, since the Humphreys are a family of average means, his work has not been as well-publicized as that of others in public life.

SHE NOTED her brother's contributions to the Medicare program and the Peace Corps, and said he was interested in working with local, county and state governments and civic groups in joint ventures to develop highways, technical education and other projects.

Humphrey favors vocational training to boost employment across the country, she said, noting that the Columbiana County employment rate has greatly increased in the last eight years and now stands "at an all-time high."

To join her brother's campaign, Mrs. Howard on Oct. 4 resigned her six - year State Department position as chief of liaison to non-governmental organizations and special projects branch in the office of the war on hunger.

REP. WAYNE L. Hays also spoke, concurring with Mrs. Howard's remarks on the county's above average employment record.

Guy Mauro was master of ceremonies and Mayor Dean Cranmer gave the welcoming address. Don R. Gosney, Columbiana County party chairman, was toastmaster.

James Aldom was presented the "Democrat of the Year" award for extraordinary effort in behalf of the party. County Auditor Kenneth Bell introduced local candidates.

Rev. Aloysius J. Rzendarski of St. Paul's Church gave the invocation and the benediction was given by the Rev. Daniel Keister of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

'Samaritan' Assessed Fines After Helpful Deed Misfires

A 43-year-old man who volunteered for the role of the "Good Samaritan" Wednesday night and towed another man's disabled auto wound up paying fines of $55 and costs today in Municipal Court today after his good deed misfired and his truck and the towed auto were involved in a crash on the Freeway.

James E. Hatcher of RD 1 was fined $25 and costs by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of reckles driving, $20 and costs on a charge of fictitious vehicle registration and $10 and costs on a charge of public intoxication.

Hatcher was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol after his panel truck struck the end of a bridge on the Freeway near State Route 170 and the convertible he was towing hit guardrails and a center divider.

Harold D. Johnston, 32, of 817 St. Clair Ave., who was steering the towed car, appeared as a witness in the charges against Hatcher. He told the court ruefully that his auto was a total loss as a result of the crash.

Johnson testified it all began when his car stalled as he was driving in the California Hollow section on Old Route 30 Wednesday night. He said he went into a tavern and asked if anyone had a "jumper cable" to help start his auto.

Hatcher volunteered to help, but the men then discovered the jumper would not work because the batteries in the two cars were of different voltages, Johnson said. Johnson said he asked for a push for his disabled car, but Hatcher produced a chain and hooked the two vehicles together to give Johnson a tow.

The two proceeded along old Route 30, then onto State Route 170 and finally headed toward East Liverpool on the Freeway, Johnson said. He said he attempted to signal Hatcher to halt, but his horn would not blow because the battery was dead. And the power brakes were inoperative because of the "dead" motor, he added.

As Hatcher proceeded on the Freeway, the truck began to weave, hitting the bridge, and the auto struck the guardrails and center divider, Johnson told the court.

The patrol reported Hatcher was not at the scene when officers arrived to investigate the crash. He appeared about 90 minutes later, the patrol said.

Hatcher told the court he backed his truck off the roadway and then went to a tavern to telephone a friend to help remove the vehicle. He said he had one bottle of beer and a part of another before the crash, but consumed several beers and shots of vodka when he returned to the tavern to use the telephone.

"You were trying to be a good fellow and you wound up in a mess," the judge told Hatcher.

County Will Have 9 Choices For Presidency In Balloting

Probably not one voter in 10,000 will realize it, but there will be a choice of nine possible candidates for the presidency of the United States in Tuesday's balloting.

In addition to the traditional Democratic and Republican tickets, the American Independent Party of George C. Wallace won a court fight to have its candidates' names printed on the ballots.

Along the way, the court fight upset Ohio's law that barred "splinter" parties and write-ins at general elections. As a result, the names of six additional presidential and vice presidential candidates have been cleared for write-in votes. Their political shading ranges from the far left to the far right.

PRINTED on the ballot, Ohio voters will find the Nixon-Agnew Republican team, the Humphrey - Muskie Democratic combination and the name of Wallace as the AIP candidate, linked with Marvin Griffin, former Georgia governor, as the candidate for vice president. Griffin was a "stand-in" candidate certified by Wallace before he had picked his running mate.

Wallace announced in early October that his vice-presidential choice was Curtis E. LeMay, retired Air Force general, but the announcement was made too late for LeMay's name to be printed on the ballot. As a result, it still shows the name of the "stand in."

Once the floodgates had been opened to write-in candidates, various "splinter" parties began filing lists of presidential electors with Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus.

A voter who wishes to support the candidates of one of the minor parties may write in the name of the candidate or candidates in the blank spot provided on the ballot. That will constitute a vote for the slate of electors listed with the secretary of state.

HERE ARE the other choices:

Earle Harold Munn Sr., for president, and Rolland Fisher, for vice president, on the Prohibition ticket.

Fred Halstead, for president, and Paul Boutelle, for vice president, on the Socialist Workers ticket.

Henning A. Blomen, for president, and George S. Taylor, for vice president, on the Socialist Labor ticket.

Slates of electors also have been filed on behalf of two teams of candidates without party labels.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, a one - time contender for the Democratic nomination for president, heads one ticket for write-in votes for the presidency. His vice - presidential running mate is Mrs. Coretta King, widow of the late Dr. Martin Luther King.

Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, is the presidential candidate on the other unnamed slate. His running mate is Mark Lane, a writer.

Brown has certified the lists of electors to the Election Board here and the 87 others throughout Ohio. He said the names of the candidates and their slates of electors must be posted in each polling place.

The court fight initiated by Wallace supporters means that for the first time in years there will be write-in spots on the Ohio ballot not only for president but for every other office which is at stake.

Previously write - in votes were permitted at a general election only if the number of offices to be filled exceeded the number of candidates. Thus, if one man sought a commissioner's seat and two posts were open, the Election Board provided a write-in spot.

Area Grange Enrolls Six

LISBON — Six were approved for membership and seven applications were received when Guilford Grange met Saturday night, with Mrs. Bernice Arter, master, presiding.

Enrolled were Miss Rebecca Falk, Robbert Monroe, Patricia Monroe, Carl Liber, Emma Liber and Libda Liber.

In other business, Emmet Caldwell resigned as treasurer and Mrs. Frank Murray was named to replace him. Mrs. Orvie Walton was appointed Sunshine chairman and a TB Christmas bond was purchased. Thirty attended.

Mrs. Harold Raley read a poem. Mrs. Walton gave a brief review of the two major political parties, Rudy Falk discussed State Issue 1 and Max Houlette the electoral college.

Mrs. Joe Mattevi reported on the recent Ohio rural health meeting she attended at Canfield.

Discussions also were held on the extension of telephone service between Lisbon, Winona and Hanoverton and on gas line extension.

Dates for future use of the grange hall were announced as follow:

Wednesday, Farm Bureau records; Nov. 10, Bowman school reunion; Nov. 12, Guilford Ruritan dinner, and Nov. 16, Ruritan public auction.

The bi-monthly officers' meeting will be held at the Yellow Creek Grange Nov. 11.

Refreshments were served by the women's activity committee.

The next meeting will be Dec. 2.

Exam Dates Set On Federal Jobs During Summer

Rep. Wayne L. Hays announced today that the Civil Service Commission will conduct an open competitive examination on four dates for summer employment with the government for next summer.

The exam dates are Dec. 7, Jan. 11, Feb. 8 and March 8. No application postmarked after Jan. 30, 1969, will be accepted, it was pointed out.

Each year there are a limited number of opportunities for summer jobs with federal agencies. Last year approximately 25,000 jobs were filled from a list of nearly 133,000 eligibles. More than three - fourths were typists and stenographer jobs, engineering and science aide jobs and clerk-carrier jobs with the Post Office Department. Agencies may begin making selections after the results of the second best have been processed so applicants must apply early.

Complete information about all summer job opportunities and application procedures may be found in the Civil Service Commission Announcement (414) "Summer Jobs In Federal Agencies." This issuance is available at college placement offices, meat post offices, inter-agency boards of examiners, the U.S. Civil Service Commission Offices or by writing to Rep. Hays at Room 2264, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington.

OPERATING ROOM of the Free University's new Medical Center in West Berlin is viewed through a window. The new clinical hospital is described as one of the most modern in Europe. It has 1,426 beds and a staff of 2,600, including 400 physicians and 900 nurses.

County Will Have 9 Choices For Presidency In Balloting

Probably not one voter in 10,000 will realize it, but there will be a choice of nine possible candidates for the presidency of the United States in Tuesday's balloting.

In addition to the traditional Democratic and Republican tickets, the American Independent Party of George C. Wallace won a court fight to have its candidates' names printed on the ballots.

Along the way, the court fight upset Ohio's law that barred "splinter" parties and write-ins at general elections. As a result, the names of six additional presidential and vice presidential candidates have been cleared for write-in votes. Their political shading ranges from the far left to the far right.

PRINTED on the ballot, Ohio voters will find the Nixon-Agnew Republican team, the Humphrey - Muskie Democratic combination and the name of Wallace as the AIP candidate, linked with Marvin Griffin, former Georgia governor, as the candidate for vice president. Griffin was a "stand-in" candidate certified by Wallace before he had picked his running mate.

Wallace announced in early October that his vice-presidential choice was Curtis E. LeMay, retired Air Force general, but the announcement was made too late for LeMay's name to be printed on the ballot. As a result, it still shows the name of the "stand in."

Once the floodgates had been opened to write-in candidates, various "splinter" parties began filing lists of presidential electors with Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus.

A voter who wishes to support the candidates of one of the minor parties may write in the name of the candidate or candidates in the blank spaces provided on the ballot. That will constitute a vote for the slate of electors listed with the secretary of state.

HERE ARE the other choices:

Earle Harold Munn Sr., for president, and Rolland Fisher, for vice president, on the Prohibition ticket.

Fred Halstead, for president, and Paul Boutelle, for vice president, on the Socialist Workers ticket.

Charlene Mitchell, for president, and Michael Zagarell, for vice president, on the Communist Party slate.

Henning A. Blomen, for president, and George S. Taylor, for vice president, on the Socialist Labor ticket.

Slates of electors also have been filed on behalf of two teams of candidates without party labels.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, a one - time contender for the Democratic nomination for president, heads one ticket for write-in votes for the presidency. His vice - presidential running mate is Mrs. Coretta King, wife of the late Dr. Martin Luther King.

Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, is the presidential candidate on the other unnamed slate. His running mate is Mark Lane, a writer.

Brown has certified the lists of electors to the Election Board here and the 87 others throughout Ohio. He said the names of the candidates and their slates of electors must be posted in each polling place.

The court fight initiated by Wallace supporters means that for the first time in years there will be write-in spots on the Ohio ballot not only for president but for every other office which is at stake.

Previously write - in votes were permitted at a general election only if the number of offices to be filled exceeded the number of candidates. Thus, if one man sought a commissioner's seat and two posts were open, the Election Board provided a write-in spot.

Area Grange Enrolls Six

LISBON — Six were approved for membership and seven applications were received when Guilford Grange met Saturday night, with Mrs. Bernice Arter, master, presiding.

Enrolled were Miss Rebecca Falk, Robbert Monroe, Patricia Monroe, Carl Liber, Emma Liber and Libda Liber.

In other business, Emmet Caldwell resigned as treasurer and Mrs. Frank Murray was named to replace him. Mrs. Orvie Walton was appointed Sunshine chairman and a Thanksgiving Christmas bond was purchased. Thirty attended.

Mrs. Harold Raley read a poem. Mrs. Walton gave a brief review of the two major political parties, Rudy Falk discussed State Issue 1 and Max Houlette the electoral college.

Mrs. Joe Mattevi reported on the recent Ohio rural health meeting she attended at Canfield.

Discussions also were held on the extension of telephone service between Lisbon, Winona and Hanoverton and on gas line extension.

Dates for future use of the grange hall were announced as follow:

Wednesday, Farm Bureau records; Nov. 10, Bowman school reunion; Nov. 12, Guilford Ruritan dinner, and Nov. 16, Ruritan public auction.

The bi-monthly officers' meeting will be held at the Yellow Creek Grange Nov. 11.

Refreshments were served by the women's activity committee.

The next meeting will be Dec.

Exam Dates Set On Federal Jobs During Summer

Rep. Wayne L. Hays announced today that the Civil Service Commission will conduct an open competitive examination on four dates for summer employment with the government for next summer.

The exam dates are Dec. 7, Jan. 11, Feb. 8 and March 8. No application postmarked after Jan. 30, 1969, will be accepted, it was pointed out.

Each year there are a limited number of opportunities for summer jobs with federal agencies. Last year approximately 25,000 jobs were filled from a list of nearly 133,000 eligibles. More than three - fourths were typists and stenographer jobs, engineering and science aide jobs and clerk-carrier jobs with the Post Office Department. Agencies may begin making selections after the results of the second best have been processed so applicants must apply early.

Complete information about all summer job opportunities and application procedures may be found in the Civil Service Commission Announcement (414) "Summer Jobs In Federal Agencies." This announce is available at college placement offices, most post offices, inter-agency boards of examiners, the U.S. Civil Service Commission Offices or by writing to Rep. Hays at Room 2264, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington.

Andrea Del Sarto's famous painting, "Madonna of the Harpies," takes its name from the six figures, called harpies, which adorn the corners of the pedestal.

Floors Need Proper Care

Wood floors are the pride and joy of many a home.

But when they start to suffer from marks, stains, worn spots, cracks and splits they lose their beauty. Since wood floors are so easy to repair, it doesn't pay to allow them to deteriorate.

Marks made by rubber heels, casters and similar items and which do not respond to simple wiping-up can be removed by a brisk rubbing with a cloth moistened with turpentine or some other solvent.

The earlier you get to the job, the less effort and the less solvent you will have to use.

THIS treatment may remove some of the finish but it is easy to restore. Smooth the area by rubbing with steel wool and then coat the spot with clear shellac. Finish with varnish if that is the way the rest oft he floor is finished.

Finish the job by waxing the floor.

Marks that go deep, such as cigarette burns or deep dents, are a little more work to clear up. Scrape the mark out with a chisel or knife, then fill with plastic wood. Use one to match the old wood. Once it is dried, sand it and wax it.

Some discolorations soak through the finish and into the wood itself. When this happens you will have to remove the wax and old finish. Once down to the bare wood, bleach the stain. Use a commercial bleach available in paint stores and follow instructions explicitly.

With the stain bleached out, refinish with several thin coats of shellac or varnish.

Cracks often develop along the grain of floor boards. A little glue and sawdust make a good filler. Scrape out the cracks and clean thoroughly of any grease and dirt. Fill, allow to dry, sand and finish.

THE BOARDS in new floors sometimes shrink and separate. This is caused by using either green or wet wood, which then shrinks as it dries out. Fill the openings with plastic wood, wood putty or glue and sawdust.

Occasionally there will be a section of flooring that will need replacing because it is rotted or damaged.

Cut a new section of floor board to fit the damaged area. Cut out the old by drilling holes at the corners and chiseling out. Since the new floor board is grooved it will be difficult to fit from above. Plane off the underside of the groove and fit in place.

Tap in place for a good fit, using a wood block between the floor and the hammer to avoid marring.

Drill pilot holes for the nails, making the holes slightly smaller than the nails. Nail at all four corners and countersink the nail heads.

Before nailing, if the new wood seems too high and tapping in place doesn't make it flush, plane it down. Refinish to match the rest of the floor, using stain if necessary before applying shellac or varnish.

Wall Preparation Needed Prior To Papering Project

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

Wallpaper will not hide deep cracks or large defects in the plaster. When a wall is to be papered, the surface to be covered must be prepared carefully or the job will not be satisfactory.

As a rule, large cracks should be filled with patching plaster or with spackle. This should be allowed to dry and then should be shellacked. If the wall is made of sheet rock or another type of wallboard and the seams are very obvious, they must be taped and the tape edges sanded down to a feather edge.

In many cases the wall is not only cracked and uneven but also has rough areas which cannot easily be smoothed out. The answer to this problem is to first use a lining paper. This is a heavy, plain, thick paper made to use over a defective surface and to furnish a backing for the wallpaper itself. It is pasted up in the same manner as the wallpaper.

Lining paper has another and important servie to offer. There are times when wallpaper is used but the home owner intends to remove it at a later date and paint the wall. If lining paper is used under the wallpaper, it will be far easier to remove both from the wall when the time for painting arrives. This is because the lining is quite soft as well as quick and, therefore, readily absorbs water and will peel nicely.

In doing fine work years ago, paperhangers frequently used linen under the wallpaper. The lining paper is a fair substitute, but naturally not as good as the linen.

Hammer Handle's Replacing Calls For Certain Technique

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Replacing the broken wooden handle of a hammer is not too difficult job. But if it isn't done properly, it can destroy the original tool and, even more important, be an accident hazard.

Even though the old handle may be in bad shape, perhaps completely split, it is sometimes difficult to remove the unbroken portion from the hammer head.

When this is the case, use a twist drill to remove as much of the wood as possible. The remaining pieces of wood then can be pried out without much trouble.

In selecting a replacement handle, try to get one as close to the size and weight of the original as possible.

Taking all or some of the handle with you when making the purchase will help you to do this. In looking at new handles, you will note that the edge grain runs from top to bottom. But occasionally, you'll find one handle which has the grain running from one side to the other. Avoid it.

The end of the handle — the part that fits into the hammer head — usually is larger than required.

Using a wood rasp, take a tiny bit of wood from one side and the same amount from the other. Test for fit. Use the rasp again. Test. And so on. The idea is (1) not to take off so much wood, since the handle must fit very tightly, and (2) not to take off more wood from one side than the other.

Once the handle end seems likely to fit into the hammer head, hold the latter with one hand and, with the other, rap the bottom end of the handle with your palm.

When the connection is fairly secure, hit the bottom end of the handle against a solid surface until the head is in place. If it doesn't fit without too much banging, you haven't taken off enough wood.

No matter how tightly the handle appears to be set, you can't take the chance that the head may come flying off when you're using the hammer.

The task of sawing slots into the top end of the handle can be avoided if you use metal wedges, which can be purchased at most hardware stores.

The football took some funny bounces over the weekend.

Or maybe it just seemed that way from watching Indiana-Wisconsin on TV while switching between Penn State-Army and Ohio State-Michigan State on the radio Saturday and switching between the Steelers-Falcons and Jets-Bills and then Browns-49ers and Chiefs-Raiders yesterday.

Probably the most surprising game was the Steeler victory. The win itself was not so much of a surprise as was the ease with which it was achieved. All season long the breaks have been going against the Steelers, but yesterday in Atlanta, the breaks all went in favor of Pittsburgh and the long-suffering Steelers almost blew Atlanta out of the stadium. Dick Shiner and Roy Jefferson combined on some excellent pass plays, and the ball just kept bouncing the right way so that the Steelers were on top of almost every fumble and made almost every possible interception.

THE BROWNS, after a shaky start, bounced back to thrash a good 49er club. The Raiders, baffled by Kansas City two weeks ago when the Chiefs won despite trying only three passes (shades of Beaver Local!), came back with a vengeance to scramble the AFL West again. The Jets, burned by a punt return, an interception return and a long pass, prevailed on the record breaking six field goals of Jim Turner.

Michigan State, which got all the breaks against Notre Dame a week ago, could get none against the Buckeyes Saturday, and did well to lose by only five points while being outgained by 160 yards and losing the ball seven times on fumbles and interceptions. Woody Hayes discovered that he has not one, but two outstanding sophomore quarterbacks, as Ron Maciejowski did an excellent job leading OSU after Rex Kern was injured. And someone said Ohio State has a freshman quarterback who is supposed to start next season.

Penn State always seems to have trouble with Army, and Saturday was no exception. It took a fumble by Army of an attempted field goal and a touchdown return of an on-side kick by All-American end Ted Kwalick to get the Nittany Lions past the Cadets.

Indiana kept trying to give its game to Wisconsin, which hasn't won since 1966, by fumbling six times, but the Badgers need a field goal kicker even worse than Ohio State. Wisconsin missed six three-pointers in the 21-0 loss, including two in a frantic final 90 seconds.

THE TARTANTURF in Wisconsin's stadium was quite a contrast to East Liverpool's Patterson Field.

Weed killer used before the season started also killed quite a bit of grass, and the frolic in the mud against Martins Ferry two weeks ago did in all the grass between the in-bounds markers. The field is in sorry shape, especially compared with last season, when it was in good condition throughout.

Long Returns Help Beavers

MIDLAND—Western Beaver closed its 1968 football season with a 21-13 win over Wellsville here Saturday night.

The Golden Beavers were outgained 267-246, but made use of a long kickoff return and a long punt return to set up scores. Wellsville led 6-0 at halftime but Western came to life in the second half to win its third against six losses. Wellsville is 1-8 and closes its season Friday at Salem.

The Tigers stuck to the ground until the last period, when they tried no running plays and hit 6 of 12 passes, good for a touchdown that narrowed the gap to 14-13. But Western drove right back for an insurance touchdown with 1:25 left to sew up the game.

John Stephens did all Wellsville's passing, with Rick Ross his favorite target. Ross caught five of the 10 completions. John Weeda gained 77 yards in 11 carries, including a 23-yard touchdown run in the first period, to pace all rushers.

Western Beaver stuck mainly to the ground, with John Tennerelli gaining 66 yards on 16 carries, Stephen Elko 52 on 11 and Howard Guthrie 47 on 13.

Both teams were able to move fairly easily in their own territory. Western never was forced to punt and Wellsville had to punt only twice.

The Tigers opened the game by moving from their own 37 to the Western 17, where a clipping penalty set them back and they lost the ball on downs. Western drove to the Wellsville 34, where the attack stalled. Wellsville then went 66 yards in 10 plays, to score with Weeda going over right tackle at the 23, breaking a tackle on the 15 and cutting back into the end zone to make it 6-0 with 35 seconds left in the first period.

Western, sticking to the ground, took the kickoff and drove down to the Wellsville 12. Tennerelli got off a good run, but fumbled at the 2, with Herb Choina recovering for the Tigers. Wellsville was forced to punt and Western came right back, but John Petchel's pass from the 19 was tipped up and Darrell Nightengale grabbed it on the 8. Nightengale made a great broken field return, was never in the clear, and finally was stopped on the Western 29. A clipping penalty set the ball back to the 44. Stephens hit Ross on the 20, but the half ended.

Possibly the key play of the game was the return of the second half kickoff. Petchel took Ray Skianni's pass on the nine, appeared to be trapped on the 25, but turned on the speed, cut down the east sideline and got all the way to the Wellsville 36 before Choina knocked him out of bounds.

Again sticking to the ground, the Golden Beavers scored in 10 plays, with Guthrie going right and Elko left on alternate plays, except for a fourth down sneak by Petchel at the 16 and one short run by Tennerelli. Elko went over from the three and Guthrie ran for the conversion to make it 7-6 with 7:15 left in the third period.

Wellsville drove from its own 39 to the Western 23, where Carl Thomas was stopped on a fourth - and - one play. Guthrie turned right end for 19 and Tennerelli drove for seven to put the ball on the Golden Beaver 49. Here Mike Hornick's team tried the "flea-flicker", a triple reverse with quarterback Petchle ending up with the ball for a pass. Brother Bob Petchel was in the clear, but the pass was overthrown, giving Nightengale time to get to Petchel and wrestle the ball away from him for another interception at the Wellsville 20. Wellsville couldn't move, and on the last play of the period Paul Martin punted to the Western Beaver 40. Tennerelli returned the kick 23 yards to the Wellville 37, and the Golden Beavers were in good position to begin the final period.

It took 12 plays and 5:45 to score. John Petchel hit Tennerelli on a nine - yard screen pass to the 26 on fourth-and-eight, and on the 11 Elko went 10 yards to set up a TD plunge by Tennerelli. Guthrie again ran for the conversion to make it 14-6.

Sticking strictly to the air, Stephens moved the Tigers 66 yards to score in 10 plays afer the kickoff. A big play was a 24-yard pass to Martin on fourth - and - ten at the Wellsville 48. There was 4:10 left when Ross scored and Jeff Wellington got the conversion, both on passes, to make it 14-13.

Western Beaver was not to be denied, and came back to clinch the win as the John-to-Bob Petchel combination clicked on a 39-yard TD pass and Guthrie's third conversion made it 21-13. Thorning Little intercepted a Stephens pass to blunt a final Wellsville drive.

Oak Glen Loses 9th, 26-14 To Weirton

WEIRTON — Oak Glen gave the heavily favored Weirton Red Riders a tough battle but succumbed 26-14 here Saturday afternoon.

The loss was the ninth straight for Alan Hoover's Golden Bears, while Weirton, ranked fourth in the state, is 8-1.

Ron Smith was the big gun for the Riders, passing for two scores and running for another. Ken Truax was Smith's target on the TD throws. Charles Gibson scored the other tally when he picked off a Craig Whittington fumble and ran 54 yards with it.

Whittington and Dan Foltz scored for the Bears on short runs and Don Mitchell added the conversions.

The first Oak Glen score was set up when Gerald Gray blocked a punt and Bob Coleman ran the loose ball to the 2. This gave Oak Glen a 7-6 lead, but Weirton took the lead for good with 34 seconds left in the first half when Smith's pass to Truax capped a long drive.

Foltz fumbled the second-half kickoff on the 23 and Weirton scored on the second play on another Smith to Truax aerial. Gibson's tally put the game out of reach.

The last Oak Glen score was set up when Gary Masters ran a fumble 55 yards before being caught at the Rider five.

Steve Staley led the Bears rushers with 34 yards in three carries. Terry Boyd added 31 yards in 11 tries.

Oak Glen closes its season Friday by hosting John Marshall.

Bears Nip Packers; Steelers Win

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mac Percival booted a 43-yard field goal on a rarely-invoked free kick with 26 seconds to play Sunday, giving the Chicago Bears a 13-10 victory over the struggling Green Bay Packers.

The NFL champs, who had spent most of the afternoon chasing Gale Sayers up and down Lambeau Field, stood by helplessly as Percival kicked the winning three-pointer after Chicago Coach Vince Dooley went for the free kick option.

An NFL rule permits a free kick, punt or placement, without opposition after one team makes a fair catch of a punt. So, when Cecil Turner fielded Donny Anderson's short punt on the Green Bay 43, Dooley called the shot—and Percival delivered.

"It's my second biggest thrill," said Percival, whose toe has helped the Bears reel off three straight victories and climb back into contention for the Central Division title. "Last week was the biggest."

The 28-year-old kicking specialist booted a 47-yard field goal with three seconds remaining the previous Sunday to beat Minnesota 26-24. "That was the first time I had ever won a game for the Bears," he said.

Chicago, 4-4, is tied for the Central lead with the Vikings, who whipped Washington 27-14 Sunday. The Packers and the Detroit Lions, who bowed to Los Angeles 10-7, are one half game back at 3-4-1.

Baltimore battered the New York Giants 26-0, Dallas trimmed New Orleans 17-3, Cleveland topped San Francisco 33-21, St. Louis trounced Philadelphia 45-17 and Pittsburgh drubbed Atlanta 41-21 in other games.

Sayers ran through the Packers for 205 yards—his biggest ground-gaining binge as a pro, but he almost wore goat horns after fumbling on the Chicago 39 midway in the final quarter with the game tied 10-10.

Packer defensive back Herb Adderley grabbed the ball and raced to the 14, but the Bears held and Chuck Mercein's field goal attempt sailed wide.

Minutes later, Percival was on target with his 11th field goal in 12 attempts in the Bears' last three games. He kicked a 10-yarder in the second period for a string of 10 without a miss, but had another three-point bid blocked by Lee Roy Caffey early in the fourth period.

Rookie Charlie West returned a punt 98 yards for a touchdown—tying the 35-year-old NFL record set by Gil LeFevre of Cincinnati—and Joe Kapp tossed two scoring passes to Gene Washington, leading Minnesota past the Redskins.

The Rams, stunned by Lem Barney's 98-yard touchdown bolt with the opening kickoff, blanked Detroit the rest of the way while Roman Gabriel passed 36 yards to Willie Ellison for the go-ahead score and Bruce Gossett kicked a 37-yard field goal.

The victory kept Los Angeles, 8-1, in a tie for the Coastal Division lead with the Colts, who handed New York its fir stshu-t out loss in 76 games. Earl Morrall fired a pair of touchdown passes against his former Giant teammates and Lou Michaels kicked two field goals.

Pittsburgh's Roy Jefferson became the first NFL player in five years to catch four touchdown passes in one game, scoring on play scovering 27, 61, 9 and 38 yards, to flatten Atlanta. The Steeler end finished with 11 receptions for 199 yards.

The NFL champs, who had spent most of the afternoon chasing Gale Sayers up and down Lambeau Field, stood by helplessly as Percival kicked the winning three-pointer after Chicago Coach Vince Dooley went for the free kick option.

An NFL rule permits a free kick, punt or placement, without opposition after one team makes a fair catch of a punt. So, when Cecil Turner fielded Donny Anderson's short punt on the Green Bay 43, Dooley called the shot—and Percival delivered.

"It's my second biggest thrill," said Percival, whose toe has helped the Bears reel off three straight victories and climb back into contention for the Central Division title. "Last week was the biggest."

The 28-year-old kicking specialist booted a 47-yard field goal with three seconds remaining the previous Sunday to beat Minnesota 26-24. "That was the first time I had ever won a game for the Bears," he said.

Chicago, 4-4, is tied for the Central lead with the Vikings, who whipped Washington 27-14 Sunday. The Packers and the Detroit Lions, who bowed to Los Angeles 10-7, are one half game back at 3-4-1.

Baltimore battered the New York Giants 26-0, Dallas trimmed New Orleans 17-3, Cleveland topped San Francisco 33-21, St. Louis trounced Philadelphia 45-17 and Pittsburgh drubbed Atlanta 41-21 in other games.

Sayers ran through the Packers for 205 yards—his biggest ground-gaining binge as a pro, but he almost wore goat horns after fumbling on the Chicago 39 midway in the final quarter with the game tied 10-10.

Packer defensive back Herb Adderley grabbed the ball and raced to the 14, but the Bears held and Chuck Mercein's field goal attempt sailed wide.

Minutes later, Percival was on target with his 11th field goal in 12 attempts in the Bears' last three games. He kicked a 10-yarder in the second period for a string of 10 without a miss, but had another three-point bid blocked by Lee Roy Caffey early in the fourth period.

Rookie Charlie West returned a punt 98 yards for a touchdown—tying the 35-year-old NFL record set by Gil LeFevre of Cincinnati—and Joe Kapp tossed two scoring passes to Gene Washington, leading Minnesota past the Redskins.

The Rams, stunned by Lem Barney's 98-yard touchdown bolt with the opening kickoff, blanked Detroit the rest of the way while Roman Gabriel passed 36 yards to Willie Ellison for the go-ahead score and Bruce Gossett kicked a 37-yard field goal.

The victory kept Los Angeles, 8-1, in a tie for the Coastal Division lead with the Colts, who handed New York its fir stshu-t out loss in 76 games. Earl Morrall fired a pair of touchdown passes against his former Giant teammates and Lou Michaels kicked two field goals.

Pittsburgh's Roy Jefferson became the first NFL player in five years to catch four touchdown passes in one game, scoring on play scovering 27, 61, 9 and 38 yards, to flatten Atlanta. The Steeler end finished with 11 receptions for 199 yards.

Oak Glen Loses 9th, 26-14 To Weirton

WEIRTON — Oak Glen gave the heavily favored Weirton Red Riders a tough battle but succumbed 26-14 here Saturday afternoon.

The loss was the ninth straight for Alan Hoover's Golden Bears, while Weirton, ranked fourth in the state, is 8-1.

Ron Smith was the big gun for the Riders, passing for two scores and running for another. Ken Truax was Smith's target on the TD throws. Charles Gibson scored the other tally when he picked off a Craig Whittington fumble and ran 54 yards with it.

Whittington and Dan Foltz scored for the Bears on short runs and Don Mitchell added the conversions.

The first Oak Glen score was set up when Gerald Gray blocked a punt and Bob Coleman ran the loose ball to the 2. This gave Oak Glen a 7-6 lead, but Weirton took the lead for good with 34 seconds left in the first half when Smith's pass to Truax capped a long drive.

Foltz fumbled the second-half kickoff on the 23 and Weirton scored on the second play on another Smith to Truax aerial. Gibson's tally put the game out of reach.

The last Oak Glen score was set up when Gary Masters ran a fumble 55 yards before being caught at the Rider five.

Steve Staley led the Bears rushers with 34 yards in three carries. Terry Boyd added 31 yards in 11 tries.

Oak Glen closes its season Friday by hosting John Marshall.

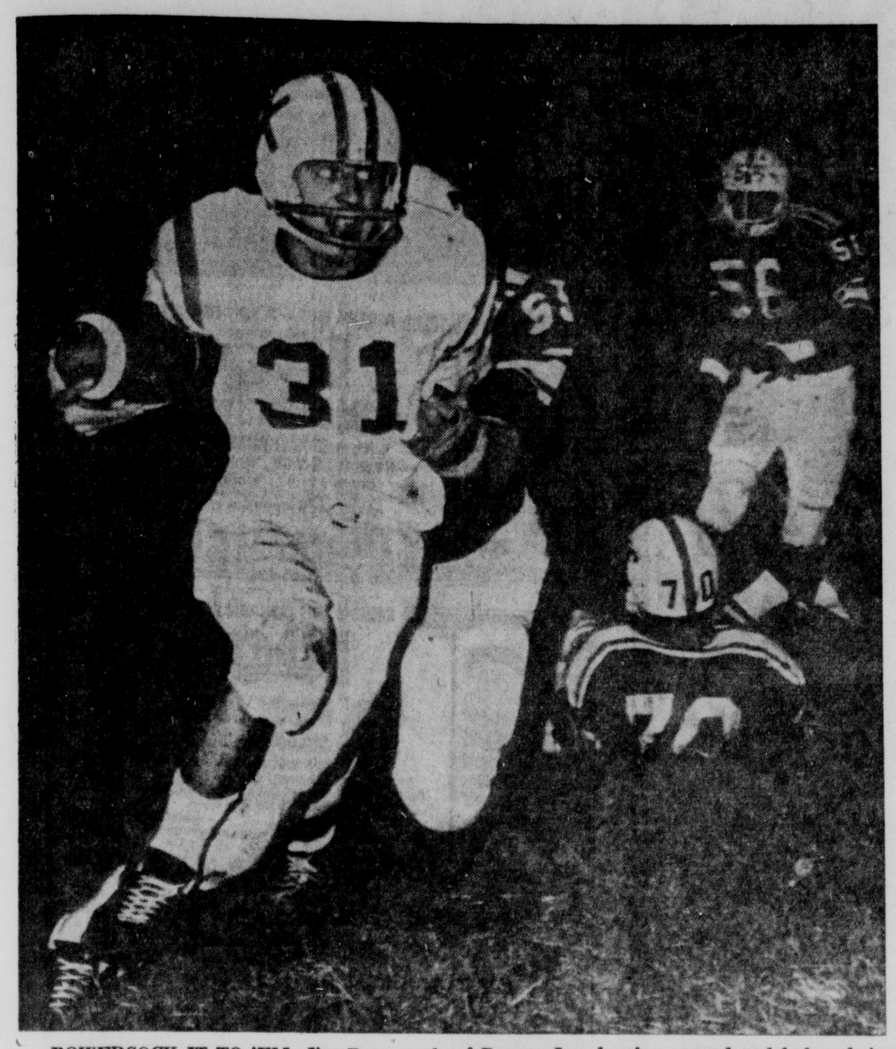
Beavers Down Toronto 12-0, Stay Unbeaten In League



BOWERSOCK IT TO 'EM. Jim Bowersock of Beaver Local gains around end before being pulled down by Bill Wickham of Toronto. Other Knights are Danny Baker (70) and Joe Obertance (56). Bowersock did all the scoring in Beaver Local's 12-0 win Saturday night.

Jim Bowersock Scores Twice

Beaver Local concluded its home football season with a 12-0 win over Toronto Saturday night, setting up a battle for the Buckeye Border Conference title at Jefferson Union Friday night.

The Beavers are a 3-0 in league play and 5-4 overall. JU is 4-0 in league play and 7-2 overall. A win or tie would give the Yellowjackets the crown, while a Beaver Local win would give the Beavers the title won by Toronto last season.

Jim Bowersock was the big gun for the Beavers, scoring both TDs and gaining 176 yards in 21 carries. Bruce Diddle gained 70 yards in 10 carries. Bowersock' scores came late in the opening period and early in the final quarter, both times capping drives that started about midfield following Toronto punts.

The Beaver Local defense, led by backs Diddle and Dave Doak, linebackers Lew Brown and Scott Dubberly and end Rick Palmer, caught Red Knight quarterback Jeff Jones seven times for long losses. Half the time the Knights used a shotgun formation, but couldn't hold out the hard-charging Beavers.

The shutout was the fourth of the season for the Beaver defense. Toronto never penetrated the Beaver 20.

Beaver Local stuck completely to the ground, attempting no passes. The offense was mainly Diddle up the middle and Bowersock around end.

The loss was the eighth in nine starts for Toronto, continuing a series of black days for the Red Knights.

Raiders Trounce Chiefs, Tighten AFL West Race

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Kansas City Chiefs, who made a big run at the American Football League's Western Division title two weeks ago, now find the Oakland Raiders making a serious pass at it.

It was two weeks ago that the Chefs, using a tight T formation and throwing only three passes, ground under the defending AFL champion Raiders and took the division lead.

With their backs against the wall—a loss would have put them two games behind Kansas City—the Raiders took to the air gaainst a more balanced Chiefs' attack and cruised to a 38-21 victory last Sunday to all but even the race.

Daryl Lamonica was their passing fancy, connecting on 18 of 32 throws for a whopping 352 yards and two touchdown when Oakland's running attack ground to a halt.

San Diego also reled on a game of pitch and catch for a last quarter 34-28 victory over Miami to keep up with Oakland.

The Raiders and Chargers are 6-2 behind Kansas City's 7-2.

In the Eastern Division, Jim Turner put a kick in the New York Jets' runaway hopes by booting a record-tying six field goals—the last two in the final 3½ minutes—for a 25-21 decision over Buffalo.

The victory maintained the Jets' 2½ game lead over Houston, which whipped Cincinnati 27-17, and three game bulge over Boston, a 35-14 victim of Denver in the other game.

With it running game only able to produce 70 yards, Oakland stuck with Lamonica before he left with an injured knee in the third quarter. He threw for 297 yards in the first half, including a 29-yard scoring pass to Warren Wells to open the scoring.

His passing then set up 24 points in the decisive second quarter or a 31-7 halftime lead. A 29-yarder to Wells and a 41-yard toss to Hewritt Dixon set up two short scorng runs by Pete Banaszak and an 82-yard pas play to Fred Biletnikoff set up a George Blanda field goal.

Lamonica ran four yards for another core and then passed 17 yards to Billy Cannon for the finale in the third quarter.

SSan Diego had its hands full aganst the Dolphin and trailed 21-17 until Lance Alworth latched onto scoring passse of 23 yards from Jim Allison and three yards from John Hadl.

A field goal made it 34-21 before Bob Griese threw his third touchdown pass for Miam in the final minute.

Johnny Sample gave the struggling Jets their only touchdown by sprinting 36 yards with an intercepted pass for a 10-7 lead. From then on they relied on Turner to overcome Kay Stephenson's two scoring passes and an 82-yard punt return by Hagood Clarke.

Turner, whose eight field goal attempts—he missed his first two—also tied a rceord, hit from 32 yards twice, 27 twice, nine yards and three as the Jets raied their record to 6-2.

Campbell Ties Pierce For Grid Yogi Lead

Chuck Campbell moved into a tie with Turk Pierce for the lead in the Review Grid Yogi race with one week left.

Campbell posted a 7-2 mark, as did Ed Clutter, while Pierce was 6-3. There was one tie game, Georgia and Houston, 10-10. Pete Weaver, who was the consensus this week, had the best record, 8-1, and moved into a four - way tie for third with Bob Duffy, Bob Shaffer and Rose Nuzzo. The quartet is four games behind the leaders and must be rated long shots to win the title. Duffy and Shaffer went 6-3 for the week and Nuzzo 5-4.

Weaver and the consensus tripped on only Southern Local, a 22-6 loser to United Local. Campbell also missed on the Chiefs, a 38-21 loser to the Raiders, while Clutter also missed on Wellsville, a 21-13 loser to Western Beaver.

Pierce fell with Southern, Wellsville and Lisbon, a 27-21 loser to Columbiana. Duffy missed on Southern, Lisbon and Michigan St., a 25-20 loser to Ohio St. Shaffer missed on Southern, Wellsville and the Chiefs. Nuzzo was the only Yogi to get United Local, but fell with Toronto, a 12-0 loser to Beaver Local, as well as Lisbon, Michigan State and the Chiefs.

Everyone was right on East Liverpool, a 24-13 winner over Bellaire St. John's; Weirton, a 26-14 winner over Oak Glen; and Midland, a 26-14 winner over Freedom.

Francis, Cunningham Score

Glenmoor Tops Vikings 12-0 For Bill Booth Title

Glenmoor won the championship of the Bill Booth football little league by downing Dixonville 12-0 at Patterson Field Saturday night.

Kevin Francis scored on a 31-yard run and Gary Cunningham on a 12-yard run. Cunningham gained 100 yards in 12 carries and Francis 72 yards in 12 carries.

Dixonville drove to the four-yard line just before halftime, but couldn't score. The passing of Kim Kuczerski featured the Dixonville attack. Glenmoor led in first downs 11-9.

League President Ray Rigdon presented the Bill Booth Bowl trophy to Glenmoor. St. Al's won the cheerleading championship, with Glenmoor second.

Flyers Surprise Montreal

Penguins Split On Coast; Rangers Continue To Win

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Rangers continue to fatten up on expansion opposition but the new teams are a bitter pill for other National Hockey League clubs to swallow.

New York nipped Minnesota 2-1 Sunday night for its seventh straight victory over the West Division this year. But Philadelphia stung Montreal 3-2, completing a weekend sweep of the older East Division for the expansionist Flyers, and St. Louis rallied for a 4-4 tie against Detroit.

In Sunday's other games, Boston whipped Chicago 5-3 and Pittsburgh downed Oakland 3-1.

Saturday night, it was Philadelphia 3, Toronto 2; Minnesota 2-0 over St. Lous, Montreal 2-1 over Detroit and Los Angeles 3, Pittsburgh 2.

All of the Ranger victories this season have come against the NHL's newer teams and all three New York losses against the older clubs.

The Rangers shelled ex-teammate Cesare Maniago with 43 shots but only two got by him. Those were 71 seconds apart in the first period by Bob Nevin and Dave Balon. Danny Grant scored for Minnesota.

Camille Henry scored three goals—two of them 19 seconds apart in the third period—to earn St. Louis its tie with Detroit. Henry's seventh career hat trick erased a 4-2 Detroit lead wis his second goal.

The Flyers stunned Montreal on a 75-foot shot by Jim Johnson that broke a 2-2 tie in the third period. The Canadiens, who had lost just once in their first nine starts, were pressuring Philadelphia goalie Bernie Parent when Johnson broke out of the jam with the puck and lofted his shot at goalie Rogatien Vachon.

Vachon caught the long hot, then dropped it and it trickled over the line for the winning goal.

Orr's second period goal was followed by scores by Eddie Westfall, Gary Doak and Glen Sather against Chicago's Dave Dryden.

Southern Cal Nips Oregon; Georgia, California Tied

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California continues on course to Pasadena and the Rose Bowl. The itinerary thankfully doesn't include Oregon.

All that prevented the top-ranked Trojan express from becoming derailed Saturday was a key pass interference call that set up Steve Sogge's three-yard touchdown pass to Bob Klein with 1:13 left for a 20-13 victory over underdog Oregon.

The Webfoots limited O.J. Simpson to 67 yards, including a one-yard touchdown run. But Sogge took up the slack with two scoring passes, hitting Jim Lawrence with a nine-yarder in the first period.

"I think I'll stay away from Oregon from now on," Simpson said. "Nothing good has happened for two years now."

Last season, Oregon State handed Southern Cal its only setback, a 3-0 loss at Corvallis.

Many of the nation's Top Twenty college football teams had their problmes. Second-ranked Ohio State held off No. 16 Michigan State 25-20, third-ranked Kansas downed Colorado 27-14 and No. 4 Penn State squeaked by Army 28-24.

Tennessee, No. 5, rolled past UCLA 42-18 and sixth-ranked Purdue walloped Illinois 35-17. But seventh-rated Georgia was held to a 10-10 tie with No. 15 Houston and eighth-ranked California fumbled its way to a 7-7 deadlock with Washington.

Rounding out the Top Ten, Michigan, ranked ninth, crushed Northwestern 35-0 and No. 10 Missouri clobbered Oklahoma State 42-7.

The next 10 teams were not so fortunate, although No. 11 Texas plastered Southern Methodist, No. 13, 38-7 and 12th-ranked Notre Dame thrashed Navy 45-14.

But 14th-ranked Louisiana State fell to Mississippi 27-24, No. 17 Arkansas nipped Texas A&M 25-22, 18th-rated Florida State lost to Virginia Tech 40-22, Ohio University, ranked 19th, outlasted Western Michigan 34-27 and Florida, No. 20, bowed to Auburn 24-13.

Ohio State took a 19-7 halftime lead but needed two late fumble recoveries to hold off Michigan State. Sophomore quarterback Rex Kern suffered a severe ankle sprain and may miss next Saturday's game with Wisconsin.

Kansas used the 162-yard, two-touchdown running of John Riggins and Bill Bell's two field goals to get by Colorado. Penn State took advantage of Army's mistakes, including a field goal attempt which the Cadets failed to cover, for a hard-fought triumph. Tight end Ted Kwalick sealed the victory by running 53 yards with an onside kickoff in the fourth period.

Tennessee rode Bubba Wyche's passing pat UCLA, and Perry Williams and Leroy Keyes both broke Purdue's career rushing record in the Boilermakers' win over Illinois. A 224-yard peformance by Houston fullback Paul Gipson was offset by a 38-yard game-tying field goal by Georgia's Jim McCullough with 12 seconds left.

California was about to beat Wahington but Randy Humphries fumbled on the Huskies' one-yard line in the late going and the Golden Bears had to settle for a tie. Michigan and Missouri had little trouble in their victories.

South Carolina's Tommy Suggs threw five touchdown passes against Virginia and Steve Ramsey of North Texas State did the same against Cincinnati. Larry Lawrence set an Iowa record by scoring four times against Minnesota.

Beavers Down Toronto 12-0, Stay Unbeaten In League

BOWERSOCK IT TO 'EM. Jim Bowersock of Beaver Local gains around end before being pulled down by Bill Wickham of Toronto. Other Knights are Danny Baker (70) and Joe Obertance (56). Bowersock did all the scoring in Beaver Local's 12-0 win Saturday night.

Jim Bowersock Scores Twice

Beaver Local concluded its home football season with a 12-0 win over Toronto Saturday night, setting up a battle for the Buckeye Border Conference title at Jefferson Union Friday night.

The Beavers are a 3-0 in league play and 5-4 overall. JU is 4-0 in league play and 7-2 overall. A win or tie would give the Yellowjackets the crown, while a Beaver Local win would give the Beavers the title won by Toronto last season.

Jim Bowersock was the big gun for the Beavers, scoring both TDs and gaining 176 yards in 21 carries. Bruce Diddle gained 70 yards in 10 carries. Bowersock' scores came late in the opening period and early in the final quarter, both times capping drives that started about midfield following Toronto punts.

The Beaver Local defense, led by backs Diddle and Dave Doak, linebackers Lew Brown and Scott Dubberly and end Rick Palmer, caught Red Knight quarterback Jeff Jones seven times for long losses. Half the time the Knights used a shotgun formation, but couldn't hold out the hard-charging Beavers.

The shutout was the fourth of the season for the Beaver defense. Toronto never penetrated the Beaver 20.

Beaver Local stuck completely to the ground, attempting no passes. The offense was mainly Diddle up the middle and Bowersock around end.

The loss was the eighth in nine starts for Toronto, continuing a series of black days for the Red Knights.

Raiders Trounce Chiefs, Tighten AFL West Race

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Kansas City Chiefs, who made a big run at the American Football League's Western Division title two weeks ago, now find the Oakland Raiders making a serious pass at it.

It was two weeks ago that the Chefs, using a tight T formation and throwing only three passes, ground under the defending AFL champion Raiders and took the division lead.

With their backs against the wall—a loss would have put them two games behind Kansas City—the Raiders took to the air gaainst a more balanced Chiefs' attack and cruised to a 38-21 victory last Sunday to all but even the race.

Daryl Lamonica was their passing fancy, connecting on 18 of 32 throws for a whopping 352 yards and two touchdown when Oakland's running attack ground to a halt.

San Diego also reled on a game of pitch and catch for a last quarter 34-28 victory over Miami to keep up with Oakland.

The Raiders and Chargers are 6-2 behind Kansas City's 7-2.

In the Eastern Division, Jim Turner put a kick in the New York Jets' runaway hopes by booting a record-tying six field goals—the last two in the final 3½ minutes—for a 25-21 decision over Buffalo.

The victory maintained the Jets' 2½ game lead over Houston, which whipped Cincinnati 27-17, and three game bulge over Boston, a 35-14 victim of Denver in the other gam.e

With it running gam e only able to produce 70 yards, Oakland stuck with Lamonica before he left with an injured knee in the third quarter. He threw for 297 yards in the first half, including a 29-yard scoring pass to Warren Wells to open the scoring.

His passing then set up 24 points in the decisive second quarter or a 31-7 halftime lead. A 29-yarder to Wells and a 41-yard toss to Hewritt Dixon set up two short scorng runs by Pete Banaszak and an 82-yard pas play to Fred Biletnikoff set up a George Blanda field goal.

Lamonica ran four yards for another core and then passed 17 yards to Billy Cannon for the finale in the third quarter.

SSan Diego had its hands full aganst the Dolphin and trailed 21-17 until Lance Alworth latched onto scoring passse of 23 yards from Jim Allison and three yards from John Hadl.

A field goal made it 34-21 before Bob Griese threw his third touchdown pass for Miam in the final minute.

Johnny Sample gave the struggling Jets their only touchdown by sprinting 36 yards with an intercepted pass for a 10-7 lead. From then on they relied on Turner to overcome Kay Stephenson's two scoring passes and an 82-yard punt return by Hagood Clarke.

Turner, whose eight field goal attempts—he missed his first two—also tied a rceord, hit from 32 yards twice, 27 twice, nine yards and three as the Jets raied their record to 6-2.

Campbell Ties Pierce For Grid Yogi Lead

Chuck Campbell moved into a tie with Turk Pierce for the lead in the Review Grid Yogi race with one week left.

Campbell posted a 7-2 mark, as did Ed Clutter, while Pierce was 6-3. There was one tie game, Georgia and Houston, 10-10. Pete Weaver, who was the consensus this week, had the best record, 8-1, and moved into a four - way tie for third with Bob Duffy, Bob Shaffer and Rose Nuzzo. The quartet is four games behind the leaders and must be rated long shots to win the title. Duffy and Shaffer went 6-3 for the week and Nuzzo 5-4.

Weaver and the consensus tripped on only Southern Local, a 22-6 loser to United Local. Campbell also missed on the Chiefs, a 38-21 loser to the Raiders, while Clutter also missed on Wellsville, a 21-13 loser to Western Beaver.

Pierce fell with Southern, Wellsville and Lisbon, a 27-21 loser to Columbiana. Duffy missed on Southern, Lisbon and Michigan St., a 25-20 loser to Ohio St. Shaffer missed on Southern, Wellsville and the Chiefs. Nuzzo was the only Yogi to get United Local, but fell with Toronto, a 12-0 loser to Beaver Local, as well as Lisbon, Michigan State and the Chiefs.

Everyone was right on East Liverpool, a 24-13 winner over Bellaire St. John's; Weirton, a 26-14 winner over Oak Glen; and Midland, a 26-14 winner over Freedom.

Francis, Cunningham Score

Glenmoor Tops Vikings 12-0 For Bill Booth Title

Glenmoor won the championship of the Bill Booth football little league by downing Dixonville 12-0 at Patterson Field Saturday night.

Kevin Francis scored on a 31-yard run and Gary Cunningham on a 12-yard run. Cunningham gained 100 yards in 12 carries and Francis 72 yards in 12 carries.

Dixonville drove to the four-yard line just before halftime, but couldn't score. The passing of Kim Kuczenski featured the Dixonville attack. Glenmoor led in first downs 11-9.

League President Ray Rigdon presented the Bill Booth Bowl trophy to Glenmoor. St. Al's won the cheerleading championship, with Glenmoor second.

There was a paid attendance of 1,051.

Flyers Surprise Montreal

Penguins Split On Coast; Rangers Continue To Win

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Rangers continue to fatten up on expansion opposition but the new teams are a bitter pill for other National Hockey League clubs to swallow.

New York nipped Minnesota 2-1 Sunday night for its seventh straight victory over the West Division this year. But Philadelphia stung Montreal 3-2, completing a weekend sweep of the older East Division for the expansionist Flyers, and St. Louis rallied for a 4-4 tie against Detroit.

In Sunday's other games, Boston whipped Chicago 5-3 and Pittsburgh downed Oakland 3-1.

Saturday night, it was Philadelphia 3, Toronto 2; Minnesota 2-0 over St. Lous, Montreal 2-1 over Detroit and Los Angeles 3, Pittsburgh 2.

All of the Ranger victories this season have come against the NHL's newer teams and all three New York losses against the older clubs.

The Rangers shelled ex-teammate Cesare Maniago with 43 shots but only two got by him. Those were 71 seconds apart in the first period by Bob Nevin and Dave Balon. Danny Grant scored for Minnesota.

Camille Henry scored three goals—two of them 19 seconds apart in the third period—to earn St. Louis its tie with Detroit.

Henry's seventh career hat trick erased a 4-2 Detroit lead wis his second goal.

The Flyers stunned Montreal on a 75-foot shot by Jim Johnson that broke a 2-2 tie in the third period. The Canadiens, who had lost just once in their first nine starts, were pressuring Philadelphia goalie Bernie Parent when Johnson broke out of the jam with the puck and lofted his shot at goalie Rogatien Vachon.

Vachon caught the long hot, then dropped it and it trickled over the line for the winning goal.

Bobby Orr dashed the length of the rink and scored the goal that set off a four-goal Boston rally and carried the Bruins past the Black Hawks.

Orr's second period goal was followed by scores by Eddie Westfall, Gary Doak and Glen Sather against Chicago's Dave Dryden.

Southern Cal Nips Oregon; Georgia, California Tied

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California continues on course to Pasadena and the Rose Bowl. The itinerary thankfully doesn't include Oregon.

All that prevented the top-ranked Trojan express from becoming derailed Saturday was a key pass interference call that set up Steve Sogge's three-yard touchdown pass to Bob Klein with 1:13 left for a 20-13 victory over underdog Oregon.

The Webfoots limited O.J. Simpson to 67 yards, including a one-yard touchdown run. But Sogge took up the slack with two scoring passes, hitting Jim Lawrence with a nine-yarder in the first period.

"I think I'll stay away from Oregon from now on," Simpson said. "Nothing good has happened for two years now."

Last season, Oregon State handed Southern Cal its only setback, a 3-0 loss at Corvallis.

Many of the nation's Top Twenty college football teams had their problmes. Second-ranked Ohio State held off No. 16 Michigan State 25-20, third-ranked Kansas downed Colorado 27-14 and No. 4 Penn State squeaked by Army 28-24.

Tennessee, No. 5, rolled past UCLA 42-18 and sixth-ranked Purdue walloped Illinois 35-17. But seventh-rated Georgia was held to a 10-10 tie with No. 15 Houston and eighth-ranked California fumbled its way to a 7-7 deadlock with Washington.

Rounding out the Top Ten, Michigan, ranked ninth, crushed Northwestern 35-0 and No. 10 to cover, for a hard-fought triumph. Tight end Ted Kwalick sealed the victory by running 53 yards with an onside kickoff in the fourth period.

Missouri clobbered Oklahoma State 42-7.

The next 10 teams were not so fortunate, although No. 11 Texas plastered Southern Methodist, No. 13, 38-7 and 12th-ranked Notre Dame thrashed Navy 45-14.

But 14th-ranked Louisiana State fell to Mississippi 27-24, No. 17 Arkansas nipped Texas A&M 25-22, 18th-rated Florida State lost to Virginia Tech 40-22, Ohio University, ranked 19th, outlasted Western Michigan 34-27 and Florida, No. 20, bowed to Auburn 24-13.

Ohio State took a 19-7 halftime lead but needed two late fumble recoveries to hold off Michigan State. Sophomore quarterback Rex Kern suffered a severe ankle sprain and may miss next Saturday's game with Wisconsin.

Kansas used the 162-yard, two-touchdown running of John Riggins and Bill Bell's two field goals to get by Colorado. Penn State took advantage of Army's mistakes, including a field goal attempt which the Cadets failed

Tennessee rode Bubba Wyche's passing pat UCLA, and Perry Williams and Leroy Keyes both broke Purdue's career rushing record in the Boilermakers' win over Illinois. A 224-yard peformance by Houston fullback Paul Gipson was offset by a 38-yard game-tying field goal by Georgia's Jim McCullough with 12 seconds left.

California was about to beat Wahington but Randy Humphries fumbled on the Huskies' one-yard line in the late going and the Golden Bears had to settle for a tie. Michigan and Missouri had little trouble in their victories.

South Carolina's Tommy Suggs threw five touchdown passes against Virginia and Steve Ramsey of North Texas State did the same against Cincinnati. Larry Lawrence set an Iowa record by scoring four times against Minnesota.

Casper Wins $100,000 Lucky Golf

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Billy Casper chipped in from off the green for birdies on the first and second holes in the first round of the $100,000 Lucy International Open Golf Tournament Sunday, and went on to his sixth tournament victory of the year. His winning 72-hole score was 269, 15 under par.

The victory gave the 37-year-old Bonita, Calif., pro $20,000 in prize money and a total for the year of $203,389. Only Jack Nicklaus, who carted home $211,000 last year, has ever won more money playing golf.

Casper finished four strokes ahead of the next closest finishers, Ray Floyd and Don Massengale.

Young Bob Murphy, Ken Still of Stockton and Miller Barber tied for fourth at 274.

Murphy and Still shot 69s Sunday and Barber had a 68. One stroke ftaher behind at 276 was Tommy Aaron, who followed his course record 63 of Saturday with a one-over-par 72.

Shut-eye? . . Ho . . Hum!

There is an old Irish saying: "The beginning of health is sleep" — The truth is self evident; but wait, don't turn in yet! Did you know that too much sleep can be harmful?

During sleep breathing becomes slower, the intake of oxygen is decreased and the concentration of carbon dioxide is increased in the blood stream. This condition can become harmful when extended over a long period of time.

There is no doubt that you must sleep several hours a day to keep strong and healthy; but the next time you "hit the sac" remember, you can have too much of a good thing!

At CITIZENS' we're never asleep when it comes to taking care of customers. They tell us our prices are right, and they like our friendly, dependable service. Casper Wins $100,000 Lucky Golf

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Billy Casper chipped in from off the green for birdies on the first and second holes in the first round of the $100,000 Lucy International Open Golf Tournament Sunday, and went on to his sixth tournament victory of the year. His winning 72-hole score was 269, 15 under par.

The victory gave the 37-year-old Bonita, Calif., pro $20,000 in prize money and a total for the year of $203,389. Only Jack Nicklaus, who carted home $211,000 last year, has ever won more money playing golf.

Casper finished four strokes ahead of the next closest finishers, Ray Floyd and Don Massengale.

Casper carded a final-round 66 for 269. Floyd shot a 68 Sunday and Massengale fired a 69 for their 273s.

Young Bob Murphy, Ken Still of Stockton and Miller Barber tied for fourth at 274.

Murphy and Still shot 69s Sunday and Barber had a 68. One stroke ftaher behind at 276 was Tommy Aaron, who followed his course record 63 of Saturday with a one-over-par 72.

Sophomore Game Cancelled By Rayen

The Youngstown Rayen at East Liverpool sophomore football game, scheduled for Saturday, was cancelled by Rayen.

Conrad van Houten patented a press in 1820 for the making of cocoa powder.

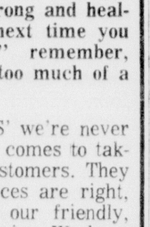
Rx your Pharmacist corner

By George Manolakis R.Ph.



Shut-eye? . . Ho . . Hum!

There is an old Irish saying: "The beginning of health is sleep" — The truth is self evident; but wait, don't turn in yet! Did you know that too much sleep can be harmful?

During sleep breathing becomes slower, the intake of oxygen is decreased and the concentration of carbon dioxide is increased in the blood stream. This condition can become harmful when extended over a long period of time.

There is no doubt that you must sleep several hours a day to keep strong and healthy; but the next time you "hit the sac" remember, you can have too much of a good thing!

At CITIZENS' we're never asleep when it comes to taking care of customers. They tell us our prices are right, and they like our friendly, dependable service. We hope you too, will make our up-to-date pharmacy your one-stop-headquarters for all your medical needs. Visit CITIZENS' WALGREEN AGENCY, Carolina At Fifth, Chester, West Va. or

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Candidates for political office, from president to dogcatcher, will have spent between $250 million and $300 million by the time this year's campaign bills are paid.

A third of that total is being spent in pursuit of the presidency alone.

The estimates, compiled by experts in campaign financing, are supported by an Associated Press survey of political spending.

Aside from the presidential race, the costliest contests are those for major statewide office in the big states.

A hotly contested Senate race, such as in California, may involve expenditures of $5 million.

Even a campaign for a House seat may cost a lot with records showing House races in which more than $500,000 was spent.

All this spending is financed by contributions and loans—some large, many small. And some candidates dig deep into their own pockets for needed funds.

Herbert E. Alexander of the Citizens Research Foundation in Princeton, N.J., a recognized expert, estimates the total cost of 1968 political campaigning at $250 million to $275 million.

Stephen Horn, a senior research fellow with the Brookings Institution in Washington, estimates $250 million to $300 million.

It is impossible to obtain complete and accurate totals because of loose and varied laws regulating the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures.

Federal law doesn't require any reports by candidates on their expenditures in winning party nominations. States have varying requirements; some have none at all.

Presidential and vice presidential candidates aren't required to file statements, although national committees working in their behalf must report expenditures to Congress.

The camps of the three leading contenders have provided The AP with these estimates of their costs for the general election campaign:

—Republicans Richard M. Nixon and Spiro T. Agnew, more than $20 million.

—Democrats Humphrey and Edmund S. Muskie, about $12 million.

—American Independents George C. Wallace and Curtis E. LeMay, $10 million to $20 million.

To these totals must be added another $30 million to $35 million which these candidates and their unsuccessful opponents spent prior to the party nominating conventions.

Swelling the total by an unknown but large amount are expenditures made by state and local groups on behalf of their chosen tickets. These groups, except in a few states, make no reports.

State party committees also usually assign a portion of their budgets to plugging the national ticket.

These amounts, Alexander said, probbably add up to anoth $10 million or more.

Thus the total spent in the effort to elect one man—a president—exceeds $80 million and may reach $100 million.

A cnetury ago, Abraham Lincoln spent a reported $100,000 on winning his first presidential campaign, during which he never left Springfield, Ill., and made no major talks.

Alexander's estimate that political spending this year would exceed $250 million compares with his estimates of $200 million in 1964, $175 million in 1960, $155 million in 1956 and $140 million in 1952.

Available figures indicate Republicans have consistently outspent Democrats in recent presidential races and will do so again this year.

In 1964, reports indicate 18 Republican national political committees supporting Barry Goldwater spent $16 million. Thirty-two Democratic committees supporting President Johnson spent $8.5 million.

In 1960, expenditures of $10.1 million were reported by GOP committees, $9.8 million by Democratic committees.

Where does all this money go?

Most candidates report their biggest cost item is advertising on television and radio and in newspapers. Travel, hotels, meals, campaign literature, buttons, balloons, bumper stickers, campaign letters and circulars and staff salaries all account for sizeable expenditures.

A report by the Federal Communications Commission shows that political candidates spent $34.6 million for television and radio time in 1964.

This figure is expected to reach $50 million this year. Added to this are network and station production costs, a particularly large item for recorded shows.

Nixon forces estimate they are spending about $10 million, or nearly 50 per cent of their total budget, on radio and television broadcasts.

Humphrey, reportedly short of money until late in the campaign, stepped up his television schedule with a $2.5 million effort in the last few days of his drive.

Most candidates for Congress also report heavy expenditures for television and radio.

The National Broadcasting Co. says it charges $160,000 an hour for use of its network in prime time. A half hour goes for 52 per cent of that, $83,200.

A one-minute spot commercial during network prime time costs $26,000.

In many races, more has been spent by losing candidates than by the winners.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., spent an estimated $6 million to $7 million in his unsuccessful bid for the Democratic presidential nomination this year. Humphrey's expenses in landing the nomination were estimated at $4 million to $5 million.

Rep. Joseph Y. Resnick reported spending $776,993 in his effort to win the New York Democratic nomination for the Senate. Paul O'Dwyer, who won, reported expenses of $27,441.

Personalities In The News

RUSSELL, Kan. (AP) — Dave Grove will be voting in his 21st presidential election Tuesday. He wa 101 Oct. 27.

Grove said he voted the first time in 1888 or Benjamin Harrison. In his 80 year as a voter, he said he has picked 10 presidential winners, and 10 losers, all Republicans.

BRIGHTON, England (AP) — Prince Ranier and Princess Grace of Monaco have driven a 1903 De Dion Bouton automobile from London to Brighton in an annual run for old cars.

About 250 cars took part Sunday in the "old crocks" run which commemorates the lifting of the 3-m.p.h. speed limit for horseless carraige in 1896.

Prince Rainier drove the whole 50 miles, but the princess retreated to a closed car for part of the route.

"I found it very cold," she said, "I suppose I cheated a little bit."

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Movie actor Charlton Heston has fractured a rib while scrimmaging against the New Orleans Saints football team.

Heston was rehearsing Saturday for the movie "Pro" when he was upset accidentally by his supporting cast.

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Adm. Benigno Varela and newspaper editor Yolvan Biglieri crossed swords in Argentina's first reported duel in many years.

The retired admiral challenged Biglieri after his paper criticized him.

Biglieri nicked the admiral's left cheek and ear. Varela scored to the editor's right cheekbone. They were eager to continue, but their seconds ruled that honor had been satisfied and stopped the match.

County Teacher Elected To Post

COLUMBIANA — Theodore Ossoff, instructor in algebra and driver education at Columbiana High School, was elected to represent Columbiana County on the executive committee of the East Central Ohio Teachers Association Friday during the 10th annual meeting in Canton.

He succees Norman Broscoe, business education teacher at David Anderson High School, Lisbon.

Gordon Rinehart, an Alliance teacher, is the president - elect for 1970. James L. McBride, superintendent of Columbiana County schools, was the other candidate.

Harold Windram of Leetonia RD 2, a principal in the Carrollton school system, is ECOTA president for 1969.

Approximately 5,000 teachers from Columbiana, Carroll, Stark, Tuscarawas, Holmes and Wayne counties attended the convention.

By GORDON BROWN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Candidates for political office, from president to dogcatcher, will have spent between $250 million and $300 million by the time this year's campaign bills are paid.

A third of that total is being spent in pursuit of the presidency alone.

The estimates, compiled by experts in campaign financing, are supported by an Associated Press survey of political spending.

Aside from the presidential race, the costliest contests are those for major statewide office in the big states.

A hotly contested Senate race, such as in California, may involve expenditures of $5 million.

Even a campaign for a House seat may cost a lot with records showing House races in which more than $500,000 was spent.

All this spending is financed by contributions and loans—some large, many small. And some candidates dig deep into their own pockets for needed funds.

Herbert E. Alexander of the Citizens Research Foundation in Princeton, N.J., a recognized expert, estimates the total cost of 1968 political campaigning at $250 million to $275 million.

Stephen Horn, a senior research fellow with the Brookings Institution in Washington, estimates $250 million to $300 million.

It is impossible to obtain complete and accurate totals because of loose and varied laws regulating the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures.

Federal law doesn't require any reports by candidates on their expenditures in winning party nominations. States have varying requirements; some have none at all.

Presidential and vice presidential candidates aren't required to file statements, although national committees working in their behalf must report expenditures to Congress.

The camps of the three leading contenders have provided The AP with these estimates of their costs for the general election campaign:

—Republicans Richard M. Nixon and Spiro T. Agnew, more than $20 million.

—Democrats Humphrey and Edmund S. Muskie, about $12 million.

—American Independents George C. Wallace and Curtis E. LeMay, $10 million to $20 million.

To these totals must be added another $30 million to $35 million which these candidates and their unsuccessful opponents spent prior to the party nominating conventions.

Swelling the total by an unknown but large amount are expenditures made by state and local groups on behalf of their chosen tickets. These groups, except in a few states, make no reports.

State party committees also usually assign a portion of their budgets to plugging the national ticket.

These amounts, Alexander said, probbably add up to anoth $10 million or more.

Thus the total spent in the effort to elect one man—a president—exceeds $80 million and may reach $100 million.

A cnetury ago, Abraham Lincoln spent a reported $100,000 on winning his first presidential campaign, during which he never left Springfield, Ill., and made no major talks.

Alexander's estimate that political spending this year would exceed $250 million compares with his estimates of $200 million in 1964, $175 million in 1960, $155 million in 1956 and $140 million in 1952.

Available figures indicate Republicans have consistently outspent Democrats in recent presidential races and will do so again this year.

In 1964, reports indicate 18 Republican national political committees supporting Barry Goldwater spent $16 million. Thirty-two Democratic committees supporting President Johnson spent $8.5 million.

In 1960, expenditures of $10.1 million were reported by GOP committees, $9.8 million by Democratic committees.

Where does all this money go?

Most candidates report their biggest cost item is advertising on television and radio and in newspapers. Travel, hotels, meals, campaign literature, buttons, balloons, bumper stickers, campaign letters and circulars and staff salaries all account for sizeable expenditures.

A report by the Federal Communications Commission shows that political candidates spent $34.6 million for television and radio time in 1964.

This figure is expected to reach $50 million this year. Added to this are network and station production costs, a particularly large item for recorded shows.

Nixon forces estimate they are spending about $10 million, or nearly 50 per cent of their total budget, on radio and television broadcasts.

Humphrey, reportedly short of money until late in the campaign, stepped up his television schedule with a $2.5 million effort in the last few days of his drive.

Most candidates for Congress also report heavy expenditures for television and radio.

The National Broadcasting Co. says it charges $160,000 an hour for use of its network in prime time. A half hour goes for 52 per cent of that, $83,200.

A one-minute spot commercial during network prime time costs $26,000.

In many races, more has been spent by losing candidates than by the winners.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., spent an estimated $6 million to $7 million in his unsuccessful bid for the Democratic presidential nomination this year. Humphrey's expenses in landing the nomination were estimated at $4 million to $5 million.

Rep. Joseph Y. Resnick reported spending $776,993 in his effort to win the New York Democratic nomination for the Senate. Paul O'Dwyer, who won, reported expenses of $27,441.

Personalities In The News

RUSSELL, Kan. (AP) — Dave Grove will be voting in his 21st presidential election Tuesday. He wa 101 Oct. 27.

Grove said he voted the first time in 1888 or Benjamin Harrison. In his 80 year as a voter, he said he has picked 10 presidential winners, and 10 losers, all Republicans.

BRIGHTON, England (AP) — Prince Ranier and Princess Grace of Monaco have driven a 1903 De Dion Bouton automobile from London to Brighton in an annual run for old cars.

About 250 cars took part Sunday in the "old crocks" run which commemorates the lifting of the 3-m.p.h. speed limit for horseless carraige in 1896.

Prince Rainier drove the whole 50 miles, but the princess retreated to a closed car for part of the route.

"I found it very cold," she said, "I suppose I cheated a little bit."

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Movie actor Charlton Heston has fractured a rib while scrimmaging against the New Orleans Saints football team.

Heston was rehearsing Saturday for the movie "Pro" when he was upset accidentally by his supporting cast.

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Adm. Benigno Varela and newspaper editor Yolvan Biglieri crossed swords in Argentina's first reported duel in many years.

The retired admiral challenged Biglieri after his paper criticized him.

Biglieri nicked the admiral's left cheek and ear. Varela scored to the editor's right cheekbone. They were eager to continue, but their seconds ruled that honor had been satisfied and stopped the match.

County Teacher Elected To Post

COLUMBIANA — Theodore Ossoff, instructor in algebra and driver education at Columbiana High School, was elected to represent Columbiana County on the executive committee of the East Central Ohio Teachers Association Friday during the 10th annual meeting in Canton.

He succees Norman Broscoe, business education teacher at David Anderson High School, Lisbon.

Gordon Rinehart, an Alliance teacher, is the president - elect for 1970. James L. McBride, superintendent of Columbiana County schools, was the other candidate.

Harold Windram of Leetonia RD 2, a principal in the Carrollton school system, is ECOTA president for 1969.

Approximately 5,000 teachers from Columbiana, Carroll, Stark, Tuscarawas, Holmes and Wayne counties attended the convention.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, Nov. 4, the 309th day of 1968. There are 57 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

In 1842, Abraham Lincoln was married to Mary Todd in Springfield.

In 1884, Democrat Grover Cleveland was elected president.

In 1924, Calvin Coolidge was elected president.

In 1931, the League of Nations cited Japan for aggression in Manchuria.

In 1944, the World War II Allies announced that Greece had been completely liberated from the Nazis.

Ten years ago — The Democrats scored sweeping victories throughout most of the nation in general elections and gained control of the House and the Senate.

Five years ago — The Soviets halted an American convoy en route to West Berlin on the Autobahn in the second such incident in a month.

One year ago — Pope Paul underwent a prostate operation at the Vatican.

Junior Editors Quiz on WHISKERS

QUESTION: Why do so many animals have whiskers?

* * * *

ANSWER: We think of a man's whiskers as the hair growing on his jaw, upper lip and chin. Many animals have hair growing over their face and head. We speak of their "whiskers" as something different — as the long, separate hairs growing out from between nose and mouth. When you think of the way so many animals live, you will understand why whiskers are so valuable to them. A great many animals are more active in the dark or like to stay in dark places. The hunted ones seek escape from the hunting kind, the hunters seek their prey. Both kinds need whiskers to feel their way round, for each individual whisker has a ring of nerves around it. If the whisker touches anything, an instant report is sent to the animal's brain. All the animals we show use whiskers in this way, but the manatee has still another use for the rough bristles on his upper lip. They help him as he stuffs underwater plants into his mouth. Insects also have sensitive feelers in front of the head. Called antennae, they help the insect learn a great deal about his surroundings.

(Donna Spencer of Hickory, N.C., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Cool Cereal With Cube!

DEAR HELOISE: When I took my baby off baby food I used quick-cooking cereals for breakfast, but before I could cool the cereal, the baby would be hungry and crying.

Heloise

Now I've learned to drop an ice cube in the hot cereal, stirring only a few seconds, then remove the remainder of the cube and the cereal is ready to eat.

As most hot cereals cook rather thick, the melting cube doesn't make it too thin.

-:-

Now, that's what I call finding your COOL right quick, Sherry! Great!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I read your advice to buy enough extra material to line a garment.

Well, a home economics major gave me this hint: Take an old bed sheet that is worn or torn and cannot be used on the bed anymore. Cut a lining from the good part.

A sheet has been washed many times and it will not shrink.

I have used this idea on wool, cotton, linen and silk and have never been disappointed when the garment is washed or cleaned. The lining is always right and the seams do not pucker.

MRS. W. B. SIBOLD.

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a hint I tried and enjoyed so much that I would like to pass it on to others.

I had some chocolate nut bars left from trick-or-treat night. So I cut up and melted two of them in a little water, making a nice syrup.

I then poured this over vanilla ice cream and I'm telling you, it was the best chocolate nut sundae I have ever eaten.

EDITH H. HAWK.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I have five boys and your most frequently used hint is the one on using nutmeats to hide scratches on furniture.

I use more walnuts for scratches than I do for baking brownies.

MRS. R. MEDEIROS.

DEAR HELOISE: My son who attends college away from home asked me to tell you what I do when I mail food to him.

Sending baked goods to him through the mail was always quite a problem to me until I hit on the idea of baking fruit breads in number 303 tin cans! After the bread is baked, I remove it from the can to cool. Then return to can for shipping. In this way breakage is avoided.

He said all the students on his floor had written home to tell their mothers to ship their goodies this way. He also says they many times prefer the breads to cookies or cakes because they aren't so sweet and keep well.

ERMA M. WIEGAND.

DEAR HELOISE: In our family there are five school-age children, and umbrellas were always getting lost until my mother got this idea.

Inside of each dark umbrella, she printed the name and address of each child with white paint, using a pen or tiny paint brush.

Now if we lose one, it is always returned to us.

SUSIE

DEAR HELOISE: I always take the last piece of cake that is drying out and put it through the food chopper. Then store it in the freezer along with the cookie crumbs from the bottom of the canister until I have enough for a crumb crust or topping.

Frosting and nuts in the cake only add to the flavor of the dish!

DOROTHY

This column is written for you . . . the housewife and homemaker. If you have a hint or a problem write to Heloise in care of this newspaper. Because of the tremendous volume of mail, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will, however, answer your questions in her column whenever possible.

Heart Study Set

TEL AVIV (AP) — The U.S. government is financing a $140,000 operation by Israeli doctors to investigate links between heart disease and road accidents which, the Ministry of Transport says, is the first such study ever undertaken.

His Own Method

LEBANON, Ky. (AP) — One of the third grade students at St. Joseph Sctool was sent outside to empty the wastebaskets. He was back in a few moments, much to the surprise of the teacher, who remarked "you coudn't have emptied them that fast." "They didn't need emptying," the ad replied, "they just needed stepping .n."

The first major redesign of Canadian coinage in 30 years commemorated the country's 100th anniversary as a confederated nation. The widlife motifs on the coins, such as the wildcat on the 25-cent piece symbolizing independece, reflect the character and spirit of the Canadian people.

They said it in his own hometown.

The Cincinnati Enquirer

"William B. Saxbe for Senator. Ohioans over the years have had occasion to know Mr. Saxbe well — and they know for what he stands. They recognize him as articulate and creative, as courageous and constructive. They see in him also a kind of personal integrity that is the surest guarantee that he will be beholden to no interest except Ohio's welfare and the nation's."

The Cincinnati Post and Times Star

"Saxbe for Senator. More than 15 years of state service should serve him well in the U.S. Senate. In his years of public office, he has kept in tune with the times. He has carried on his duties with conscience and conviction. If a new Administration in Washington is to accomplish many sorely needed changes, it requires men like Saxbe for support."
